

AUTONOMY IS A FAILURE

Proctor Will So Report to the President.

GOMEZ HAS THE ISLAND.

The Authors of the Maine Disaster Were Spaniards.

HE SUSPECTS THE GOVERNMENT.

Much to indicate that the authorities were back of the explosion—Proctor's companion, Colonel Parker, admits that it is the opinion in Havana that the battleship was blown up from the outside—Reports of the terrible condition of the reconcentrados and the desolation of the island not exaggerated—Praises the charitable work of the Red Cross—Expresses approval of General Lee's conduct.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Senator Proctor, of Vermont and his companion Colonel Myron M. Parker who have been spending some time in Cuba, have returned to Washington.

While the senate will not talk for publication, but it is asserted that he will present the situation to President McKinley this way:

"I found that Gomez has the island. He goes when and where he pleases. Blanco holds the seaports. Autonomy is an absolute failure. As to the Maine, it was blown up by design from the outside. The authors of the atrocity were Spaniards, and there is much to show they acted by Spanish governmental authority. Captain Sampson's commission will so report."

Colonel Parker said:

"We went to Sagua la Grande, Matanzas, Cienfuegos and Artemisa, provinces of the Pinar del Rio. I was with Senator Proctor most of the time. The stories of the amount of suffering in the island of Cuba have not been exaggerated. It is intense over every portion of the island. The reconcentrados are gathered into the villages, where they can be seen in all their pitiable aspects. It is, perhaps, greater in Matanzas than elsewhere. What impressed me most, and would doubtless impress any visitor to Cuba, is the utter desolation of the island. Miss Barton is doing great work among the reconcentrados and is to be praised for her heroic efforts in that direction. We were well treated by the Spaniards."

In answer to the question as to what, in his mind, should be done to put an end to the awful suffering, Colonel Parker would not commit himself, but said significantly that he had no doubt this government would take the best course. He commended most highly the action pursued by Consul General Lee, who, he said, was a man fitted for his place in every respect, from what he had seen of his administration of affairs there.

"The matter of his recall reached there just a little before the contradiction and was not credited. It was denied that his return to this country was wanted," he said. In regard to the question as to whether the impression prevailed in Havana that the Maine was destroyed by external influence, Colonel Parker spoke guardedly. He said, however, that the same impression prevailed there as it did here.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.

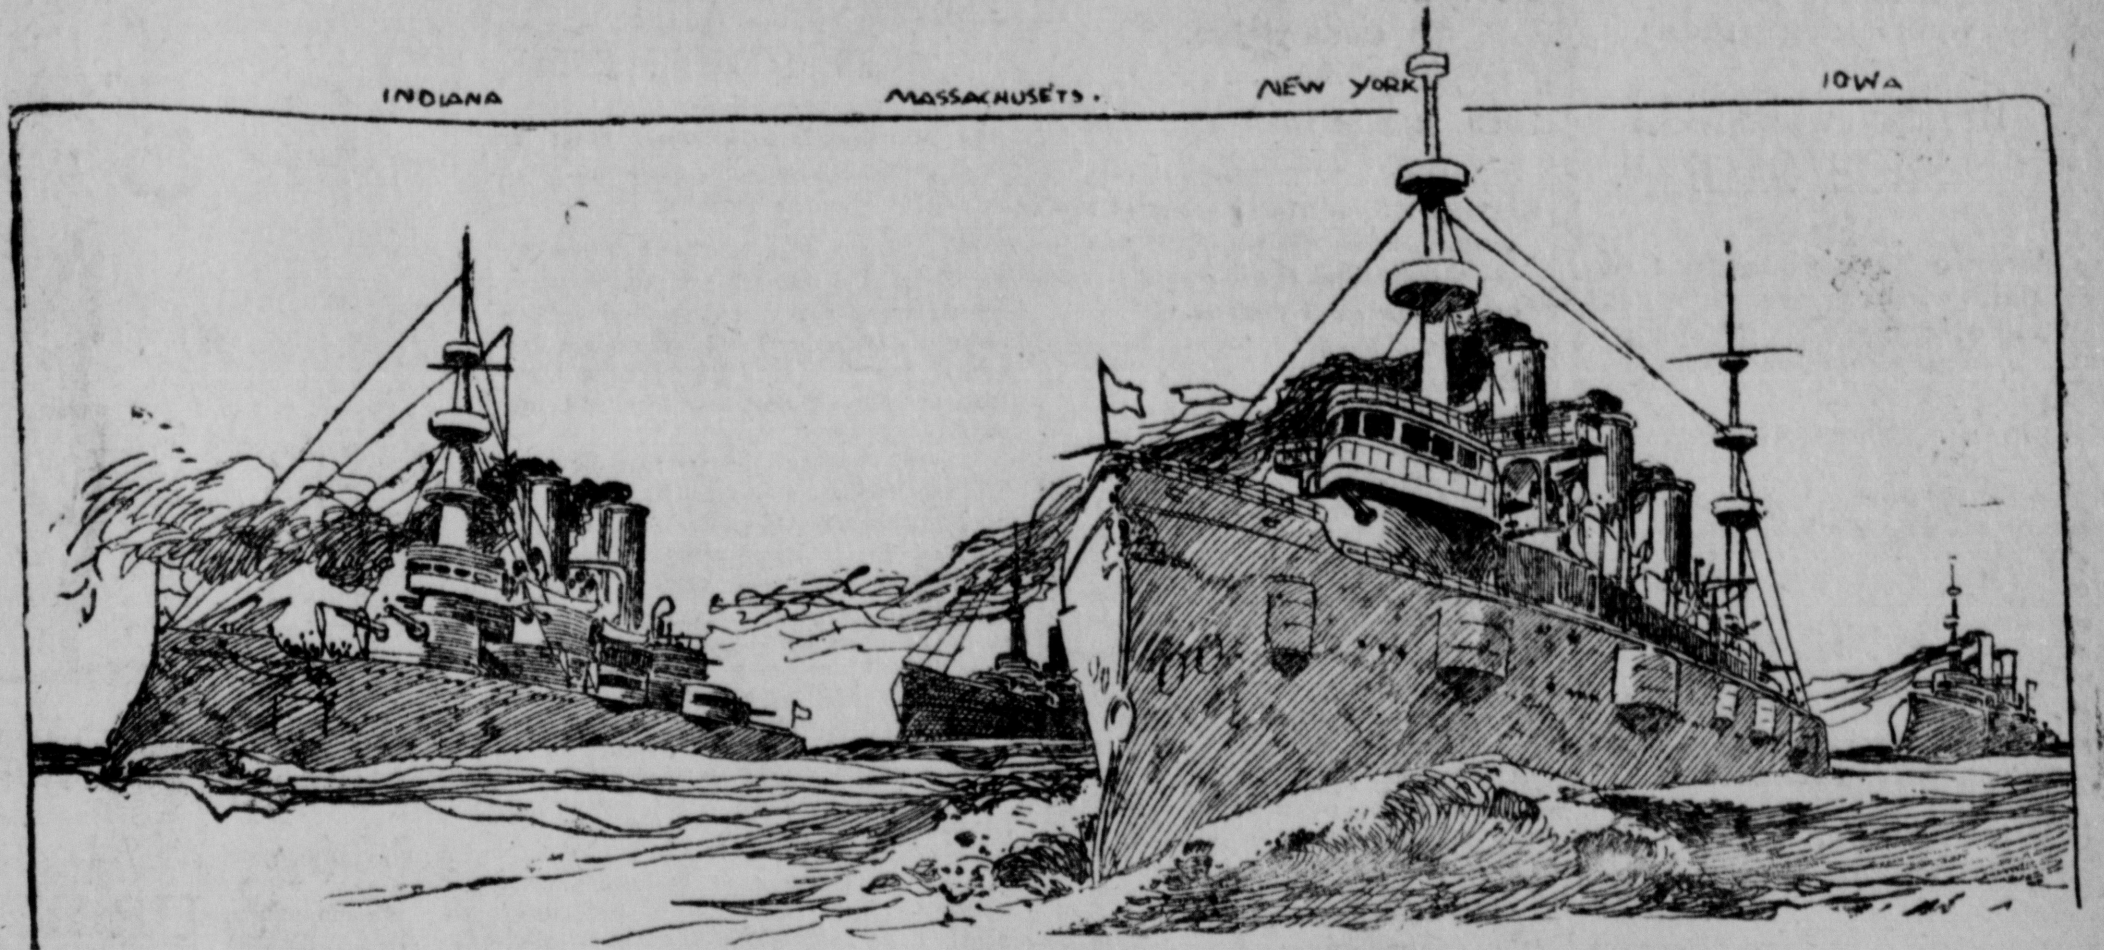

Representatives of Big Lines Meet Officials in Washington to Complete Arrangements.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The government is perfecting its plans to make the movement of troops to the coast defenses, orders for which were issued by the war department Friday, and published at that time.

A conference was held here yesterday by representatives of the following railroads to arrange for the transportation of light artillerymen and their accoutrements: The Atlantic Coast Line, the Southern railroad, the Seaboard Air Line and the Chesapeake and Ohio.

It was stated that companies of artillerymen, consisting of about 60 men each, would be transferred from Fort Monroe to the following points: Fort Caswell, on the Cape Fear river, Georgia, to Tybee, near Savannah; to Fort Morgan, near Mobile, and to Sheridan's point, on the Potomac. It was stated also that a company would be moved from Fort McHenry, Baltimore, to some point on the Delaware river, near Philadelphia.

The government wanted it was de-

THE NORTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON.

red, the arrangements perfected by today or tomorrow at the latest.

SPAIN'S TIME EXTENDED.

Reported in Madrid That We Want Peace by May 1.

LONDON, March 14.—The Madrid correspondent of The Morning Post says: "I am able to assert on the best authority that United States Minister Woodford originally intimated that the United States hoped and expected that Spain would re-establish peace in Cuba before March 1 of this year. Recently, in response to Spanish representations, the United States extended the time to May 1. Both governments refuse to describe this intimation as an ultimatum to Spain."

Brazilian Ships Not Yet Bought.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Secretary Long has made the statement that the matter of the purchase of the two Brazilian ships had not been settled.

WARSHIPS COMING HOME.

The Helena and Bancroft Ordered From the European Station.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The ordering of the Helena and the Bancroft, now on the European station, to the United States, will leave Admiral Howell, commanding that station, with but one vessel, viz., the San Francisco. No explanation for the action is vouchsafed by the officials of the navy department, and Secretary Long when asked declined to say anything about the step further than that the two ships had been ordered home.

RAILROADS GET READY.

Ordered to Have Steam Up to Move at a Moment's Notice.

ATLANTA, March 14.—Orders have been received here by the master mechanics of all the railroads entering the city to have every engine steamed up and ready for use at a moment's notice. All roundhouses in the yards were lighted up last night and a full force of men was at work—a very unusual thing for Sunday night.

SPANISH PRIEST WILL HELP.

Klopsch and Lee to Be Aided in Distributing Relief in Cuba.

HAVANA, March 14.—Every one is gratified to learn that a famous Catholic priest who will not allow his name to be published, will give all the aid in his power to Consul General Lee and Mr. Klopsch, not only in Havana, where the suffering is much alleviated, but outside, where relief is most urgently needed.

The United States consuls at Matanzas and Sagua and the consular agents in other cities can be relied upon, it is believed, with the help of the local Spanish committees, to push forward the good work with all due speed.

The need of relief supplies is practically undiminished and there is no fear that the contributions already here or to come will not be properly used.

War Work at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, March 14.—Warner & Swasey of this city are filling a large order for the government for telescopes to be used on heavy guns for sighting purposes. They are also at work on a new model of a range finder for Fort Monroe. The Otis Steel company of this city is also filling a government order for deck plates for cruisers.

Pushing Government Work.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 14.—The Bethlehem Iron company has received orders to push all government work as yet unfinished on the 100 10 and 12-inch guns and carriages and the force of skilled mechanics in all departments is working night and day.

WAR SPIRIT IN SPAIN.

Correspondent Creelman Found It Very Strong.

WEYLER GETTING RATHER MILD.

He Says the United States Must Take the Initiative if Hostilities Break Out. The Bishop of Madrid Would Welcome Trouble.

PITTSBURG, March 14.—James Creelman, the correspondent, cabling from Madrid, to The Post, says:

My trip through rural Spain has given me ample opportunity of testing the war spirit of the Spaniards. That spirit is strong, but its glow is like the rectic spot upon the cheek of a dying consumptive.

The mayor of Medina said to me: "I voice the sentiments of my section of the country when I say Spain alone can't fight the United States, but the popular belief is that France and Russia will help us."

Upon examination I find this hope to be as groundless as that of the king of Greece against Turkey.

My first important visit at Madrid was to Monsigneur Joseph Marie Coss, its bishop. He said:

"I would give my solemn benediction to every banner floating over all warships fighting against the United States to keep us Cuba."

My next visit was to General Weyler. He is still the idol of most of the martial people of Spain. They look upon him as their bravest and best general. His cruel conduct of war well comports with Spanish ideas of military prowess. To me he said:

"The present attitude of most of our deputies is that they do not favor war. They do favor preparation for it, but its declaration must come from the United States."

"Spain is not as poor as most foreigners think. When war money was called for in '96 everybody, from queen regent to beggar, contributed so generously that only one-third was accepted. We can repeat this."

"I have been accused of cruelty in my military methods. I say it is more humane to take effectual measures to finish war than to have the agony prolonged by milder measures."

"Though the Philippines are again troublesome, though the high rate of exchange is galling to our mercantile people, though we have Carlists, Republicans, Royalists, Conservatives and Liberals, we all stand upon the common platform that the United States shall not have Cuba if it takes every peseta in Spain and the dearest sons of all our Spanish mothers to prevent it."

SPANISH MINE EXPLODED.

Army and Navy Register Says the President Knows Cause of the Maine Disaster.

NEW YORK, March 14.—The Army and Navy Register, in its latest issue, says: The Register is in possession of information that certain evidence gathered by the court of inquiry at Havana has come in a semi-official form to the president from two members of the board. The information has been in the hands of the president since Sunday of last week and has served the occasion of unusual activity during the week. The information is that the Maine was destroyed by a government submarine mine, planted in Havana harbor and deliberately exploded. More than this, it appears that the Maine was purposely moored in the vicinity of the mine and that the explosion occurred at the moment when the ship had been opportunely carried by wind and tide directly over the mine.

These facts have been hinted at and

written about in dispatches from Havana, Madrid and Washington, and among the varied statements made the actual conditions have been touched upon, but nothing authoritative has been permitted to escape from the court. That body is understood to have completed its work, but nothing is likely to be officially promulgated in regard to its findings for a week or more. There is obvious reason for such an action, the objects of which cannot be defeated by independent newspaper statements.

There can be but one outcome of such a report and preparation for the inevitable result are being industriously and indefatigably prosecuted. The work of last week shows that the government at Washington appreciates the situation and will be ready to meet what has now ceased to be a mere emergency.

SPAIN TO UPHOLD INSIDE CAUSE THEORY.

Officials Expect European Aid if United States Takes Initiative—Likely to Be Disappointed.

MADRID, March 14.—El Imparcial says: "The government is momentarily expecting to receive the report of the Spanish commission, which it is understood, will maintain that the Maine explosion was internal."

"Although the American commission may give another explanation, the government will energetically uphold the Spanish report."

The view held in official circles is that Spain will not provoke a war, because if she did, she would find herself isolated, but if America gives the provocation, Spain will not be alone in the struggle.

The general opinion is that in the event of war Spain will not need to attack American territory. It will suffice her to pursue a war of privateering. As America's commerce is seven fold greater than Spain's, American interests would suffer most. War would be madness, benefiting neither nation, and good sense therefore counsels peace.

PARIS, March 14.—The Temps says: "Spain does not deceive herself when she counts upon sympathies, at least latent, of European governments, but it would be a mistake for her to expect any effectual support from either Great Britain or the triple alliance. Before all she must rely upon herself."

LONDON, March 14.—The Sunday Special publishes from its Berlin correspondent an interview with United States Ambassador White on the attitude of the United States toward Spain and the Cuban situation.

Ambassador White, according to this dispatch, declared the statement that the United States had entered into an alliance with England and Japan absolutely without foundation.

"The United States," Mr. White is reported to have said, "will never bind herself by such alliance. President McKinley's administration cannot act against the tradition which forbids all such complications in America's international relations. Least of all will it do for the sake of American interests in the far east."

"The fear of war with Spain must not be taken too seriously. The $50,000,000 credit is no proof that the United States intends going to war, since the government had long demanded such a credit for the purposes of harbor defense. This, however, had been postponed owing to the niggardly policy congress had hitherto pursued."

Characterizing as "quite untrue" the statement that the United States had placed large orders with Herr Krupp, Mr. White is reported as adding:

"America possesses ammunition of all kinds and war material in the government factories sufficient for every emergency."

Torpedoes For Cruisers.

NEWPORT, R. I., March 14.—The tug Leyden has left the torpedo station for League Island navyyard with torpedo outfits of 20 projectiles for the cruisers Minneapolis and Columbia and torpedo-boat Rodgers.

NAVAL BOARD LOOKING FOR AUXILIARY SHIPS.

An Office Opened in New York Today. Hundreds Available For Use in War.

NEW YORK, March 14.—The naval board on auxiliary cruisers arrived here from Washington today and opened an office at 26 Courtland street.

The board consists of Chief Constructor Hichborn of the bureau of construction and repair, Captain Frederick Rodgers of the naval board of inspection and survey, Captain O'Neill, chief of the ordnance bureau; Lieutenant Sargeant, recorder of the board of inspection, and Lieutenant Peters of the naval intelligence bureau, Lieutenant Commander J. D. Kelley and Naval Constructor Towsesey, the latter now on duty at Cramps shipyards. Captain Rodgers is president.

Owners and agents for ships will be invited to make their proposals for turning over to the navy such vessels as are of value for conversion into war purposes. The naval officials say there will be no difficulty experienced in obtaining all vessels that are desired as there are hundreds available. Thanks to the careful work of the naval intelligence office, the department keeps in close touch with the construction of all craft that could be utilized in the event of hostilities and just now it has a record of 40 such ships of all sizes and classes which will be inspected and examined if their owners desire to part with them. A number of these are vessels which have been constructed under the subsidy act of congress and are engaged in carrying the mails.

The vessels to be examined will include all classes, from liners like the St. Paul to ocean-going tugs which can be of very material service for a number of purposes. Tonnage, draft, speed, conditions of boilers and machinery and other attributes will figure in the thorough inspection which will be undertaken by the board before any chartering or purchasing is recommended. Both the ordnance bureau and that engaged in the work of construction and repair are ready to take their part in fitting out and equipping such vessels as may be acquired.

At the Washington gun factory there are now in various stages of construction no less than 150 guns of formidable character, on which work is being done night and day with a view to their early completion. No new guns are being started, but the entire efforts of the factory are devoted to finishing those now under way. A naval officer said there will be enough of them when finished to constitute a fair armament for probably 30 or more auxiliary cruisers should such a large fleet be found necessary to supplement the regular warships.

The gunboat Machias, which has just arrived at Norfolk from the Asiatic station by way of the Suez canal, has been found to be in fair shape as a result of the examination by the naval inspection board. A thorough overhauling will be unnecessary in the present instance and she will be sent to Boston, where all necessary repairs can be made to her in about 12 days.

Troops Ready to Move.

EL RENO, O. T., March 14.—No orders for the immediate movement of troops have been received, as far as known, at either Fort Sill or Fort Reno, O. T. The troops at both points, however, are prepared to move at a moment's notice, having been placed on orders last week.

Iowa at Key West.

KEY WEST, March 14.—The battleship Iowa has arrived from the Tortugas and is anchored off here. The torpedo-boat Dupont sailed with mail and dispatches for the fleet at Tortugas. She will relieve the torpedo-boat Porter, now at the Tortugas.

The Weather. Fair; light westerly winds.

AUTONOMY IS A FAILURE

Proctor Will So Report to the President.

GOMEZ HAS THE ISLAND.

The Authors of the Maine Disaster Were Spaniards.

HE SUSPECTS THE GOVERNMENT.

Much to indicate that the authorities were back of the explosion—Proctor's companion, Colonel Parker, admits that it is the opinion in Havana that the battleship was blown up from the outside—Reports of the terrible condition of the reconcentrados and the desolation of the island not exaggerated—Praises the charitable work of the Red Cross—Expresses approval of General Lee's conduct.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Senator Proctor, of Vermont and his companion Colonel Myron M. Parker who have been spending some time in Cuba, have returned to Washington.

While the senate will not talk for publication, but it is asserted that he will present the situation to President McKinley this way:

"I found that Gomez has the island. He goes when and where he pleases. Blanco holds the seaports. Autonomy is an absolute failure. As to the Maine, it was blown up by design from the outside. The authors of the atrocity were Spaniards, and there is much to show they acted by Spanish governmental authority. Captain Sampson's commission will so report."

Colonel Parker said: "We went to Sagua la Grande, Matanzas, Cienfuegos and Artemisa, province of the Pinar del Rio. I was with Senator Proctor most of the time. The stories of the amount of suffering in the island of Cuba have not been exaggerated. It is intense over every portion of the island. The reconcentrados are gathered into the villages, where they can be seen in all their pitiable aspects. It is, perhaps, greater in Matanzas than elsewhere. What impressed me most, and would doubtless impress any visitor to Cuba, is the utter desolation of the island. Miss Barton is doing great work among the reconcentrados and is to be praised for her heroic efforts in that direction. We were well treated by the Spaniards."

In answer to the question as to what, in his mind, should be done to put an end to the awful suffering, Colonel Parker would not commit himself, but said significantly that he had no doubt this government would take the best course. He commended most highly the action pursued by Consul General Lee, who, he said, was a man fitted for his place in every respect, from what he had seen of his administration of affairs there.

"The matter of his recall reached there just a little before the contradiction and was not credited. It was denied that his return to this country was wanted," he said. In regard to the question as to whether the impression prevailed in Havana that the Maine was destroyed by external influence, Colonel Parker spoke guardedly. He said, however, that the same impression prevailed there as it did here.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.

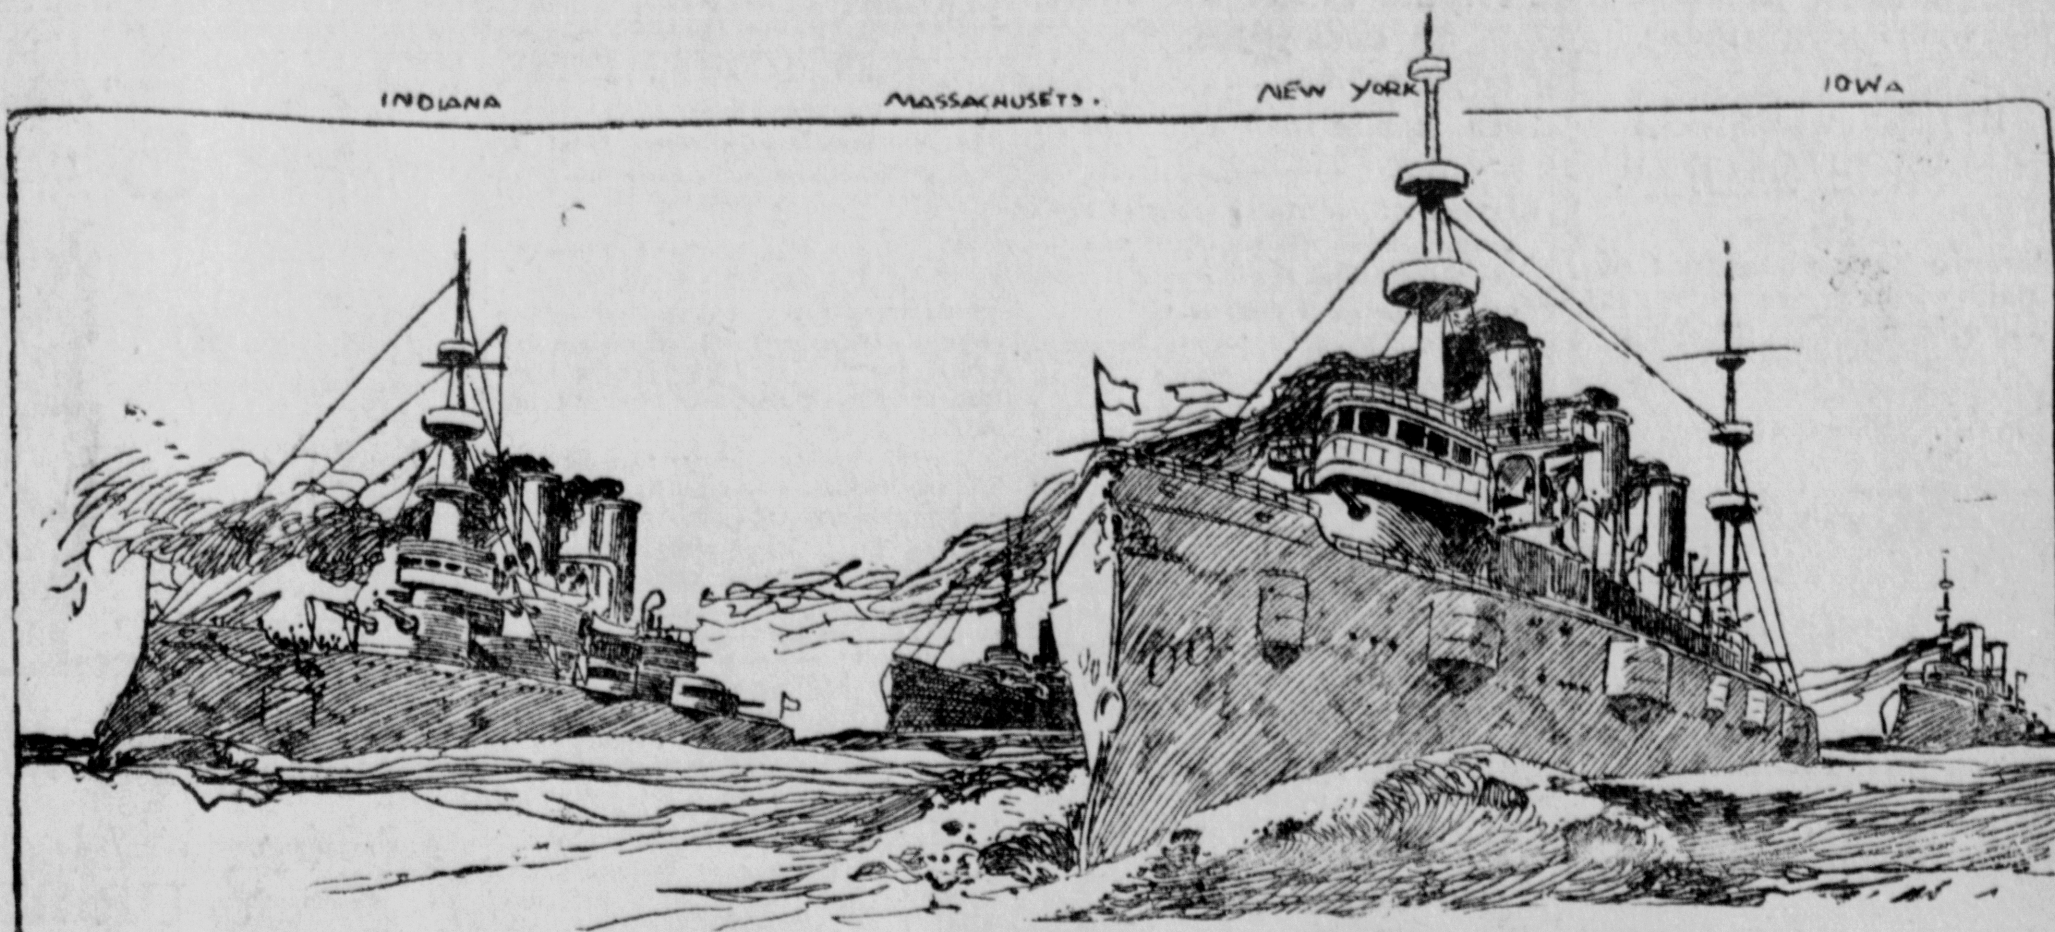

Representatives of Big Lines Meet Officials in Washington to Complete Arrangements.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The government is perfecting its plans to make the movement of troops to the coast defenses, orders for which were issued by the war department Friday, and published at that time.

A conference was held here yesterday by representatives of the following railroads to arrange for the transportation of light artillerymen and their equipments: The Atlantic Coast Line, the Southern railroad, the Seaboard Air Line and the Chesapeake and Ohio.

It was stated that companies of artillerymen, consisting of about 60 men each, would be transferred from Fort Monroe to the following points: Fort Caswell, on the Cape Fear river, Georgia, to Tybee, near Savannah; to Fort Morgan, near Mobile, and to Sheridan's point, on the Potomac. It was stated also that a company would be moved from Fort McHenry, Baltimore, to some point on the Delaware river, near Philadelphia.

The government wanted it was de-

THE NORTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON.

red," the arrangements perfected by today or tomorrow at the latest.

SPAIN'S TIME EXTENDED.

Reported in Madrid That We Want Peace by May 1.

LONDON, March 14.—The Madrid correspondent of The Morning Post says: "I am able to assert on the best authority that United States Minister Woodford originally intimated that the United States hoped and expected that Spain would re-establish peace in Cuba before March 1 of this year. Recently, in response to Spanish representations, the United States extended the time to May 1. Both governments refuse to describe this intimation as an ultimatum to Spain."

Brazilian Ships Not Yet Bought.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Secretary Long has made the statement that the matter of the purchase of the two Brazilian ships had not been settled.

WARSHIPS COMING HOME.

The Helena and Bancroft Ordered From the European Station.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The ordering of the Helena and the Bancroft, now on the European station, to the United States, will leave Admiral Howell, commanding that station, with but one vessel, viz., the San Francisco. No explanation for the action is vouchsafed by the officials of the navy department, and Secretary Long when asked declined to say anything about the step further than that the two ships had been ordered home.

RAILROADS GET READY.

Ordered to Have Steam Up to Move at a Moment's Notice.

ATLANTA, March 14.—Orders have been received here by the master mechanics of all the railroads entering the city to have every engine steamed up and ready for use at a moment's notice. All roundhouses in the yards were lighted up last night and a full force of men was at work—a very unusual thing for Sunday night.

SPANISH PRIEST WILL HELP.

Klopsch and Lee to Be Aided in Distributing Relief in Cuba.

HAVANA, March 14.—Every one is gratified to learn that a famous Catholic priest who will not allow his name to be published, will give all the aid in his power to Consul General Lee and Mr. Klopsch, not only in Havana, where the suffering is much alleviated, but outside, where relief is most urgently needed.

The United States consuls at Matanzas and Sagua and the consular agents in other cities can be relied upon, it is believed, with the help of the local Spanish committees, to push forward the good work with all due speed.

The need of relief supplies is practically undiminished and there is no fear that the contributions already here or to come will not be properly used.

War Work at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, March 14.—Warner & Swasey of this city are filling a large order for the government for telescopes to be used on heavy guns for sighting purposes. They are also at work on a new model of a range finder for Fort Monroe. The Otis Steel company of this city is also filling a government order for deck plates for cruisers.

Pushing Government Work.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 14.—The Bethlehem Iron company has received orders to push all government work as yet unfinished on the 100 10 and 12-inch guns and carriages and the force of skilled mechanics in all departments is working night and day.

WAR SPIRIT IN SPAIN.

Correspondent Creelman Found It Very Strong.

WEYLER GETTING RATHER MILD.

He Says the United States Must Take the Initiative if Hostilities Break Out. The Bishop of Madrid Would Welcome Trouble.

PITTSBURG, March 14.—James Creelman, the correspondent, cabling from Madrid, to The Post, says:

My trip through rural Spain has given me ample opportunity of testing the war spirit of the Spaniards. That spirit is strong, but its glow is like the hectic spot upon the cheek of a dying consumptive.

The mayor of Medina said to me: "I voice the sentiments of my section of the country when I say Spain alone can't fight the United States, but the popular belief is that France and Russia will help us."

Upon examination I find this hope to be as groundless as that of the king of Greece against Turkey.

My first important visit at Madrid was to Monsiigneur Joseph Marie Coss, its bishop. He said:

"I would give my solemn benediction to every banner floating over all warships fighting against the United States to keep us Cuba."

My next visit was to General Weyler. He is still the idol of most of the martial people of Spain. They look upon him as their bravest and best general. His cruel conduct of war well comports with Spanish ideas of military prowess. To me he said:

"The present attitude of most of our deputies is that they do not favor war. They do favor preparation for it, but its declaration must come from the United States."

"Spain is not as poor as most foreigners think. When war money was called for in '96 everybody, from queen regent to beggar, contributed so generously that only one-third was accepted. We can repeat this."

"I have been accused of cruelty in my military methods. I say it is more humane to take effectual measures to finish war than to have the agony prolonged by milder measures."

"Though the Philippines are again troublesome, though the high rate of exchange is galling to our mercantile people, though we have Carlists, Republicans, Royalists, Conservatives and Liberals, we all stand upon the common platform that the United States shall not have Cuba if it takes every peseta in Spain and the dearest sons of all our Spanish mothers to prevent it."

SPANISH MINE EXPLODED.

Army and Navy Register Says the President Knows Cause of the Maine Disaster.

NEW YORK, March 14.—The Army and Navy Register, in its latest issue, says: The Register is in possession of information that certain evidence gathered by the court of inquiry at Havana has come in a semi-official form to the president from two members of the board. The information has been in the hands of the president since Sunday of last week and has served the occasion of unusual activity during the week. The information is that the Maine was destroyed by a government submarine mine, planted in Havana harbor and deliberately exploded. More than this, it appears that the Maine was purposely moored in the vicinity of the mine and that the explosion occurred at the moment when the ship had been opportunely carried by wind and tide directly over the mine.

These facts have been hinted at and

written about in dispatches from Havana, Madrid and Washington, and among the varied statements made the actual conditions have been touched upon, but nothing authoritative has been permitted to escape from the court. That body is understood to have completed its work, but nothing is likely to be officially promulgated in regard to its findings for a week or more. There is obvious reason for such an action, the objects of which cannot be defeated by independent newspaper statements.

There can be but one outcome of such a report and preparation for the inevitable result are being industriously and indefatigably prosecuted. The work of last week shows that the government at Washington appreciates the situation and will be ready to meet what has now ceased to be a mere emergency.

SPAIN TO UPHOLD

INSIDE CAUSE THEORY.

Officials Expect European Aid if United States Takes Initiative—Likely to Be Disappointed.

MADRID, March 14.—El Imparcial says: "The government is momentarily expecting to receive the report of the Spanish commission, which it is understood, will maintain that the Maine explosion was internal."

"Although the American commission may give another explanation, the government will energetically uphold the Spanish report."

The view held in official circles is that Spain will not provoke a war, because if she did, she would find herself isolated, but if America gives the provocation, Spain will not be alone in the struggle.

The general opinion is that in the event of war Spain will not need to attack American territory. It will suffice her to pursue a war of privateering. As America's commerce is seven fold greater than Spain's, American interests would suffer most. War would be madness, benefitting neither nation, and good sense therefore counsels peace.

PARIS, March 14.—The Temps says: "Spain does not deceive herself when she counts upon sympathies, at least latent, of European governments, but it would be a mistake for her to expect any effectual support from either Great Britain or the triple alliance. Before all she must rely upon herself."

LONDON, March 14.—The Sunday Special publishes from its Berlin correspondent an interview with United States Ambassador White on the attitude of the United States toward Spain and the Cuban situation.

Ambassador White, according to this dispatch, declared the statement that the United States had entered into an alliance with England and Japan absolutely without foundation.

"The United States," Mr. White is reported to have said, "will never bind herself by such alliance. President McKinley's administration cannot act against the tradition which forbids all such complications in America's international relations. Least of all will it do for the sake of American interests in the far east."

"The fear of war with Spain must not be taken too seriously. The $50,000,000 credit is no proof that the United States intends going to war, since the government had long demanded such a credit for the purposes of harbor defense. This, however, had been postponed owing to the niggardly policy congress had hitherto pursued."

Characterizing as "quite untrue" the statement that the United States had placed large orders with Herr Krupp, Mr. White is reported as adding:

"America possesses ammunition of all kinds and war material in the government factories sufficient for every emergency."

Torpedoes For Cruisers.

NEWPORT, R. I., March 14.—The tug Leyden has left the torpedo station for League Island navyyard with torpedo outfits of 20 projectiles for the cruisers Minneapolis and Columbia and torpedo-boat Rodgers.

NAVAL BOARD LOOKING FOR AUXILIARY SHIPS.

An Office Opened in New York Today. Hundreds Available For Use in War.

NEW YORK, March 14.—The naval board on auxiliary cruisers arrived here from Washington today and opened an office at 26 Courtland street.

The board consists of Chief Constructor Hichborn of the bureau of construction and repair, Captain Frederick Rodgers of the naval board of inspection and survey, Captain O'Neill, chief of the ordnance bureau; Lieutenant Sargeant, recorder of the board of inspection, and Lieutenant Peters of the naval intelligence bureau, Lieutenant Commander J. D. Kelley and Naval Constructor Towressey, the latter now on duty at Cramps shipyards. Captain Rodgers is president.

Owners and agents for ships will be invited to make their proposals for turning over to the navy such vessels as are of value for conversion into war purposes. The naval officials say there will be no difficulty experienced in obtaining all vessels that are desired as there are hundreds available. Thanks to the careful work of the naval intelligence office, the department keeps in close touch with the construction of all craft that could be utilized in the event of hostilities and just now it has a record of 40 such ships of all sizes and classes which will be inspected and examined if their owners desire to part with them. A number of these are vessels which have been constructed under the subsidy act of congress and are engaged in carrying the mails.

The vessels to be examined will include all classes, from liners like the St. Paul to ocean-going tugs which can be of very material service for a number of purposes. Tonnage, draft, speed, conditions of boilers and machinery and other attributes will figure in the thorough inspection which will be undertaken by the board before any chartering or purchasing is recommended. Both the ordnance bureau and that engaged in the work of construction and repair are ready to take their part in fitting out and equipping such vessels as may be acquired.

At the Washington gun factory there are now in various stages of construction no less than 150 guns of formidable character, on which work is being done night and day with a view to their early completion. No new guns are being started, but the entire efforts of the factory are devoted to finishing those now under way. A naval officer said there will be enough of them when finished to constitute a fair armament for probably 30 or more auxiliary cruisers should such a large fleet be found necessary to supplement the regular warships.

The gunboat Machias, which has just arrived at Norfolk from the Asiatic station by way of the Suez canal, has been found to be in fair shape as a result of the examination by the naval inspection board. A thorough overhauling will be unnecessary in the present instance and she will be sent to Boston, where all necessary repairs can be made to her in about 12 days.

Troops Ready to Move.

EL RENO, O. T., March 14.—No orders for the immediate movement of troops have been received, as far as known, at either Fort Sill or Fort Reno, O. T. The troops at both points, however, are prepared to move at a moment's notice, having been placed on orders last week.

Iowa at Key West.

KEY WEST, March 14.—The battleship Iowa has arrived from the Tortugas and is anchored off here. The torpedo-boat Dupont sailed with mail and dispatches for the fleet at Tortugas. She will relieve the torpedo-boat Porter, now at the Tortugas.

The Weather.

Fair, light westerly winds.

SHOE SALE

For about 15 days
we are going to run a

HOUSE CLEANING SHOE SALE

As we have thousands of pairs of shoes, we must get rid of before all our spring stock arrives.

Shoes at

50^c and 60^c

ON THE DOLLAR.

W. H. GASS,

220 Diamond.

FOGO IS THE WINNER

Of the Republican Fight In Wellsville.

BOWERS NAMED FOR COUNCIL

In Spite of the Recent Case in Which He
Was Involved He Was Returned by the First Ward—Other Successful Candidates
and Their Votes.

The Republican primary election held Saturday in Wellsville was very warmly contested, and resulted in the selection of Wallace L. Fogo as the candidate for mayor.

The race for solicitor excited universal comment, and it was not known until the last vote was counted who was the winner. F. L. Wells being successful by nine votes. A part of the result which excited universal attention was the success of Bowers for council in the First ward. It will be remembered that he was involved in a police raid which excited much comment recently.

For water works trustee J. S. Windram led R. B. Williamson until the First ward was reached where the latter gentleman managed to get enough votes
to secure the nomination by one vote.

J. M. Duncan was nominated for marshal while H. A. Herbert will be the next street commissioner.

The ladies failed to turn out and vote
in any great numbers, and, as a consequence, their candidates for school board were defeated.

The vote complete is as follows:

Mayor—W. L. Fogo, 369; M. H. Williamson, 261; J. W. Riley, 237; W. A.
Pugh, 102.

Treasurer—T. R. Andrews, 969.

Solicitor—F. L. Wells, 484; Charles
Boyd, 475.

Marshal—J. W. Duncan, 388; N. W.
Cohagen, 281; J. W. Johnson, 188; G.
W. Pearce, 73.

City Commissioner—H. A. Herbert,
600; C. J. Hardman, 331.

Water Works Trustee—R. B. Williamson, 467; J. S. Windram, 466.

Cemetery Trustee—A. Eaton, 969.

Justice of the Peace, (three to elect)—
A. G. McKenzie, 969; W. F. Haney, 969;
J. W. Riley, 969.

Member Board of Education, (three to elect)—Dr. Rex, 707; Dr. Parke, 641;
Dr. Hutchison, 571; Mrs. Andrews, 435;
Mrs. Butler, 443.

First Ward—Council—O. P. Bowers,
128; Gus Snyder, 117. Assessor—John
McCauley, 245.

Second ward—Council—J. G. Stevenson, 158. Assessor—Joseph Davis, 158.

Third ward—Council—Julius Goetz,
194. Assessor—Wm. Chaney, 194.

Fourth ward—Council—Isaiah James,
114; J. P. McCalmont, 50. Assessor—D.
G. Paisley, 128; D. A. Forbes, 49.

Fifth ward—Council—J. A. Armstrong, 167. Assessor—James Patterson, 42; S. Fossett, 114.

The Democratic nominating convention will be held tomorrow evening.

Ward Is Against Whisky.

Last evening for the first time in many months Holiness George Ward held forth in the Diamond. As usual he abused everybody, but spent part of his time in denouncing the liquor traffic and showing the good to be derived by permitting the women to vote on the issue. His address was heard by a large crowd.

Ready This Week.

The finishing work is now being completed at the new office of the light company in Washington street. It is thought it will be ready for occupancy by Wednesday.

PRISONERS ESCAPED.

Four Got Out of the Lorain
County Jail.

USED BEDCLOTHES FOR ROPES.

By These Means They Descended From
a Third-Story Window—One Indicted
For First Degree Murder—Big Reward
Offered For Their Capture.

ELYRIA, March 14.—The hostler at the Lorain county jail discovered ropes made of bed clothes hanging from a window in the third-story of the jail.
Sheriff Lord was aroused and soon discovered that four prisoners, who had been confined in the cells on the second floor, had escaped. They were Joseph Fox, indicted for murder in the first degree; Thomas Fay, one of a gang of well-known crooks, for robbing a bank
in North Amherst; Fred Wright and James Thompson, both charged with burglary. They must have had assistance from the outside. Sheriff Lord has offered a big reward for the capture of all or any of the number.

Railroads Are Restrained.

YOUNGSTOWN, March 14.—Judge Kennedy has issued an injunction restraining the Lake Shore and Pittsburg and Lake railroads from constructing tracks in the eastern part of the city through the property of Mrs. Ellen Wilson until the case can be heard in court. Two steam shovels and a large force of men are at work constructing tracks to connect the Lake Shore and Pittsburg and Lake Erie lines. The distance is about a mile, and since the opening of the Pittsburg and Lake Erie line it has used the tracks of the Erie railroad under a traffic agreement to reach the Lake Shore. Negotiations have been pending to purchase the property of Mrs. Wilson, but the parties have been unable to agree, and the matter will now be settled in the courts.

Fined a Doctor.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 14.—Dr.
Artherholt, a wealthy physician, who came here from Hartford, O., three months ago, was arraigned before Justice Thomas on a charge of assault preferred by Miss Ellen Kerr, 16 years old,
of Brookfield, O., who was under his treatment as a patient. He pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs,
which he paid.

Train In a Swamp.

KENT, March 14.—The engine and ten box cars of a Baltimore and Ohio fast freight left the Pittsburg and Western track east of here and were piled up in a swamp. Engineer Deagan, Fireman Miller and two brakemen jumped and received minor injuries. Traffic was delayed for some time.

CHASED WITH AN ENGINE.

A Negro Wife Murderer Caught—Tried
Suicide Twice.

PITTSBURG, March 14.—Because he said she had been too free with other men, Zenas Anderson, a negro ex-convict, deliberately killed his wife Pauline in this city.

After firing five shots into her prostrate body at her home, 3341 Locust alley, Lawrenceville, with his 3-year-old daughter as the only witness of the tragedy. Anderson walked nearly eight miles in his attempt to escape. His pursuit and capture were fairly jammed with dime novel details. Justice, as represented by the entire police and detective forces, was on his trail and finally chased him with a shifting engine. The murderer was captured at revolver's point after a desperate chase through a mile of freight trains and engines. Then, to round out his sensational flight, Anderson made two attempts to drink laudanum which he had purchased two days before with suicidal intent.

SOUTH DEMONSTRATES LOYALTY.

Senator Proctor Says It Is Worth Cost
of War Preparations.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 14.—Senator Proctor has passed through Charlotte on his way to Washington. He talked freely, except on the subjects of Spain and the probability of war. He said that the most gratifying thing he met with on his trip was the splendid conduct and spirit of the southern people. He felt that it was worth the total cost of all preparation for war to demonstrate what a sterling loyal spirit was cherished throughout the south, as he had seen it.

He said he had gathered some facts,
but did not know just what bearing
they might have on the present situation. He would have to find out the situation at home before he could even judge fairly of the knowledge he had gained on the trip.

Divorce In Five Minutes.

CHICAGO, March 14.—Mrs. Lizzie K.
Spaulding, wife of former Bank President Charles W. Spaulding, now under sentence for embezzlement, was granted a divorce in less than five minutes after she had filed a cross bill to her husband's application for divorce.

Missionaries For Alaska.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 14.—Rev.
Ernst Weber, Moravian missionary to Alaska, has been ordained a presbyter
by Bishop Levering. Rev. Joseph Welsch, who will accompany Weber, was made a deacon. They will go to Alaska
this week.

Reindeer Not Sent North.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 14.—The

plan for sending north the government reindeer has all been changed. Captain Robinson has been notified that the entire herd would be sent to Pyramid harbor, together with all the Lap-landers.

ELEVEN CREMATED

IN LODGING HOUSE.

The Bowery Mission Fire Fatal to Cheap Lodgers—Number Received Injuries.

NEW YORK, March 14.—A thorough search of the premises at 105 Bowery, which were partially destroyed by fire
at an early hour Sunday morning, disclosed the fact that 11 persons were burned to death, that many bodies being found.

No. 105 Bowery is called the Bowery
Mission lodging house and is conducted by The Christian Herald. In the basement of the building there is a cheap restaurant, while the ground floor is used exclusively for mission purposes, gospel services having been held there daily for several years. The four upper floors were fitted up as a cheap lodging house, with accommodations for 150
males, who paid 15, 20 or 25 cents each,
according to the location of the rooms.

Almost every bed was occupied. The fire was seen from the street and started in the washroom.

Many of the lodgers became panic stricken. Those on the lower floors got to the street safely by the stairways,
while those on the upper floors groped their way through the blinding smoke to the metal fireescape in front of the building. The majority of them only saved portions of their clothing, while several of them were naked. Those who made their way to the street by the fireescapes were superficially burned
by the excessive heat of the iron ladders, which in many places had become redhot from the flames within. Most of them will not likely be identified.

The loss on the building by fire is estimated at $7,000 and the contents are damaged to the extent of $5,000. Loss entirely covered by insurance.

PRESIDENT DOLE HOPEFUL.

He Believes the Annexation of Hawaii
Will Be Accomplished.

HONOLULU, via San Francisco, March 14.—President Dole, when asked as to his mission to Washington, said:

"The Maine disaster absorbed the attention of the statesmen in Washington
previous to my departure for Hawaii.
When that has quieted down, I believe Hawaiian annexation will be paramount in congress. While there was a doubt whether the treaty would secure the required 60 votes in the senate, still it was the consensus of opinion that a joint resolution would carry in both houses."

He said Speaker Reed was opposed to annexation.

"My impression of President McKinley," said he, "well I will reply that it is extremely favorable. I found him to be an unassuming, frank and sterling
man. He seems to have heart and soul
in the annexation treaty."

From the way people flocked to his train, he believed the American people favored annexation.

DAVIS WILL MOVE SOON.

Expects to Bring a Test Vote of Hawaiian Annexation Treaty.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—There is no
prepared program for the senate for the present week. If Senator Bacon is prepared to speak on the Hawaiian annexation treaty it will be taken up promptly, as indeed it will be if any senator is prepared to go on with the debate. It is not expected, however, that there will be much further discussion of this subject in executive session.

It is the intention of Senator Davis,
chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, at a very early day, to move to lay Senator Bacon's plebiscite amendment upon the table. It is upon this motion that the managers of the treaty hope to secure a test vote, and Senator Davis said that he was hopeful that this vote might be reached during the present week.

Probable Work of House.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The program of the house this week as mapped out would be completely changed if any move is made in connection with the Spanish crisis involving legislative action. But as at present arranged it included simply the consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill and the Virginia contested election case of Throop vs Eppes, with the possibility that the naval appropriation bill might be reached at the tail end of the week.

NAVAL COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The Board May Return to Key West
This Week.

HAVANA, March 14.—The court of inquiry did a good deal of work Sunday, examining Ensign Powelson and such divers of the wrecking company
as have been investigating the wreck.
It is said that these divers have been released from further work of this kind and instructed to pursue their labors under the wrecking contract.

The court will have the services of the naval divers as heretofore and, if necessary, can call again upon the civilian divers. It is thought that the court will close its labors here during the present week and will probably re-examine some of the survivors of the Maine at Key West. This rumor, however, is not officially verified, the members of the court insisting that they can fix no date for the conclusion of its sessions or their departure from Havana.

Southeastern Europe now has millions of people who are far less advanced than the Japanese.

The Star BargainStore New Dress Goods

OUR STOCK of new dress goods for coming season
is now complete in Black,

and in the Latest Coloring and Fabrics, in Plain and Novelties, in Pop-
lins, Serges, Plaids and Zig Zags, prices ranging from 10c up to $1.49 a yard. We cordially request you to come and see our line and prices.
We also have a full line of all kinds of trimmings which you can, buy from us
at a great deal less than elsewhere.

We have received this week

A Big Line of New
Skirts, New Ladies'
Suits, New Silk
Waists in Tafettas, Plaids and Checks, in the latest style made.

We can save you money
on the above.

We have just received a large consignment of

Lace Curtains,
in the Latest Designs, from 27¹/₂c up to $6 a pair.
Please call and see whether you want to buy or not?

STAR BARGAIN STORE,

138 and 140 Fifth Street,

SHOE SALE

For about 15 days
we are going to run a

HOUSE CLEANING SHOE SALE

As we have thousands of pairs of shoes, we must get rid of before all our spring stock arrives.

Shoes at

50^c and 60^c

ON THE DOLLAR.

W. H. GASS,

220 Diamond.

FOGO IS THE WINNER

Of the Republican Fight In Wellsville.

BOWERS NAMED FOR COUNCIL

In Spite of the Recent Case in Which He
Was Involved He Was Returned by the First Ward—Other Successful Candidates
and Their Votes.

The Republican primary election held Saturday in Wellsville was very warmly
contested, and resulted in the selection of Wallace L. Fogo as the candidate
for mayor.

The race for solicitor excited universal comment, and it was not known until the last vote was counted who was the winner, F. L. Wells being successful by nine votes. A part of the result which excited universal attention was the success of Bowers for council in the First ward. It will be remembered that he was involved in a police raid which
excited much comment recently.

For water works trustee J. S. Win-
dram led R. B. Williamson until the First ward was reached where the latter gentleman managed to get enough votes
to secure the nomination by one vote.

J. M. Duncan was nominated for marshal while H. A. Herbert will be the next street commissioner.

The ladies failed to turn out and vote
in any great numbers, and, as a consequence, their candidates for school board
were defeated.

The vote complete is as follows:

Mayor—W. L. Fogo, 369; M. H. Williamson, 361; J. W. Riley, 237; W. A.
Pugh, 102.

Treasurer—T. R. Andrews, 969.

Solicitor—F. L. Wells, 484; Charles
Boyd, 475.

Marshal—J. W. Duncan, 388; N. W.
Cohagen, 281; J. W. Johnson, 188; G.
W. Pearce, 73.

City Commissioner—H. A. Herbert,
600; C. J. Hardman, 331.

Water Works Trustee—R. B. Williamson, 467; J. S. Windram, 466.

Cemetery Trustee—A. Eaton, 969.

Justice of the Peace, (three to elect)—
A. G. McKenzie, 969; W. F. Haney, 969;
J. W. Riley, 969.

Member Board of Education, (three to elect)—Dr. Rex, 707; Dr. Parke, 641;
Dr. Hutchison, 571; Mrs. Andrews, 435;
Mrs. Butler, 443.

First Ward—Council—O. P. Bowers,
128; Gus Snyder, 117. Assessor—John
McCauley, 245.

Second ward—Council—J. G. Stevenson, 158. Assessor—Joseph Davis, 158.

Third ward—Council—Julius Goetz,
194. Assessor—Wm. Chaney, 194.

Fourth ward—Council—Isaiah James,
114; J. P. McCalmont, 50. Assessor—D.
G. Paisley, 128; D. A. Forbes, 49.

Fifth ward—Council—J. A. Armstrong, 167. Assessor—James Patterson, 42; S. Fossett, 114.

The Democratic nominating convention will be held tomorrow evening.

Ward Is Against Whisky.

Last evening for the first time in many months Holiness George Ward held forth in the Diamond. As usual he abused everybody, but spent part of his time in denouncing the liquor traffic
and showing the good to be derived by permitting the women to vote on the issue. His address was heard by a large crowd.

Ready This Week.

The finishing work is now being completed at the new office of the light company in Washington street. It is thought it will be ready for occupancy by Wednesday.

PRISONERS ESCAPED.

Four Got Out of the Lorain
County Jail.

USED BEDCLOTHES FOR ROPES.

By These Means They Descended From
a Third-Story Window—One Indicted
For First Degree Murder—Big Reward
Offered For Their Capture.

ELYRIA, March 14.—The hostler at
the Lorain county jail discovered ropes
made of bed clothes hanging from a window in the third-story of the jail.
Sheriff Lord was aroused and soon discovered that four prisoners, who had been confined in the cells on the second floor, had escaped. They were Joseph Fox, indicted for murder in the first degree; Thomas Fay, one of a gang of well-known crooks, for robbing a bank
in North Amherst; Fred Wright and James Thompson, both charged with burglary. They must have had assistance from the outside. Sheriff Lord has offered a big reward for the capture of all or any of the number.

Railroads Are Restrained.

YOUNGSTOWN, March 14.—Judge Kennedy has issued an injunction restraining the Lake Shore and Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroads from constructing tracks in the eastern part of the city through the property of Mrs. Ellen Wilson until the case can be heard in court. Two steam shovels and a large force of men are at work constructing tracks to connect the Lake Shore and Pittsburg and Lake Erie lines. The distance is about a mile, and since the opening of the Pittsburg and Lake Erie
line it has used the tracks of the Erie railroad under a traffic agreement to reach the Lake Shore. Negotiations
have been pending to purchase the property of Mrs. Wilson, but the parties
have been unable to agree, and the matter will now be settled in the courts.

Fined a Doctor.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 14.—Dr.
Artherholt, a wealthy physician, who came here from Hartford, O., three months ago, was arraigned before Justice Thomas on a charge of assault preferred by Miss Ellen Kerr, 16 years old,
of Brookfield, O., who was under his treatment as a patient. He pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs,
which he paid.

Train In a Swamp.

KENT, March 14.—The engine and ten
box cars of a Baltimore and Ohio fast
freight left the Pittsburg and Western track east of here and were piled up in a swamp. Engineer Deagan, Fireman
Miller and two brakemen jumped and received minor injuries. Traffic was delayed for some time.

CHASED WITH AN ENGINE.

A Negro Wife Murderer Caught—Tried
Suicide Twice.

PITTSBURG, March 14.—Because he said she had been too free with other
men, Zenas Anderson, a negro ex-convict, deliberately killed his wife Pauline in this city.

After firing five shots into her prostrate body at her home, 3341 Locust alley, Lawrenceville, with his 3-year-old daughter as the only witness of the tragedy, Anderson walked nearly eight miles in his attempt to escape. His pursuit and capture were fairly jammed
with dime novel details. Justice, as represented by the entire police and detective forces, was on his trail and finally chased him with a shifting engine. The murderer was captured at revolver's point after a desperate chase
through a mile of freight trains and engines. Then, to round out his sensational flight, Anderson made two attempts to drink laudanum which he had purchased two days before with suicidal intent.

SOUTH DEMONSTRATES LOYALTY.

Senator Proctor Says It Is Worth Cost
of War Preparations.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 14.—Senator Proctor has passed through Charlotte on his way to Washington. He talked freely, except on the subjects of Spain and the probability of war. He said that the most gratifying thing he met with on his trip was the splendid conduct and spirit of the southern people. He felt that it was worth the total cost of all preparation for war to demonstrate what a sterling loyal spirit was cherished throughout the south, as he had seen it.

He said he had gathered some facts,
but did not know just what bearing
they might have on the present situation. He would have to find out the situation at home before he could even judge fairly of the knowledge he had gained on the trip.

Divorce In Five Minutes.

CHICAGO, March 14.—Mrs. Lizzie K.
Spaulding, wife of former Bank President Charles W. Spaulding, now under sentence for embezzlement, was granted
a divorce in less than five minutes after
she had filed a cross bill to her husband's application for divorce.

Missionaries For Alaska.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 14.—Rev.
Ernst Weber, Moravian missionary to Alaska, has been ordained a presbyter
by Bishop Levering. Rev. Joseph Welch, who will accompany Weber, was made a deacon. They will go to Alaska
this week.

Reindeer Not Sent North.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 14.—The

plan for sending north the government
reindeer has all been changed. Captain Robinson has been notified that
the entire herd would be sent to Pyramid harbor, together with all the Lap-landers.

ELEVEN CREMATED

IN LODGING HOUSE.

The Bowery Mission Fire Fatal to Cheap Lodgers—Number Received Injuries.

NEW YORK, March 14.—A thorough
search of the premises at 105 Bowery,
which were partially destroyed by fire
at an early hour Sunday morning, disclosed the fact that 11 persons were burned to death, that many bodies being found.

No. 105 Bowery is called the Bowery
Mission lodging house and is conducted by The Christian Herald. In the basement of the building there is a cheap restaurant, while the ground floor is used exclusively for mission purposes,
gospel services having been held there
daily for several years. The four upper floors were fitted up as a cheap lodging
house, with accommodations for 150
males, who paid 15, 20 or 25 cents each,
according to the location of the rooms.

Almost every bed was occupied. The fire was seen from the street and started
in the washroom.

Many of the lodgers became panic
stricken. Those on the lower floors got to the street safely by the stairways,
while those on the upper floors groped their way through the blinding smoke to the metal fireescape in front of the building. The majority of them only saved portions of their clothing, while several of them were naked. Those who made their way to the street by
the fireescapes were superficially burned
by the excessive heat of the iron ladders, which in many places had become redhot from the flames within. Most of them will not likely be identified.

The loss on the building by fire is estimated at $7,000 and the contents are damaged to the extent of $5,000. Loss entirely covered by insurance.

PRESIDENT DOLE HOPEFUL.

He Believes the Annexation of Hawaii
Will Be Accomplished.

HONOLULU, via San Francisco, March 14.—President Dole, when asked as to his mission to Washington, said:

"The Maine disaster absorbed the attention of the statesmen in Washington
previous to my departure for Hawaii.
When that has quieted down, I believe
Hawaiian annexation will be paramount
in congress. While there was a doubt whether the treaty would secure the required 60 votes in the senate, still it was the consensus of opinion that a joint resolution would carry in both houses."

He said Speaker Reed was opposed to annexation.

"My impression of President McKinley," said he, "well I will reply that it is extremely favorable. I found him to be an unassuming, frank and sterling
man. He seems to have heart and soul
in the annexation treaty."

From the way people flocked to his train, he believed the American people favored annexation.

DAVIS WILL MOVE SOON.

Expects to Bring a Test Vote of Hawaiian Annexation Treaty.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—There is no
prepared program for the senate for the present week. If Senator Bacon is prepared to speak on the Hawaiian annexation treaty it will be taken up promptly, as indeed it will be if any senator is prepared to go on with the debate. It is not expected, however, that there will be much further discussion of this subject in executive session.

It is the intention of Senator Davis,
chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, at a very early day, to move to lay Senator Bacon's plebeite amendment upon the table. It is upon this motion that the managers of the treaty hope to secure a test vote, and Senator Davis said that he was hopeful that this vote might be reached during
the present week.

Probable Work of House.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The program of the house this week as mapped
out would be completely changed if any move is made in connection with the Spanish crisis involving legislative action. But as at present arranged it included simply the consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill and the Virginia contested election case of Throop
vs Eppes, with the possibility that the naval appropriation bill might be reached at the tail end of the week.

NAVAL COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The Board May Return to Key West
This Week.

HAVANA, March 14.—The court of inquiry did a good deal of work Sunday, examining Ensign Powelson and
such divers of the wrecking company
as have been investigating the wreck.
It is said that these divers have been released from further work of this kind and instructed to pursue their labors under the wrecking contract.

The court will have the services of the naval divers as heretofore and, if necessary, can call again upon the civilian divers. It is thought that the court will close its labors here during the present week and will probably re-
examine some of the survivors of the Maine at Key West. This rumor, however, is not officially verified, the members of the court insisting that they can fix no date for the conclusion of its sessions or their departure from Havane.

Southeastern Europe now has millions of people who are far less advanced than
the Japanese.

The Star BargainStore New Dress Goods

OUR STOCK of new dress
goods for coming season
is now complete in Black,

and in the Latest Coloring and Fabrics, in Plain and Novelties, in Pop-
lins, Serges, Plaids and Zig Zags,
prices ranging from 10c up to $1.49 a yard. We cordially request you to come and see our line and prices.
We also have a full line of all kinds of trimmings which you can, buy from us
at a great deal less than elsewhere.

We have received this week

A Big Line of New
Skirts, New Ladies'
Suits, New Silk
Waists in Tafettas, Plaids and Checks, in
the latest style made.
We can save you money
on the above.

We have just received a large consignment of

Lace Curtains,
in the Latest Designs,
from 27¹/₂c up to $6 a pair.
Please call and see whether you want to buy or not?

STAR BARGAIN STORE,

138 and 140 Fifth Street,

AFTER RIGHT OF WAY

J. E. McDonald is Interviewing
Land Owners

FROM KENILWORTH TO CHESTER

For the Extension of the Cumberland
Branch—Railroad Men Will Not Talk,
and Mr. McDonald Has Nothing to Say
at Present.

There is no longer any doubt that the Pennsylvania company is thinking seriously of extending the Cumberland branch to Chester. Rights of way are today being secured by J. E. McDonald.

Although there was a great deal of talk a few years ago concerning the extension, the right of way was never secured, and Mr. McDonald spent the greater part of the day on the Virginia side. It was learned that he was in conference with land owners whose property lies between Kenilworth and Chester.

When asked if his work meant the construction of the road at an early date
Mr. McDonald had nothing to say, only remarking that it was a delightful spring
day. Pennsylvania officials also refused to say a word concerning the matter, but it seems settled that the line will be built.

IN THE CHURCHES.

Services Were Largely Attended Last Night.

Services in the different churches of the city were largely attended last night.

The First Presbyterian church was crowded to the doors with one of the largest congregations ever assembled in the building. "Do Compromises in Religion Pay?" afforded Doctor Lee ample opportunity for a splendid sermon, and he delivered it.

Reverend Jones, of Wellsville, occupied the pulpit at St. Stephen's yesterday morning. The gentleman delivered an excellent sermon. Reverend Weary preached to an unusually large congregation in the evening.

Reverend Reinartz preached at the Evangelical Lutheran church. The services were very interesting, a large congregation being present in the evening.

"Sin Brings Its Own Reward" was the subject of Doctor Taggart's sermon at the First U. P. church last night. He pointed out that this was true of nations and communities as well as of individuals, showing that the greatest wickedness is not always found in heathen countries. "No doubt," he said
"there is wickedness in our midst which if it was known would stand out as greater than the wickedness of any heathen community." The attendance was large, and the service very interesting.

"The Lights of the World" was the subject which Rev. C. F. Swift used as the foundation for a strong sermon at the Methodist Protestant church last night. It was among the best of the many good sermons Reverend Swift has delivered.

Special services will be held at the First Presbyterian church commencing Wednesday evening. An unusual feature during the week will be the excellent singing of Mr. and Miss Yarnell.

Sixty children appear in the Maypole dance at opera house,
March 15.

SONS OF ST. GEORGE.

All members of Josiah Wedg-
wood lodge, No 235, order Sons of St. George, are requested to attend a special meeting this evening, Monday, March 14, at 7:30, at Squire Manley's office,
to make arrangements to attend
the funeral of Brother Joseph Bailey. By order

W. WASE,
President.

Found His Dog.

John McKinnon yesterday found the hiding place of a valuable dog owned by him, that has been missing for about a month. It was discovered that the animal was being kept in seclusion by a farmer living near Hookstown.

Come ye; with aspect sin'ster,
Come ye; with prospect spinster,
Heed; one and all
The Old Maids' call.
What have you got ag'inst her?
Grand Opera House March 21 and 22. *

Home From England.

Thomas Hall, who has been spending some time with friends in England, returned to this city last night. He arrived in New York Saturday.

Our National Flower will be chosen at the opera house March 15.

Is It Worth Anything to You?

Square, Honest Dealing, Prompt Service, Strict Attention to your wants, and an earnest desire to satisfy you, no matter at what cost.

Adding this to our very large stock Shoes, Oxfords, Juliets, Slippers, all colors and all kinds to select from, and at very low prices, it would seem like

BURNING MONEY for you to go elsewhere to trade and pay other people's prices.

DON'T DO IT!

We are still watching your interests and making new low price records every day. Early comers generally have the pick of the plums. Something new for ladies is our "New Composite Shoe."
Come and see it.

J. R. Warner & Co.

IN THE DIAMOND.

STRONG AGAIN!

WHEN IN DOUBT, TRY

Serrine Pills

vigor to the whole being. All drains and losses are checked permanently. Unless patients are properly cured, their condition often worries them into insanity, Consumption or Death.
Mailed sealed. Price $1 per box; 6 boxes, with iron-clad legal guarantee to cure or refund the money, $5.00. Send for free book. Address, PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O.
For sale by Clarence G. Anderson, Druggist, East Liverpool.

They have stood the test of years,
and have cured thousands of cases of Nervous Diseases, such as Debility, Dizziness, Sleeplessness and Varicose, Atrophy, &c.
They clear the brain, strengthen the circulation, make digestion perfect, and impart a healthy vigor to the whole being.

THE BATTLESHIP TEXAS.

The Texas can steam 17 knots an hour when doing her best work. She dis-places 6,315 tons of water, develops 9,000 horsepower, and she cost $2,500,000.
Her main battery is composed of two 12 inch and six 6 inch guns. Her secondary battery consists of a dozen smaller guns.

These Trusses fitted by a physician, without extra charge, at
HAMILTON'S DRUG STORE.

Christy Minstrels.

The Toronto Saturday Night tells the following story of Dean Vaughan. He had been preparing some colored clergymen for mission work and had invited
them to dine with him in the Temple.

On that day Mrs. Vaughan waited an hour in the drawing room for her guests,
but none came. At last she mentioned to the butler that it was odd that the invited guests did not appear.

"Yes, ma'am," he replied, "and what's odder still I've done nothing all the evening but turn Christy minstrels away from the door."

More Working Days.

The sentiment which inspires suggestions for more holidays in honor of the country's great men commands respect.
But what interests the masses more is a prospect for a material increase in the number of working days.—Washington Star.

Have You Inspected It?

Inspected What?

Why the Magnificent JOB and BOOK WORK
turned out at the....

News Review Job Office

FINE Presses, Skilled
Workmen, Superb
Material. Thousands of dollars worth of latest Designs and Styles
of Type, Border and Novelties. All work absolutely guaranteed.

Test the News Review
Job Department.

AFTER RIGHT OF WAY

J. E. McDonald is Interviewing
Land Owners

FROM KENILWORTH TO CHESTER

For the Extension of the Cumberland
Branch—Railroad Men Will Not Talk,
and Mr. McDonald Has Nothing to Say
at Present.

There is no longer any doubt that the Pennsylvania company is thinking seriously of extending the Cumberland branch to Chester. Rights of way are today being secured by J. E. McDonald.

Although there was a great deal of
talk a few years ago concerning the extension, the right of way was never secured, and Mr. McDonald spent the greater part of the day on the Virginia
side. It was learned that he was in conference with land owners whose property lies between Kenilworth and Chester.

When asked if his work meant the construction of the road at an early date
Mr. McDonald had nothing to say, only remarking that it was a delightful spring
day. Pennsylvania officials also refused to say a word concerning the matter, but it seems settled that the line will be built.

IN THE CHURCHES.

Services Were Largely Attended Last Night.

Services in the different churches of the city were largely attended last night.

The First Presbyterian church was crowded to the doors with one of the largest congregations ever assembled in the building. "Do Compromises in Religion Pay?" afforded Doctor Lee ample opportunity for a splendid sermon, and
he delivered it.

Reverend Jones, of Wellsville, occupied the pulpit at St. Stephen's yesterday morning. The gentleman delivered an excellent sermon. Reverend Weary preached to an unusually large congregation in the evening.

Reverend Reinartz preached at the Evangelical Lutheran church. The services were very interesting, a large congregation being present in the evening.

"Sin Brings Its Own Reward" was
the subject of Doctor Taggart's sermon
at the First U. P. church last night. He pointed out that this was true of nations
and communities as well as of individuals, showing that the greatest wickedness is not always found in heathen countries. "No doubt," he said
"there is wickedness in our midst which
if it was known would stand out as greater than the wickedness of any heathen community." The attendance was large, and the service very interesting.

"The Lights of the World" was the subject which Rev. C. P. Swift used as the foundation for a strong sermon at the Methodist Protestant church last night. It was among the best of the many good sermons Reverend Swift has delivered.

Special services will be held at the
First Presbyterian church commencing
Wednesday evening. An unusual feature
during the week will be the excellent singing of Mr. and Miss Yarnell.

Sixty children appear in the Maypole dance at opera house,
March 15.

SONS OF ST. GEORGE.

All members of Josiah Wedg-
wood lodge, No 235, order Sons
of St. George, are requested to attend a special meeting this evening, Monday, March 14, at 7:30, at Squire Manley's office,
to make arrangements to attend
the funeral of Brother Joseph Bailey. By order

W. WASE,
President.

Found His Dog.

John McKinnon yesterday found the hiding place of a valuable dog owned by him, that has been missing for about a month. It was discovered that the animal was being kept in seclusion by a farmer
living near Hookstown.

Come ye; with aspect sin'ster,
Come ye; with prospect spinster,
Heed; one and all
The Old Maids' call,
What have you got ag'inst her?
Grand Opera House March 21 and 22. *

Home From England.

Thomas Hall, who has been spending
some time with friends in England, returned to this city last night. He arrived in New York Saturday.

Our National Flower will be chosen at the opera house March 15.

Is It Worth Anything to You?

Square, Honest Dealing, Prompt Service,
Strict Attention to your wants, and an earnest desire to satisfy you, no matter at what cost.

Adding this to our very large stock Shoes, Oxfords, Juliets, Slippers, all colors and all kinds to select from, and at very low prices, it would seem like

BURNING MONEY for you to go elsewhere to trade and pay other people's prices.

DON'T DO IT!

We are still watching your interests and making new low price records every day. Early comers generally have the pick of the plums. Something new for ladies is our "New Composite Shoe."
Come and see it.

J. R. Warner & Co.

IN THE DIAMOND.

STRONG AGAIN!

WHEN IN DOUBT, TRY

Serrine Pills

vigor to the whole being. All drains and losses are checked permanently. Unless patients are properly cured, their condition often worries them into Insanity, Consumption or Death.
Mailed sealed. Price $1 per box; 6 boxes, with iron-clad legal guarantee to cure or refund the money, $5.00. Send for free book. Address, PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O.
For sale by Clarence G. Anderson, Druggist, East Liverpool.

They have stood the test of years,
and have cured thousands of
cases of Nervous Diseases, such as Debility, Dizziness, Sleepless-
ness and Varicose, Atrophy, &c.
They clear the brain, strengthen
the circulation, make digestion
perfect, and impart a healthy
vigor to the whole being.

THE BATTLESHIP TEXAS.

The Texas can steam 17 knots an hour when doing her best work. She dis-places 6,315 tons of water, develops 9,000 horsepower, and she cost $2,500,000.
Her main battery is composed of two 12 inch and six 6 inch guns. Her secondary battery consists of a dozen smaller guns.

These Trusses fitted by a physician, without extra charge, at
HAMILTON'S DRUG STORE.

Christy Minstrels.

The Toronto Saturday Night tells the following story of Dean Vaughan. He had been preparing some colored clergymen for mission work and had invited
them to dine with him in the Temple.

On that day Mrs. Vaughan waited an hour in the drawing room for her guests,
but none came. At last she mentioned
to the butler that it was odd that the invited guests did not appear.

"Yes, ma'am," he replied, "and
what's odder still I've done nothing all
the evening but turn Christy minstrels
away from the door."

More Working Days.

The sentiment which inspires suggestions for more holidays in honor of the country's great men commands respect.
But what interests the masses more is a prospect for a material increase in the number of working days.—Washington Star.

Have You Inspected It?

Inspected What?

Why the Magnificent
JOB and BOOK WORK
turned out at the....

News Review Job Office

FINE Presses, Skilled
Workmen, Superb
Material. Thousands of dollars worth of latest Designs and Styles
of Type, Border and Novelties. All work
absolutely guaranteed.

Test the News Review
Job Department.

The News Review.
LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.
PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.
HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.
(Entered as second class matter at the East Liverpool, O., postoffice.)
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
(Postage free in United States and Canada.)
One Year in Advance.....$5 00
Three Months.....1 25
By the Week.....10
EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, MARCH 14.

UNION PAPERS.
All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Label at the head of their columns.

CONGRESSMAN GROSVENOR is not a candidate for governor. He has said so, and his saying invariably settles a matter of that kind.

WHILE Uncle Sam is loading his guns and Spain is likewise preparing for war, the brave Cubans are adding victory after victory to their already long list.

If the legislature does not enact a law providing for a better primary system it will not be the fault of the press of Ohio. From all quarters of the state comes the openly expressed opinion that the friends of the movement should unite on one good bill and help it to a successful issue.

JOHN R. MCLEAN is just now experiencing the hardest sledding he has ever known in Ohio. He held the reins last fall and could have weilded the party lash to suit his own sweet will had he not been blinded by the flattery of Allen O. Myers and his crowd. When he placed that individual in power he antagonized men who will not bow to a record such as Myers is so unfortunate as to possess.

FORGOT THEIR DUTY.

The people of the First ward of Wellsville forgot their duty when they placed O. P. Bowers in nomination for council. A recent event in that gentleman's career should forever prevent him from holding public office. No man who breaks the law in the manner Bowers was convicted for breaking it, should ever be allowed to aid in the making of laws. It is a satire on the very thought of good government.

If Spain is in earnest and really wants war she will find this country prepared to give her a warm reception. That could not have been said had President McKinley lost his head and demanded a whole lot of things the day after the destruction of the Maine. Like the cool, deliberate gentleman he has always been, he has said nothing to tingle the public nerves, but he has done what is of infinitely more service—he has placed the country on a war footing.

KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN.

Unless you desire to aid in carrying out the schemes of a little coterie of tricksters in this place, you will look carefully into the claims of every candidate before you cast your ballot at the Republican primaries next Saturday afternoon. There are wheels within wheels, and a few of these wheels have been whirling for some time in the hope of bringing about the election of certain men to office. Look carefully into the reasons why these men should desire to hold office, and you will be convinced that it is your duty to vote against them.

THE INVESTIGATION.

The investigation now in progress in Columbus shows the lobby to have been even more active than the average man believed. There has been a great deal of smoke during the past few weeks, now we are having the fire. If the evidence remains unimpeached, and there has appeared no reason to doubt it, there exists a condition which is a disgrace to Ohio. The committee may convict no one, in fact that seems a foregone conclusion, but the incident should serve as a warning and bring about some action that will put an end to these disgraceful practices.

—Miss Mary Hickman, of Pursley, W. Va., is at the bedside of Mrs. C. R. Simms, of Second street, who is seriously ill.

WELLSVILLE.

RESISTED THE OFFICER

For Which Andrew McCormick Paid $5.

DAVID VANFOSSEN WAS DRUNK

He Gave the New Mayor Another Case to Consider—Special Meeting of Council. Personals—All the Good News of Wellsville.

The police have not had much work to occupy their attention in recent weeks, but Mayor Stewart has fined a few lawbreakers.

Andrew McCormick, who was arrested as a plain drunk, and amused himself at city hall, was later called upon to answer to the charge of resisting Officer Morgan. He could not deny the accusation, and paid $5 and costs.

David Vanfossen was arrested, charged with being a plain drunk, and paid $1 and costs.

A Special Meeting.

A special meeting of council was called late Saturday afternoon, and the business on hand was quickly disposed of. It was the accepting of the plans of the Nicholson and Aten additions.

A Lively Night.

Saturday night was the liveliest time Wellsville has known in a number of years. The streets were filled with drunken men, and the number of strangers in town was noticeable.

Will Go to the Works.

The news comes from Lisbon that Joe Geisse and Frank Hamilton will be taken to the Canton workhouse tomorrow, each to serve out a sentence in default of the payment of fines. Geisse was convicted of running a gambling game and Hamilton for selling to an habitual.

Personal.

Miss Lizzie Wallace, of Cannonsburg, Pa., who has been visiting friends in town for the past three weeks, returned home today.

W. G. Stark removed his family to Pittsburg where he will engage in the laundry business.

C. V. Shaub is in Pittsburg on business today.

A. Fisher and son, Bud, of Main street, went to Pittsburg on the morning train.

Mrs. James Lawson, of Front street, is ill.

Mrs. Ada Dunlap, of Canton; Levi Duncan, Avalon, Pa.; Messrs. Daniel and John McConnell, Mrs. O. P. Shields, Mrs. Ella Cleland and Mrs. Mrs. Margaret McConnell, of Florence, Pa., were in the city Saturday attending the funeral of Mrs. S. M. McConnell.

Miss Lena Wilcox went to Pittsburg today to attend a millinery opening.

D. B. Lee, of Carrollton, is in town on business.

T. N. Kucher, inspector of motive power of the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad, left this morning for his home in Ft. Wayne.

Mrs. Davies, of Third and Main streets, is spending a week with relatives in Warren.

William Blake, of Bedford, who was a guest of C. R. Arnold, returned to his home on Saturday.

The News of Wellsville.

Mrs. Ben Harker and Mrs. W. E. Bolton, of East Liverpool, with 11 ladies from town, sat down at Mrs. Daughday's dinner party, Saturday at 5 o'clock. To avoid the inevitable trouble that follows "thirteen" the company was divided between two tables.

Mesdames J. H. and E. H. Riggs will entertain their friends from 3 o'clock, on Friday afternoon.

Two lots in the fair ground were sold at auction this afternoon.

The Bethany college glee club will give a concert at Cooper opera house on Friday.

A little child of William Rosenbaum, who died at Irondale, was brought to Wellsville for interment on the noon train.

Hear Miss Everson in the National Flower. Opera house, March 15.

Two Cases Today.

Thomas Amos was fined $6.60 this morning for being drunk Saturday night. He was arrested by Officer Morley.

For jumping trains, Fred Brown was fined $5.60 by the mayor this afternoon. He was released.

Uncle Sam has a treat for everyone at opera house March 15.

CALLED IT FORGERY.

But the Parties Did Not Push the Case.

Saturday evening a woman living in West End went in a Fifth street store, and in paying a portion of a bill presented a receipt for less than $5, signed by one of the employees. After the money had been paid to the cashier the woman remarked that it squared her bill and started out. She was called back and was told a balance yet remained unpaid. An argument was the result, and the receipt was shown. The proprietor of the place was called, looked at the receipt, showed it to the other attaches, and then pronounced it a forgery. The woman insisted the receipt was given by an attache, but investigation proved this not to be the case.

Owing to the prominence of the parties no information has been made.

One Case of Measles.

A domestic employed at the home of George Sebring this morning was taken ill with measles. The case was promptly quarantined by Sanitary Officer Burgess.

This is the first case to make its appearance in the city, but the disease is raging in various parts of the state and the city has been fortunate in escaping thus far. Every effort will be made to prevent it from spreading.

Officiated at a Funeral.

Reverend Salmon, of East End, officiated at the funeral service of Amos Stratton held at his late home in Toronto yesterday.

Deceased had been ill but a short time and death was unexpected. He was known in this place. W. D. and Harper Stratton, sons of the deceased, are now on their way to the Klondike.

Little Florence Vandersall is just four years old. At opera house March 15.

Another Ball Team.

A number of interested members of the Young Men's Christian association promise that this city shall have a good baseball organization this season. A meeting will be held in the near future to arrange for grounds and select the personal of the team. There is talk of new enclosed grounds on the hill.

No Work Today.

The work of excavating for the Goodwin pottery in Wellsville did not start this morning as was anticipated. No bids for the work have been opened as yet.

It was stated Saturday evening that several bids would be opened Wednesday, and some contracts given out by the last of the week.

Merry Odd Fellows.

The Odd Fellows will hold their third quarterly social tomorrow evening at their rooms in Fifth street. A fine program will be rendered, and the remainder of the evening will be spent in dancing. The Daughters of Rebekah will serve the banquet.

Could Not Find a House.

The household effects of Robert Davidson, who moved to this city from Kittanning recently, were shipped to Wellsville Saturday afternoon. The inability to secure a house was the cause.

Suits Made to Order.

Our new spring suitings contain the newest and finest weaves for the tailoring trade. Leave your measure with us and you can rest assured of getting style and fit as well as moderate prices.

ERLANGER'S.

School teachers are guessing on the National Flower. Opera house, March 15.

Will Not Go to Africa.

Elmer Collins, who stated some months ago that he would leave for Southern Africa in April, said Saturday that the trip has been declared off for the present. Mr. Collins said that he would make the trip soon.

Didn't Get the Shoes.

This morning a woman applied at the office of the township trustees to have them purchase shoes for her children. Investigation developed that her husband made $10.50 a week and had steady wages. She did not get the shoes.

A Birthday Party.

The King's Daughters of the Methodist Protestant church will give a birthday social in the lecture room of the church this evening. The proceeds are to be used in purchasing a new carpet for the church.

Mr. Sully on the Army.

Secretary Sully will lecture tomorrow evening at the First Presbyterian church, his subject being "Sixteen Years in the Salvation Army." All are invited.

Spring Footwear.

It may be a little early to talk Spring Footwear, and deem it sufficient to say at this time, that we are already showing an assortment pronounced by those who have seen them as the finest that ever reached the town. A few of them now shown in our windows.

Opportunities

to save money on footwear of all kinds are still plenty here. A further reduction of our stock, and a desire to close out all that is left of our winter stock, is the cause. Plenty of shoe bargains, but not a bargain shoe, in the lot. We are selling

Children's and Misses' $1.25 and $1.50 shoes for	75c
Women's $4 button shoes for	$2.37
Women's $3 button shoes for	$1.98
Women's $2.50, $3 and $3.50 button and lace shoes, odds and ends, for.....	$1.39
Infant's 35c soft sole button and lace shoes for	12c
Men's $5 genuine cordovan shoes for	$3.50 and $3
Men's $2.75 genuine black vici kid, lace and congress shoes, for.....	$2.00

BENDHEIM'S.

15 DAYS SAVE THE AGENT'S PROFIT. 15 DAYS GREAT DISCOUNT SALE

WALL PAPER—WALL PAPER

BEGINNING MARCH 5, I will offer at a discount of 10 to 20 per cent on our new up-to-date patterns 1898.

10 per cent off on new papers from 10c to 15c
12 " " " " " " " " 15c.

A good time to select your paper now and save the agents' profit. We have more than 40,000 bolts for 1898.

Two large warehouses full up. Good wall paper at 2c, 3c, 4c & 5c. Good parlor paper at 7c, 8c, 9c and 10c. Old stock at almost any price. Odd bolts 1c each.

Some of the Advantages We Offer Customers:

1. The lowest price in town.
2. The largest and most complete stock.
3. More than 500 patterns and colorings to select from.
4. All paper trimmed free.
5. Single bolts and border taken back.
6. Street car fare paid from East End, West End and Wellsville to this greatest of wall paper sales.

IN THE KINSEY'S E. LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

Don't buy until you have seen our complete line of 1898 papers and prices. We handle all the fine papers, as ingrain, silks and pressed papers. Everybody invited to this great sale. Mixed paints, warranted, in cans at 10c, 15c, 20c and 25c.

THE BACHELORS' DEN.

Elberton Young Men Who Have Resolved to Live All to Themselves.

A bachelors' den has been established in Elberton, Ga. Just in the rear of the handsome new Baptist church is situated a small and unprepossessing little cottage, but a cottage now famous as being the domicile of the bachelors' den.

Some weeks ago Messrs. J. J. Warren, Jake Silverman, Ed Ramsey, Em Edwards, Richard Fortson, Seymour Smith, Lon and Gip Glenn decided that they were tired of boarding house etiquette and its followings and determined to live all to themselves, do their own cooking and housework and ask no woman any odds. So they have organized, and Mr. J. J. Warren, one of Elberton's handsome and most flourishing young merchants, was elected president of the den, with the duties of buying the provisions, having them cooked and to see that each member cleans up his own room, and rented this little cottage in the rear of the church.

Mr. Warren, the president of the den, when seen recently by a representative of the Atlanta Constitution, said that he had no hesitancy in stating that the den was doing finely, and that the inmates were well pleased. He said that now board costs them a little less than an average of $6 per month, whereas boarding they paid about $15, and everything cheap in the way of provisions. "We decided," said he, "that if the boarding house keepers could make so much we might save it, and so organized the den, and so far we are well pleased. You may state to the public, however, and to the ladies incidentally, that we are not in the den to get away from their charms, for we all love the girls and would be glad to have them take care of us. You may say also that we are all very handsome and think we could and would make good husbands. Tell all the ladies who want a husband to apply at once to me, as chairman of the den, and I can furnish them at half price."

Mr. Warren stated further that the boys did all their work and kept one or two servants, and that the house was kept as well as any woman could keep it. These young men are worthy and high toned, and their new venture is watched with interest by the public. Many interesting stories are afloat about them, but they appear to be untroubled and greatly pleased with the life in the den.

A Smoke Yarn.

"Tobacco smoking," said a traveler, "is so common in Holland that it is impossible to distinguish one person from another in a room full of smokers."

"But supposing you want to speak to some one present—how are you to find it out?"

"Ah, in such cases a wicker is round with a pair of bellows, with which he blows away the smoke from the face of every person until the one is found."—London Tit-Bits.

The News Review.

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.
 HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.
 (Entered as second class matter at the East Liverpool, O., postoffice.)
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
 (Postage free in United States and Canada.)
 One Year in Advance.....$5 00
 Three Months.....1 25
 By the Week.....10

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, MARCH 14.

UNION PAPERS.
 All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above
 Union Label at the head of their columns.

CONGRESSMAN GROSVENOR is not a candidate for governor. He has said so, and his saying invariably settles a matter of that kind.

WHILE Uncle Sam is loading his guns and Spain is likewise preparing for war, the brave Cubans are adding victory after victory to their already long list.

If the legislature does not enact a law providing for a better primary system it will not be the fault of the press of Ohio. From all quarters of the state comes the openly expressed opinion that the friends of the movement should unite on one good bill and help it to a successful issue.

JOHN R. McLEAN is just now experiencing the hardest sledding he has ever known in Ohio. He held the reins last fall and could have wielded the party lash to suit his own sweet will had he not been blinded by the flattery of Allen O. Myers and his crowd. When he placed that individual in power he antagonized men who will not bow to a record such as Myers is so unfortunate as to possess.

FORGOT THEIR DUTY.

The people of the First ward of Wells-ville forgot their duty when they placed
 O. P. Bowers in nomination for council.
 A recent event in that gentleman's career should forever prevent him from holding public office. No man who breaks the law in the manner Bowers was convicted for breaking it, should ever be allowed to aid in the making of laws. It is a satire on the very thought of good government.

If Spain is in earnest and really wants war she will find this country prepared to give her a warm reception. That could not have been said had President McKinley lost his head and demanded a whole lot of things the day after the destruction of the Maine. Like the cool, deliberate gentleman he has always been, he has said nothing to tingle the public nerves, but he has done what is of infinitely more service—he has placed the country on a war footing.

KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN.

Unless you desire to aid in carrying out the schemes of a little coterie of tricksters in this place, you will look carefully into the claims of every candidate before you cast your ballot at the Republican primaries next Saturday afternoon. There are wheels within wheels, and a few of these wheels have been whirling for some time in the hope of bringing about the election of certain men to office. Look carefully into the reasons why these men should desire to hold office, and you will be convinced that it is your duty to vote against them.

THE INVESTIGATION.

The investigation now in progress in Columbus shows the lobby to have been even more active than the average man believed. There has been a great deal of smoke during the past few weeks, now we are having the fire. If the evidence remains unimpeached, and there has appeared no reason to doubt it, there exists a condition which is a disgrace to Ohio. The committee may convict no one, in fact that seems a foregone conclusion, but the incident should serve as a warning and bring about some action that will put an end to these disgraceful practices.

—Miss Mary Hickman, of Pursley, W.
 Va., is at the bedside of Mrs. C. R.
 Simms, of Second street, who is seriously ill.

WELLSVILLE.

RESISTED THE OFFICER

For Which Andrew McCormick Paid $5.

DAVID VANFOSSEN WAS DRUNK

He Gave the New Mayor Another Case to Consider—Special Meeting of Council.
 Personals—All the Good News of Wells-ville.

The police have not had much work to occupy their attention in recent weeks, but Mayor Stewart has fined a few lawbreakers.

Andrew McCormick, who was arrested as a plain drunk, and amused himself at city hall, was later called upon to answer to the charge of resisting Officer Morgan. He could not deny the accusation, and paid $5 and costs.

David Vanfossen was arrested, charged with being a plain drunk, and paid $1 and costs.

A Special Meeting.

A special meeting of council was called late Saturday afternoon, and the business on hand was quickly disposed of. It was the accepting of the plans of the Nicholson and Aten additions.

A Lively Night.

Saturday night was the liveliest time Wellsville has known in a number of years. The streets were filled with drunken men, and the number of strangers in town was noticeable.

Will Go to the Works.

The news comes from Lisbon that Joe Geisse and Frank Hamilton will be taken to the Canton workhouse tomorrow, each to serve out a sentence in default of the payment of fines. Geisse was convicted of running a gambling game and Hamilton for selling to an habitual.

Personal.

Miss Lizzie Wallace, of Cannonsburg, Pa., who has been visiting friends in town for the past three weeks, returned home today.

W. G. Stark removed his family to Pittsburg where he will engage in the laundry business.

C. V. Shaub is in Pittsburg on business today.

A. Fisher and son, Bud, of Main street, went to Pittsburg on the morning train.

Mrs. James Lawson, of Front street, is ill.

Mrs. Ada Dunlap, of Canton; Levi
 Duncan, Avalon, Pa.; Messrs. Daniel and John McConnell, Mrs. O. P. Shields, Mrs. Ella Cleland and Mrs. Mrs. Margaret McConnell, of Florence, Pa., were in the city Saturday attending the funeral of Mrs. S. M. McConnell.

Miss Lena Wilcox went to Pittsburg
 today to attend a millinery opening.

D. B. Lee, of Carrollton, is in town on business.

T. N. Kucher, inspector of motive power of the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad, left this morning for his home in Ft. Wayne.

Mrs. Davies, of Third and Main streets, is spending a week with relatives in Warren.

William Blake, of Bedford, who was a guest of C. R. Arnold, returned to his home on Saturday.

The News of Wellsville.

Mrs. Ben Harker and Mrs. W. E.
 Bolton, of East Liverpool, with 11 ladies from town, sat down at Mrs. Daugh-day's dinner party, Saturday at 5 o'clock. To avoid the inevitable trouble that follows "thirteen" the company was divided between two tables.

Mesdames J. H. and E. H. Riggs will entertain their friends from 3 o'clock, on Friday afternoon.

Two lots in the fair ground were sold at auction this afternoon.

The Bethany college glee club will give a concert at Cooper opera house on Friday.

A little child of William Rosenbaum, who died at Irondale, was brought to Wellsville for interment on the noon train.

Hear Miss Everson in the National Flower. Opera house,
 March 15.

Two Cases Today.

Thomas Amos was fined $6.60 this morning for being drunk Saturday night. He was arrested by Officer Morley.

For jumping trains, Fred Brown was fined $5.60 by the mayor this afternoon.
 He was released.

Uncle Sam has a treat for everyone at opera house March 15.

CALLED IT FORGERY.

But the Parties Did Not Push the Case.

Saturday evening a woman living in West End went in a Fifth street store, and in paying a portion of a bill presented a receipt for less than $5, signed by one of the employes. After the money had been paid to the cashier the woman remarked that it squared her bill and started out. She was called back and was told a balance yet remained unpaid. An argument was the result, and the receipt was shown. The proprietor of the place was called, looked at the receipt, showed it to the other attaches, and then pronounced it a forgery. The woman insisted the receipt was given by an attache, but investigation proved this not to be the case.

Owing to the prominence of the parties no information has been made.

One Case of Measles.

A domestic employed at the home of George Sebring this morning was taken ill with measles. The case was promptly quarantined by Sanitary Officer Burgess.

This is the first case to make its appearance in the city, but the disease is raging in various parts of the state and the city has been fortunate in escaping thus far. Every effort will be made to prevent it from spreading.

Officiated at a Funeral.

Reverend Salmon, of East End, officiated at the funeral service of Amos Stratton held at his late home in Toronto yesterday.

Deceased had been ill but a short time and death was unexpected. He was known in this place. W. D., and Harper Stratton, sons of the deceased, are now on their way to the Klondike.

Little Florence Vandersall is just four years old. At opera house March 15.

Another Ball Team.

A number of interested members of the Young Men's Christian association promise that this city shall have a good baseball organization this season. A meeting will be held in the near future to arrange for grounds and select the personal of the team. There is talk of new enclosed grounds on the hill.

No Work Today.

The work of excavating for the Goodwin pottery in Wellsville did not start this morning as was anticipated. No bids for the work have been opened as yet.

It was stated Saturday evening that several bids would be opened Wednesday, and some contracts given out by the last of the week.

Merry Odd Fellows.

The Odd Fellows will hold their third quarterly social tomorrow evening at their rooms in Fifth street. A fine program will be rendered, and the remainder of the evening will be spent in dancing. The Daughters of Rebekah will serve the banquet.

Could Not Find a House.

The household effects of Robert Davidson, who moved to this city from Kittanning recently, were shipped to Wellsville Saturday afternoon. The inability to secure a house was the cause.

Suits Made to Order.

Our new spring suitings contain the newest and finest weaves for the tailoring trade. Leave your measure with us and you can rest assured of getting style and fit as well as moderate prices.

* ERLANGER'S.

School teachers are guessing on the National Flower. Opera house, March 15.

Will Not Go to Africa.

Elmer Collins, who stated some months ago that he would leave for Southern Africa in April, said Saturday that the trip has been declared off for the present. Mr. Collins said that he would make the trip soon.

Didn't Get the Shoes.

This morning a woman applied at the office of the township trustees to have them purchase shoes for her children.
 Investigation developed that her husband made $10.50 a week and had steady wages. She did not get the shoes.

A Birthday Party.

The King's Daughters of the Methodist Protestant church will give a birthday social in the lecture room of the church this evening. The proceeds are to be used in purchasing a new carpet for the church.

Mr. Sully on the Army.

Secretary Sully will lecture tomorrow evening at the First Presbyterian church, his subject being "Sixteen Years in the Salvation Army." All are invited.

Spring Footwear.

It may be a little early to talk Spring Footwear, and deem it sufficient to say at this time, that we are already showing an assortment pronounced by those who have seen them as the finest that ever reached the town. A few of them now shown in our windows.

Opportunities

to save money on footwear of all kinds are still plenty here. A further reduction of our stock, and a desire to close out all that is left of our winter stock, is the cause. Plenty of shoe bargains, but not a bargain shoe, in the lot. We are selling

Children's and Misses' $1.25 and $1.50 shoes	75 ^c
for Women's $4 button shoes	$2.37
for Women's $3 button shoes	$1.98
for Women's $2.50, $3 and $3.50 button and lace	$1.39
shoes, odds and ends, for.....
Infant's 35c soft sole button and lace shoes	12 ^c
for
Men's $5 genuine cordovan shoes	$3.50 and $3
for
Men's $2.75 genuine black vici kid, lace and	$2.00 congress shoes, for.....

BENDHEIM'S.

15 DAYS SAVE THE AGENT'S PROFIT. 15 DAYS GREAT DISCOUNT SALE

WALL PAPER—WALL PAPER

BEGINNING MARCH 5, I will offer at a discount of 10 to 20 per cent on our new up-to-date patterns 1898.

10 per cent off on new papers from 10c to 15c
 12 " " " " " " 15c.

A good time to select your paper now and save the agents profit. We have more than 40,000 bolts for 1898.

Two large warehouses full up. Good wall paper at 2c, 3c, 4c & 5c. Good parlor paper at 7c, 8c, 9c and 10c. Old stock at almost any price. Odd bolts 1c each.

Some of the Advantages We Offer Customers:

1. The lowest price in town. 2. The largest and most complete stock. 3. More than 500 patterns and colorings to select from. 4. All paper trimmed free. 5. Single bolts and border taken back. 6. Street car fare paid from East End, West End and Wellsville to this greatest of wall paper sales.

IN THE KINSEY'S E. LIVERPOOL, DIAMOND, OHIO.

Don't buy until you have seen our complete line of 1898 papers and prices. We handle all the fine papers, as ingrain, silks and pressed papers. Everybody invited to this great sale. Mixed paints, warranted, in cans at 10c, 15c, 20c and 25c.

THE BACHELORS' DEN.

Elberton Young Men Who Have Resolved to Live Ail to Themselves.

A bachelors' den has been established in Elberton, Ga. Just in the rear of the handsome new Baptist church is situated a small and unprepossessing little cottage, but a cottage now famous as being the domicile of the bache-lers' den.

Some weeks ago Messrs. J. J. Warren, Jake Silverman, Ed Ramsey, Em Edwards, Richard Fortson, Seymore Smith, Lon and Gip Glenn decided that they were tired of boarding house etiquette and its followings and determined to live all to themselves, do their own cooking and housework and ask no woman any odds. So they have organized, and Mr. J. J. Warren, one of Elberton's handsome and most flourishing young merchants, was elected president of the den, with the duties of buying the provisions, having them cooked and to see that each member cleans up his own room, and rented this little cottage in the rear of the church.

Mr. Warren, the president of the den, when seen recently by a representative of the Atlanta Constitution, said that he had no hesitancy in stating that the den was doing finely, and that the inmates were well pleased. He said that now board costs them a little less than an average of $6 per month, whereas boarding they paid about $15, and everything cheap in the way of provisions.
 "We decided," said he, "that if the boarding house keepers could make so much we might save it, and so organized the den, and so far we are well pleased. You may state to the public, however, and to the ladies incidentally,

 that we are not in the den to get away from their charms, for we all love the girls and would be glad to have them take care of us. You may say also that we are all very handsome and think we could and would make good husbands.
 Tell all the ladies who want a husband to apply at once to me, as chairman of the den, and I can furnish them at half price."

Mr. Warren stated further that the boys did all their work and kept one or two servants, and that the house was kept as well as any woman could keep it. These young men are worthy and high toned, and their new venture is watched with interest by the public.
 Many interesting stories are afloat about them, but they appear to be unruffled and greatly pleased with the life in the den.

A Smoke Yarn.

"Tobacco smoking," said a traveler,
 "is so common in Holland that it is impossible to distinguish one person from another in a room full of smokers."
 "But supposing you want to speak to some one present—how are you to find it out?"
 "Ah, in such cases a worker is round with a pair of bellows, with which he blows away the smoke from the face of every person until the right one is found."—London Tit-Bits.

REV. REED SPEAKS OUT

Plainly In Favor of Clean Municipal Government.

THE PRESENT MAYOR SCORED.

The Pastor of the Christian Church Deems It His Sacred Duty to Talk of Politics From the Pulpit When Important Moral Issues Are at Stake.

Rev. O. S. Reed, the able, eloquent and fearless pastor of the Christian church, addressed a crowded house last night, and spoke particularly of existing evils in East Liverpool, especially the evil of the saloon traffic and the failure of our municipal officials to carry into effect the laws and ordinances made for the government of this city. The speaker read the first verse of the 82d psalm:

"God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods."

Then came a brief story of the work of the Moravian missionaries, how they labored earnestly among the Indians for many years, giving the law of the old testament; how they were disappointed at not obtaining a single convert; how one Indian chief, taught something of the printing craft, read a proof sheet showing how Christ died for all sinners, and asked the missionary if the story was a true one; how the chief applied the blessing to himself and converts were made rapidly; won, not by the stern law, but by the thought of the merciful God and the loving Christ.

The sermon subject was taken from the 18th verse of the 28th chapter of Isaiah, as follows:

"And your covenant of death shall be disannulled and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it."

"The curse of the liquor traffic rests heavily upon our city and affects all classes, grades and sexes. Only the other day I personally noted an aged woman intoxicated and staggering along your streets. The namby-panby politician will say that I have no right to speak from the pulpit respecting politics; that the political field is full of rottenness and corruption and that I will besmirch the sacredness of the ministry and of Christianity. The political trickster, fearful that his machinations and his evil deeds will be overthrown, hates to have the Christian minister or the Christian layman discuss the affairs in which he hopes to obtain victory, and he therefore cries out:

"Hands off; keep your voice and pulpit out of politics, and let us manage the political field. You preach the gospel and pay attention to purity and clean life; don't trespass on impure ground or your Christianity will surely be soiled."

"My duty, as a minister of God, is to do battle in every field where great moral issues are at stake, and when you bar christianity from politics, or from working for the enforcement of laws and ordinances which go to make good government, then you pay a direct premium on evil and cause your government to become a stench in the nostrils of honest and honorable men. When a minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ fails to preach against evil in every form, then he distinctly gives evidence that he has mistaken his calling or is unfaithful to the duties imposed upon that calling. I am on God's side in this battle, and my Master has declared that 'no drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of heaven.' Speaking of the drunkard maker, comes ringing forth the condemnation of 'Woe unto him who putteth the bottle to his neighbor's lips to make him drunken.' God demands that I shall speak plain truths from this pulpit, and I intend so doing.

"What is drink doing for East Liverpool? It is cursing the business man, the merchant, the professional man, the mechanic and the laborer, and causing sorrow and woe to innocent women and children. Only the other evening a poor woman of this city was assailed by her drunken brute of a husband, who hurled a butcher knife at her head, the weapon barely missing her and cutting deep into the side of the door. A few nights since a mechanic of this city received the sum of $50.00, on big pay, and every cent of that money went into the maw of the saloonkeepers of East Liverpool, not one dime going into the home, the cowardly husband finishing up his unmanly work by beating and maltreating his wife, a good woman, who supported herself and two children by her own efforts. Ask these women what they think of the saloonkeepers of this city. Ask that grandly glorious body of women, the members of the W. C. T. U., what they think of the infamous liquor traffic. I am willing to abide by their answer, and I feel honored in standing side by side with them.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

"Right against wrong is the issue in the coming municipal election in East Liverpool. Good and true citizens against an evil and wicked element. Good government and sobriety against the saloonkeepers, the brewers, the whisky ring and the lawbreakers. On which side are you standing? The God of right and truth against the demon of evil and falsehood.

"The question now at issue is not the barring out of the city of the infamous saloon. Would to God it were, and that we could win out a glorious victory. Speaking to a Wellsville lover of right the other day, he said:

"Irondale, maddened by the murder of one of her citizens in an infamous saloon, has voted to drive the saloons out. We of Wellsville did the same thing at one time; but the work was rendered abortive by the flood of liquor which came pouring in from East Liverpool. The fault lay in the matter simply being localized; to be effective, the curse must be barred from the nation at large. God speed the day.

"The matter at issue now is the enforcement of existing laws. Are they enforced? Don't you know that they are made a howling farce by the existing officials? You must watch the coming election closely and do your duty, as God gives you light. Not only the berth of mayor must receive attention at your hands, but the position of councilmen must be closely scrutinized.

"Are the Sunday laws enforced? Ask the men who go staggering through your streets on the Lord's day. Are your laws enforced respecting the sale of liquor to minors? Ask the boys who go staggering through your highways and byways during the week. And the curse of the city rests in the fact that some of our highest officials do not desire that the laws shall be enforced.

"Our city government, in so far as the saloon element is concerned, has been a shame and a disgrace, to my certain knowledge, for the past 18 months. A den in this city was run openly, after legal hours, in absolute defiance of law. A police officer noted the fact, secured three reliable witnesses, wrote out his information in due form, and reported the offense at city hall. The present mayor, to his everlasting shame be it said, took the information in his hands, tore it in shreds, tossed the fragments in the waste basket and said to the honorable policeman:

"I gave orders to the force that that place was not to be molested, and you know my orders, and I mean what I say."

To this the honorable policeman, doing his sworn duty, said:

"I had received no such orders, sir, and have merely done my sworn duty. You can do as you please, but I shall make no more informations along this line."

"This matter was called to the attention of the then president of council, and the matter of the impeachment of the present Mayor was taken into consideration. The situation was looked over carefully, and it was finally decided that it was no use to attempt impeachment, as the council, as then existing, was so constituted that the majority of the members would stand by the whisky ring, and the impeachment idea was dropped.

"And now this same mayor is asking that the citizens of East Liverpool shall continue him in office. Can any law-abiding citizen, honorable and self-respecting, vote for such an office holder or office seeker? Surely, no Christian man will dare cast a ballot in his favor.

"I don't bring party politics into this pulpit. I never have and I never will. But, by the blessing of God, no such official as the one designated—no such aspirant to office; no caterer to evil and evil influences shall ever receive my vote, no matter to what party he belongs, and no Christian man can conscientiously vote for such a man. Pulverize the rum traffic. That's my creed; and pulverize the politician who illegally supports and aids the rum traffic. We can at least compel the enforcement of existing laws, and it is our bounden duty to do so.

"Talk about the intense interest in the possible coming of war. Talk about the war of the rebellion, and the horror of southern prison pens. Why, my friends, every four years this infamous saloon and liquor business carries down to drunkard's graves more men than were destroyed on the battle fields of the great rebellion, deaths by sickness and deaths in the prison pens, all combined; and yet this awful horror upon our glorious land scarcely receives comment. May God awaken our citizens.

"Where's the remedy for this city? Cast your ballots for clean and true men. Don't dare vote for any man who will cater to the whisky ring by and through his failure to enforce the laws and ordinances. We can only enforce existing laws at present. God speed the day when, by law, we can force the curse out of our county, out of our state, out of the nation.

"Plain talk best suits the case tonight. By the blessing of God, I'll talk so plainly that no man will misunderstand me. Listen. The liquor traffic is a league formed by liquor dealers, distillers, brewers, saloonists, and apologists for the same, with hell and with the devil, and the object of this league is, on the part of the liquor dealers, the gathering in of money, in an easy way, and, on the part of the devil, the gathering in of human souls, to suffer forever in indescribable torment.

"Money is now being used freely by the liquor element of this city, and 'free drinks' is the order by day and by night. Men of East Liverpool, will you sell your manhood, your suffrage, your ballot, for the contemptible bribe of 'free drinks'? I do not believe it. I believe you will laugh to scorn the fellow who dares offer you such an insult, and that you will cast your ballot for good men and true, and for the enforcement of law and order.

"On next Saturday, the dominant party in this city will hold its primary. As you love your homes, your families and the best interests of East Liverpool, see to it, men, that you vote for the man or men who will stand for law and good government, and teach bad men that they cannot trifle with true citizens with impunity. Let your battle cry be, 'For God and the right.' And if political tricksters force upon the people an unprincipled candidate, then rise in the majesty of your right as true citizens and overwhelm such a candidate at the coming election, and may God bless you for so doing."

EACH BOUGHT A BOAT.

Spain Worked Chile and We Dealt With Brazil.

NEW YORK, March 14.—[Special]—A special from London this afternoon says:

Spain today bought and paid for the Chilean battleship Obegins, and the United States closed a deal for the Brazilian warship Amazonas.

AND STILL ANOTHER.

A Big Brazilian Cruiser Purchased This Afternoon.

NEW YORK, March 14.—[Special]—Agents of the United States today purchased from Brazil the cruiser Admiral Bren.

The Admiral Bren is an armored cruiser, and one of the best of its kind in the Brazilian navy.

Hear little Florence Vandersall at opera house March 15.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
J. A. NORRIS, Manager.

TUESDAY, MARCH 15.

"National Flower"

Public Library Benefit.
under direction of Board of Directors,
assisted by the Celebrated Vandersall Children,
of Canton, Ohio, Miss Florence Everson,
Wellsville, Ohio, and the best local talent.
An evening's pleasure of vocal and instrumental music for all.
Admission 15c, 25c and 35c

Our CARPET Department

experienced a genuine boom last week.

Our Opening

brought visitors to whom our vast stock was a revelation.

They could scarcely believe that we were only showing our regular lines,

And as our prices are as astonishingly small as the variety is large, Visitors became Buyers.

We hope, if you have not already done so, you will visit the Big Store during this opening, for you will gain much information regarding the prevailing styles of Carpets.

We are not neglecting our

FURNITURE Department

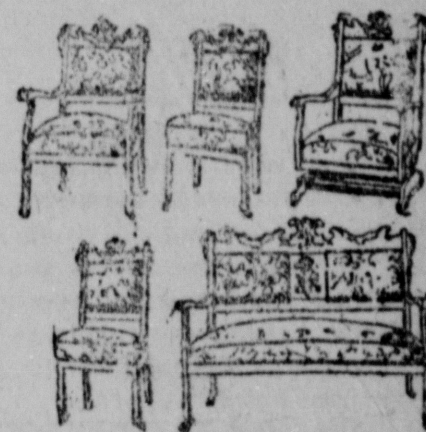

during our Carpet Opening.

The past week we received some of the finest

PARLOR SUITS

you ever saw, and the prices are lower than ever.

Here is a Suite of Five Pieces, Frame Mahogany Finish, elegantly carved, upholstered with spring edge in Silk Damask, different color of goods on each piece,

For ONLY $25,

Cash or Credit, as You Prefer.

While waiting for a

CAR LOAD of Chamber Suits

our stock became somewhat low last week, but the car will be in the first of this week and we will show you some New Designs from $16.50 up that will make you want one.

CASH or CREDIT as you Prefer.

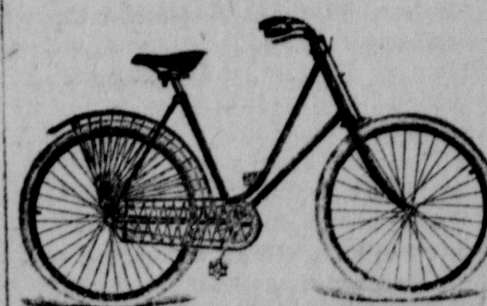

"Be sure you are right--and then go sideways like a Crab," don't apply to

RIDERS OF CLEVELAND WHEELS.

If you ride a

Cleveland

you go straight ahead and

LEAD THE PROCESSION.

We sell them for $40, $50, $65.

CASH OR CREDIT.

THE S. G. HARD CO
THE BIG STORE.

REV. REED SPEAKS OUT

Plainly In Favor of Clean Municipal Government.

THE PRESENT MAYOR SCORED.

The Pastor of the Christian Church Deems It His Sacred Duty to Talk of Politics From the Pulpit When Important Moral Issues Are at Stake.

Rev. O. S. Reed, the able, eloquent and fearless pastor of the Christian church, addressed a crowded house last night, and spoke particularly of existing evils in East Liverpool, especially the evil of the saloon traffic and the failure of our municipal officials to carry into effect the laws and ordinances made for the government of this city. The speaker read the first verse of the 82d psalm:

"God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods."

Then came a brief story of the work of the Moravian missionaries, how they labored earnestly among the Indians for many years, giving the law of the old testament; how they were disappointed at not obtaining a single convert; how one Indian chief, taught something of the printing craft, read a proof sheet showing how Christ died for all sinners, and asked the missionary if the story was a true one; how the chief applied the blessing to himself and converts were made rapidly; won, not by the stern law, but by the thought of the merciful God and the loving Christ.

The sermon subject was taken from the 18th verse of the 28th chapter of Isaiah, as follows:

"And your covenant of death shall be disannulled and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it."

"The curse of the liquor traffic rests heavily upon our city and affects all classes, grades and sexes. Only the other day I personally noted an aged woman intoxicated and staggering along your streets. The namby-pamby politician will say that I have no right to speak from the pulpit respecting politics; that the political field is full of rottenness and corruption and that I will besmirch the sacredness of the ministry and of Christianity. The political trickster, fearful that his machinations and his evil deeds will be overthrown, hates to have the Christian minister or the Christian layman discuss the affairs in which he hopes to obtain victory, and he therefore cries out:

"Hands off; keep your voice and pulpit out of politics, and let us manage the political field. You preach the gospel and pay attention to purity and clean life; don't trespass on impure ground or your Christianity will surely be soiled."

"My duty, as a minister of God, is to do battle in every field where great moral issues are at stake, and when you bar christianity from politics, or from working for the enforcement of laws and ordinances which go to make good government, then you pay a direct premium on evil and cause your government to become a stench in the nostrils of honest and honorable men. When a minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ fails to preach against evil in every form, then he distinctly gives evidence that he has mistaken his calling or is unfaithful to the duties imposed upon that calling. I am on God's side in this battle, and my Master has declared that 'no drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of heaven.' Speaking of the drunkard maker, comes ringing forth the condemnation of 'Woe unto him who putteth the bottle to his neighbor's lips to make him drunken.' God demands that I shall speak plain truths from this pulpit, and I intend so doing.

"What is drink doing for East Liverpool? It is cursing the business man, the merchant, the professional man, the mechanic and the laborer, and causing sorrow and woe to innocent women and children. Only the other evening a poor woman of this city was assailed by her drunken brute of a husband, who hurled a butcher knife at her head, the weapon barely missing her and cutting deep into the side of the door. A few nights since a mechanic of this city received the sum of $50.00, on big pay, and every cent of that money went into the maw of the saloonkeepers of East Liverpool. Not one dime going into the home, the cowardly husband finishing up his unmanly work by beating and maltreating his wife, a good woman, who supports herself and two children by her own efforts. Ask these women what they think of the saloonkeepers of this city. Ask that grandly glorious body of women, the members of the W. C. T. U., what they think of the infamous liquor traffic. I am willing to abide by their answer, and I feel honored in standing side by side with them.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

"Right against wrong is the issue in the coming municipal election in East Liverpool. Good and true citizens against an evil and wicked element. Good government and sobriety against the saloonkeepers, the brewers, the whisky ring and the lawbreakers. On which side are you standing? The God of right and truth against the demon of evil and falsehood.

"The question now at issue is not the barring out of the city of the infamous saloon. Would to God it were, and that we could win out a glorious victory. Speaking to a Wellsville lover of right the other day, he said:

"Irontdale, maddened by the murder of one of her citizens in an infamous saloon, has voted to drive the saloons out. We of Wellsville did the same thing at one time; but the work was rendered abortive by the flood of liquor which came pouring in from East Liverpool. The fault lay in the matter simply being localized; to be effective, the curse must be barred from the nation at large. God speed the day.

"The matter at issue now is the enforcement of existing laws. Are they enforced? Don't you know that they are made a howling farce by the existing officials? You must watch the coming election closely and do your duty, as God gives you light. Not only the berth of mayor must receive attention at your hands, but the position of councilmen must be closely scrutinized.

"Are the Sunday laws enforced? Ask the men who go staggering through your streets on the Lord's day. Are your laws enforced respecting the sale of liquor to minors? Ask the boys who go staggering through your highways and byways during the week. And the curse of the city rests in the fact that some of our highest officials do not desire that the laws shall be enforced.

"Our city government, in so far as the saloon element is concerned, has been a shame and a disgrace, to my certain knowledge, for the past 18 months. A den in this city was run openly, after legal hours, in absolute defiance of law. A police officer noted the fact, secured three reliable witnesses, wrote out his information in due form, and reported the offense at city hall. The present mayor, to his everlasting shame be it said, took the information in his hands, tore it in shreds, tossed the fragments in the waste basket and said to the honorable policeman:

"I gave orders to the force that that place was not to be molested, and you know my orders, and I mean what I say."

Te this the honorable policeman, doing his sworn duty, said:

"I had received no such orders, sir, and have merely done my sworn duty. You can do as you please, but I shall make no more informations along this line."

"This matter was called to the attention of the then president of council, and the matter of the impeachment of the present Mayor was taken into consideration. The situation was looked over carefully, and it was finally decided that it was no use to attempt impeachment, as the council, as then existing, was so constituted that the majority of the members would stand by the whisky ring, and the impeachment idea was dropped.

"And now this same mayor is asking that the citizens of East Liverpool shall continue him in office. Can any law-abiding citizen, honorable and self-respecting, vote for such an office holder or office seeker? Surely, no Christian man will dare cast a ballot in his favor.

"I don't bring party politics into this pulpit. I never have and I never will. But, by the blessing of God, no such official as the one designated—no such aspirant to office; no caterer to evil and evil influences shall ever receive my vote, no matter to what party he belongs, and no Christian man can conscientiously vote for such a man. Pulverize the rum traffic. That's my creed; and pulverize the politician who illegally supports and aids the rum traffic. We can at least compel the enforcement of existing laws, and it is our bounden duty to do so.

"Talk about the intense interest in the possible coming of war. Talk about the war of the rebellion, and the horror of southern prison pens. Why, my friends, every four years this infamous saloon and liquor business carries down to drunkard's graves more men than were destroyed on the battle fields of the great rebellion, deaths by sickness and deaths in the prison pens, all combined; and yet this awful horror upon our glorious land scarcely receives comment. May God awaken our citizens.

"Where's the remedy for this city? Cast your ballots for clean and true men. Don't dare vote for any man who will cater to the whisky ring by and through his failure to enforce the laws and ordinances. We can only enforce existing laws at present. God speed the day when, by law, we can force the curse out of our county, out of our state, out of the nation.

"Plain talk best suits the case tonight. By the blessing of God, I'll talk so plainly that no man will misunderstand me. Listen. The liquor traffic is a league formed by liquor dealers, distillers, brewers, saloonists, and apologists for the same, with hell and with the devil, and the object of this league is, on the part of the liquor dealers, the gathering in of money, in an easy way, and, on the part of the devil, the gathering in of human souls, to suffer forever in indescribable torment.

"Money is now being used freely by the liquor element of this city, and 'free drinks' is the order by day and by night. Men of East Liverpool, will you sell your manhood, your suffrage, your ballot, for the contemptible bribe of 'free drinks'? I do not believe it. I believe you will laugh to scorn the fellow who dares offer you such an insult, and that you will cast your ballot for good men and true, and for the enforcement of law and order.

"On next Saturday, the dominant party in this city will hold its primary. As you love your homes, your families and the best interests of East Liverpool, see to it, men, that you vote for the man or men who will stand for law and good government, and teach bad men that they cannot trifle with true citizens with impunity. Let your battle cry be, 'For God and the right.' And if political tricksters force upon the people an unprincipled candidate, then rise in the majesty of your right as true citizens and overwhelm such a candidate at the coming election, and may God bless you for so doing."

EACH BOUGHT A BOAT.

Spain Worked Chile and We Dealt With Brazil.

NEW YORK, March 14.—[Special]—A special from London this afternoon says:

Spain today bought and paid for the Chilean battleship Obeggins, and the United States closed a deal for the Brazilian warship Amazonas.

AND STILL ANOTHER.

A Big Brazilian Cruiser Purchased This Afternoon.

NEW YORK, March 14.—[Special]—Agents of the United States today purchased from Brazil the cruiser Admiral Bren.

The Admiral Bren is an armored cruiser, and one of the best of its kind in the Brazilian navy.

Hear little Florence Vandersall at opera house March 15.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
J. A. NORRIS, Manager.

TUESDAY, MARCH 15.

"National Flower"

Public Library Benefit.
under direction of Board of Directors.
assisted by the Celebrated

Vandersall Children,
of Canton, Ohio, Miss Florence Everson,
Wellsville, Ohio, and the best local talent. An evening's pleasure of vocal and instrumental music for all.

Admission 15c, 25c and 35c

Our CARPET Department

experienced a genuine boom last week.

our Opening

brought visitors to whom our vast stock was a revelation.

They could scarcely believe that we were only showing our regular lines.

And as our prices are as astonishingly small as the variety is large, Visitors became Buyers.

We hope, if you have not already done so, you will visit the Big Store during this opening, for you will gain much information regarding the prevailing styles of Carpets.

We are not neglecting our

FURNITURE Department

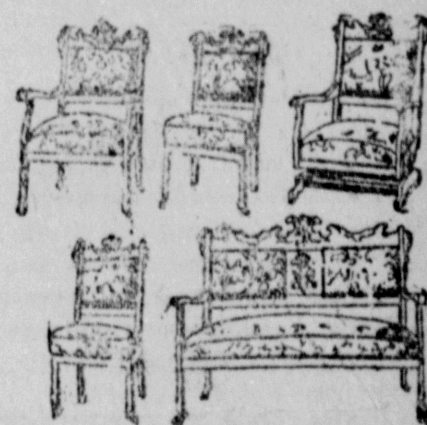

during our Carpet Opening.

The past week we received some of the finest

PARLOR SUITS

you ever saw, and the prices are lower than ever.

Here is a Suite of Five Pieces, Frame Mahogany Finish, elegantly carved, upholstered with spring edge in Silk Damask, different color of goods on each piece.

For ONLY $25,

Cash or Credit, as You Prefer.

While waiting for a

CAR LOAD of Chamber Suits

our stock became somewhat low last week, but the car will be in the first of this week and we will show you some New Designs from $16.50 up that will make you want one.

CASH or CREDIT as you Prefer.

"Be sure you are right--and then go sideways like a Crab," don't apply to

RIDERS OF CLEVELAND WHEELS.

If you ride a

Cleveland

you go straight ahead and

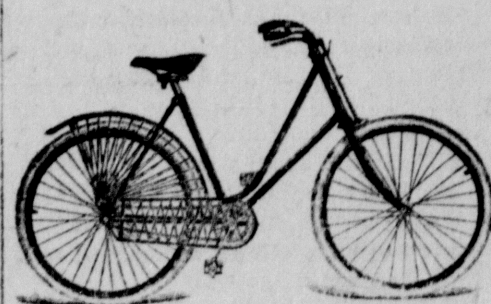

LEAD THE PROCESSION.

We sell them for $40, $50, $65.

CASH OR CREDIT.

THE S. G. HARD CO THE BIG STORE.

VIEWED COUNTY FUNDS

Judge Moore and W. H. Spence
Examined the Treasury.

PLENTY OF MONEY ON HAND

An Echo of the Time When John R. Martin Was In Office Appears in the Report. How the Cash Is Divided—Other Happenings at the County Seat.

LISBON, March 14.—[Special].—The county treasury was examined last Saturday afternoon by Judge Moore and W. H. Spence at the request of Judge Boone. Everything was found in splendid condition, the amount of money in the treasury being $29,289.75. It is divided in the following funds:

Poor, $6,872.21; bridge, $4,273.04; building, $15,012.12; soldiers' relief, $397.91; sheep, $4,582.90; institute, $208.35; state, $30.16; corporation, $108.16; school, $5,178.47; interest and bond indebtedness, $3,275.11; special restor bridge, $486.58; liquor collections since Jan. 1, $797.15; other sources since Feb. 28, $67; total, $42,289.75.

Overdrafts on county, childrens' home, tax refunded and ditch funds, $9,877.29; the disputed claim of John R. Martin of $2,114.40, and receipts presented and charged to Martin, $1,008.31, leaving a balance of $29,289.75.

About the Court House.

LISBON, March 14.—[Special].—Marriage licenses have been issued to James Hutchinson and Mary Brierly, and J. W. Wright and Jennie Jones.

George A. Vogleson, administrator of the estate of Annie E. Vogleson, has been ordered to sell for cash 58 shares of Central Pacific and 60 shares of Northern Pacific railroad stock.

Duncan Stafford has sold to Frank R. Martin, land in Wellsville for $750.

MILLIONS OF BUSHELS.

A Great Many Tons of Coal Went Down the River Today.

The river is rising slowly and the marks at the wharf at noon today registered 9.6 feet and still rising.

The Keystone State, Kanawha and Ben Hur went up yesterday on time and all had good cargos and large passenger lists. The Keystone State and Ben Hur are due down tonight.

The Princess went up light yesterday evening and the Clifton passed down.

Twenty-six boats taking with them 187 barges and 32 flats loaded with coal, and nine barges loaded with iron, left Pittsburgh after 9 a. m., yesterday. It was the first opportunity the coal men had been given for a long time, though the river promised to have comfortable barge water. It is estimated that over 2,000,000 bushels of coal went south.

The boats are as follows: Robert Jenkins, Sam Clark, John Moren, Enterprise, William G. Horner, Hornet No. 2, Pacific, Hunter No. 2, Belle McGowan, Cyclone, Ed Roberts, Jim Moren, Tornado, Valiant, Wilmot, Coal City, Volunteer, Rescue, Voyager, Mariner, Cruiser, George Shiras, Joseph Walton, Jim Brown, Acorn, Advance, Tom Dodsworth.

VALUABLE DOG KILLED.

It Was Run Down by a Street Car Yesterday.

A valuable English setter, the property of Capt. W. M. Hill, escaped from its kennel yesterday morning, and wandering to the street car tracks was run down by a car, at the foot of College street. The animal's front legs were cut off, and it was shot.

Captain Hill will enter suit against the street railway company for damages, as it is held that the death of the dog was due to the carelessness of the motorman.

Going! Where! To see the National Flower at opera house March 15.

Secure Your Dates Now.

The grand pleasure park at Rock Point, with its new hotel, dining hall, dancing pavilion, merry-go-round, and attractive features as the finest picnic ground in this section, will be open the coming season. Sabbath schools, lodges and other organizations, pleasure parties and persons wishing to participate in a delightful outing may now shape preliminaries by having the park reserved for their exclusive use on certain dates. For details apply to J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent Pennsylvania Lines, 360 Fifth avenue, corner Smith-field street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The celebrated Vandersall family at Grand Opera House March 15.

The News Review for news.

MENTALLY AN INFANT.

The Strange Case of a Strongly Built Man at Cleveland.

In a bed in the Cleveland General hospital is a strong man reduced to the mental condition of an infant 6 months old. He is William Murray of Erie, Pa., who says he was "hurt on the head" and is unable to give any other account of himself.

Murray's body trembles constantly, and when he attempts to speak his chin quivers as if he were about to cry. He frequently leaps out of bed and sits playing on the floor, exactly like a child when it is not yet strong enough to walk. He has a fancy for toys and plays with them for hours at a time.

When a watch was handed to Murray, he laughed and crowed in an ecstasy of baby joy and shook the watch like a rattle box. The next minute he placed the watch in his mouth. A rattle box is one of his prime favorites. One of the pastimes in which Murray indulges oftenest is to sit on the floor and play with his toes. He eats and drinks like a baby and tries to put everything he gets hold of in his mouth. Every phase of infant life is depicted in his acts.

Murray is a fine looking man and evidently has been a person of refinement. He is strongly built, weighs about 200 pounds and has dark hair and a dark brown mustache. He evidently has been a shorthand writer. The attendants at various times have given him pencil and paper with which to amuse himself, and he invariably makes shorthand characters instead of the meaningless marks of a child.

Some of the physicians who have seen Murray have a theory that he was confined in a hospital as the result of an injury to his head, and that he escaped while slightly convalescent. The motion of the train, they think, agitated the brain and brought on Murray's strange condition. His return to infancy is an unprecedented mental phenomenon.—St. Louis Republic.

LIFE AT SEATTLE.

Paddy Smith, the Pugilist, Says It Is the Wildest Place He Ever Saw.

Paddy Smith, the lightweight pugilist and brother of Denver Ed Smith, is in Seattle on his way to the Klondike, which has attracted a large number of other western sporting men. Writing from Seattle, Smith says: "Just a few lines descriptive of this tour. I have been here for three months, and it is the wildest place I ever saw. Gambling is wide open, and everything goes. Every game on earth, except the pool-room, is in full blast. There are more dog trainers here than I ever saw before in my life. Every man that has a dog has to keep a rope on him, for the first time a dog goes out alone he is 'pinched.' Not even curs are barred. I brought a dog up from Spokane, but a Klondiker stole him out of the back yard. By this time he is on the Yukon, and when I go in I will have no dog. My pack goes on my back. I tell you this is a speedy place. Klondikers are coming and going, and everything is on the rush order from morning till night.

"Not a man but talks of the Klondike, the Yukon and Stuart rivers. Every day ships arrive and sail. The streets are as crowded at night as they are in the daytime. I hope to leave about May 17. It is going to be a tough trip, but I will take one chance. The fastest on record for the return trip from the Klondike to Dyea is 21 days. It took the best dog team in Alaska to do it. It takes about 43 days to go to Dawson City, as it is all up hill going and must be done by fair heel and toe walking. You can go to Dawson by the Yukon in a boat, but it costs $500. Some go by the river route, but most of them over the Chilkoot pass."—New York Sun.

RARE COINS FOUND.

Two Kentucky Prospectors Report a Valuable Find Near Laketon.

B. W. McClure of Bardwell, Ky., tells of a marvelous discovery of old coins about a mile and a half from Laketon, Ky., recently. One of the Miller brothers and another man, whose name he could not remember, were prospecting in the hills with a metal rod, which he said could detect metal 22 feet beneath the surface. The rod pointed down over a spot, and digging down nearly 20 feet they discovered almost a bushel of curiously shaped coins. Some were square, others octagonal, and still others round.

The coins bore strange inscriptions, which they could not decipher, and were of copper, silver and gold. They appeared to be very old. The finders refuse to tell just where they found the coins, believing there are others hidden there. Much treasure is believed to be hidden in that neighborhood, and the people have been digging in the hills there for years. McClure is a log buyer for a factory and says Miller is a man who may be believed.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The March of Civilization.

Interpreter—Chief Wangbo wants no more beads and brass wire. He says you cannot cross his country unless you agree to pay his price.

African Explorer—What does he want?

Interpreter—Two-thirds of the royalties on your next book.—London Titbits.

RECEIVER FOR CUBA.

NEW SCHEME OF SETTLEMENT OF THE CUBAN QUESTION.

Plan Proposed to President McKinley to Place the Island Under the Control of the Mexican Ruler—Some of the Many Precedents in History.

A new and novel suggestion for the settlement of the Cuban troubles was offered to the president recently by Representative Beach of Ohio. He proposes that the government of the United States intervene on the ground of humanity, the interruption of commerce and the destruction of property. He argues that such action would be justified because it has been clearly demonstrated that Spain cannot put down the insurrection and that the Spanish authorities could not preserve peace and prevent similar outbreaks even if it were possible to secure the surrender of the insurgents now in the field. At the same time it is admitted that the business interests of Cuba and the property holders distrust the leaders of the insurrection quite as much as the Spaniards and that it is the judgment of those most competent to express an opinion that anarchy would follow independence and that the commercial and industrial interests would suffer quite as much as if not more than they are suffering now.

These circumstances and conditions, Mr. Beach submits, justify the intervention of the United States, which, next to Spain, is a party with the largest interest, and that the easiest solution of the situation would be to have a receiver appointed, just as would be done if the directors of a firm or corporation were engaged in a quarrel which was causing the destruction of the property and the interests of the stockholders. It is believed that Brazil, Venezuela, Colombia, the Central American republics and other governments of America would unite with the United States in such a proceeding and join in a recommendation for the appointment of President Diaz as the receiver of the property. He has the absolute confidence of all concerned, he has been absolutely neutral throughout the struggle, he is of Spanish descent, he has shown an administrative ability that is without precedent in the Spanish-American countries, he understands the Spanish character thoroughly and is more competent to govern Cuba than any Anglo-Saxon that could be named.

While this proposition is made without consulting Mexico and even without the knowledge of Mr. Romero, the minister of that republic at Washington, it is believed by those who understand the attitude of the Mexican government that President Diaz would readily accept the responsibility provided such an arrangement would be agreeable to both the Spanish government and the leaders of the insurgents. He would not, however, be a party to any movement that would place Cuba under his jurisdiction by force. It is known that the Mexican government offered some suggestions to the Spanish ministry regarding the treatment of Cuba a year or two ago, but they were not acted upon, and it is not known whether they were ever seriously considered.

Spain is so jealous of the United States and so suspicious of our designs concerning Cuba that such a solution might relieve her from embarrassment and offer an honorable escape from her present dilemma. It is demonstrated that she cannot conquer Cuba. It is equally certain that she cannot maintain the struggle much longer because of financial exhaustion, and the prejudice of the Spanish people against the United States is so intense that no ministry would dare turn the colony over to our jurisdiction on any terms. But there is no such prejudice against Mexico, and the same objections would not apply. There are a number of precedents for such a settlement. During the fight for the independence of Greece the powers of Europe interfered in the name of humanity and selected Prince George of Denmark as the ruler of that country. A similar proceeding took place in Crete. The Turkish provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina were by the treaty of Berlin in 1878 handed over to the government of Austria for administration and military occupation. These provinces were at that time in rebellion against the sultan, and in his attempts to subdue them the countries were being rapidly destroyed. It being clear that Turkey could not conquer them without their utter destruction and the extermination of the population, the European powers interfered, and the two provinces have since been successfully governed by an Austrian archduke and pay tribute to Turkey. They have prospered amazingly. They have increased in population and wealth, and the present government is satisfactory to all concerned. Egypt is another illustration. Great Britain interfered to protect her commercial interests there and the Suez canal and has practically governed the country in the name of the khedive for many years. The conditions in Cuba at present are very much like those that existed in Bosnia in 1878. A similar arrangement can be justified on the same grounds.

The active sympathies of nearly all the American republics have been with the insurgents in Cuba since the revolution began. The only exceptions are Mexico, which has preserved a dignified and conservative neutrality; Chile, which has shown partisanship for Spain, and the Argentine Republic and Uruguay, which have been suspected of similar tendencies, but have not made them so plainly manifest. The government of Colombia looks upon the attitude of the United States with suspicion. She is apprehensive of the result of Cuban annexation, for fear a spirit of conquest might be aroused in this country which would extend across the Caribbean sea.—William E. Curtis in Chicago Record.

THE QUICK HORSE.

An Outgrowth of Improved American Methods of Fire Fighting.

In St. Nicholas there is an article on "The Quick Horse," by F. S. Dellenbaugh, devoted to the horses of the modern fire department. Mr. Dellenbaugh says: It is only within recent years that quick horses have been developed and appreciated and admired, and the poet has not yet attempted to sing the praises of this more prosaic but noble animal. Yet, after all, to one who carefully examines the matter the quick horse appears to have quite as good, if not a better, claim upon our admiration and sympathy and encouragement. The swift horse wins the race, and in these days he may cause considerable money to change hands, in which there is certainly nothing that is commendable. But the quick horse I write about saves life, saves property and under modern conditions of life is essential to our safety and general well being. He is the result indirectly of poor building—an outgrowth of our skillful American fire departments, which could not now exist without him.

Not so very many years ago when a fire broke out everybody far and near began to run and especially began to yell, and the volunteer firemen of that time, being in the service for the excitement of it, joined in the yell and started out the old hand engine from its solemn repose, while the foreman running ahead shouted innumerable orders hoarsely through his trumpet, to the great delight of hundreds of small boys panting to keep up in the glorious race.

The fire—that was altogether a secondary matter, and when they all finally got there they went to work with more or less efficiency. There was a great deal of fun in the business, but fires were not extinguished. Our cities in the early days were not built to prevent fires, but seemed, if anything, rather built to encourage them.

In France we may well be amused as we watch the pompiers trundle their bathtub on wheels to the scene of the conflagration and deliberately fill its apartments with water dipped up from the gutter, whence it is thrown by a little pump upon the flames, because we know much of the architecture there is solid, and if the fire is not extinguished it will soon burn itself out. But in our country a mere spark may in a few seconds become a devouring furnace and destroy house after house and block after block. Many buildings are tinder boxes, and our dry climate adds to their inflammability, while the ever present careless or lazy workman by improper construction gives the fire its first opportunity.

A Quaker Romance.

Valentine Hollingsworth accompanied William Penn in the good ship Welcome and settled in Delaware upon the banks of the Brandywine. Katherine, his daughter, "a delectable Quaker maiden," the pride of the little settlement, was wooed and won by big George Robinson. But George was of the church of England, and Katherine "must be married in meeting."

"George," writes the author of "Heirlooms in Miniature," "was willing to join the society, be a Friend and be married in meeting or anywhere else that Katherine said. Accordingly he and Katherine made their first declaration 5th day, 1st month, 1688."

The elders, however, had "scruples," seeing that George's conversion was very sudden, and they asked him this searching question:

"Friend Robinson, dost thou join the Society of Friends from conviction or for the love of Katherine Hollingsworth?"

George hesitated. He prized the truth and he did wish to marry Katherine. So he answered:

"I wish to join the society for the love of Katherine Hollingsworth."

The Friends counseled "delay and that Friend Robinson should be persuasively and instructively dealt with." Shrewd men as they were, they allowed Katherine to deal with him, and within a year George joined the society as a true convert.

An old manuscript reads, "He and Katherine were permitted to begin a long and happy married life together, being for many years an example of piety and goodness to those around them and retaining their love of truth and loyalty to the society to the last."

A Grateful Patient.

"Doctor," said the substantial citizen, as he rushed up to the young physician, "I owe you my life."

"Eh?"

"Yes. I was taken suddenly ill two days ago, and my wife sent for you—and you were not in."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

HE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Finest Print Shop

IN EASTERN OHIO

We Print Everything

From an Election Sticker

to a

3-Sheet Poster.

HIGH GRADE COLOR PRINTING, ART CATALOGUES, EMBOSING, HALF TONE WORK, IM. LITHOGRAPHY, IM. TYPE WRITER, &c, &c, &c.

WE AIM TO DO CAREFUL, CORRECT PRINTING; TO MAKE SOMETHING ATTRACTIVE.

OUR WORK EMBRACES CARDS, LETTER HEADS, INVOICE SHEETS, INVITATIONS, FOLDERS, CIRCULARS, BILLS, &c.

Book Work.

No matter what the size or class of job, with our facilities we can compete with the world in quality of work and price.

Our Type.

Customers may have the benefit of a large assortment of borders, ornaments, initials, etc. Every new face of type patented always finds room in our job department. None but first-class printers are employed, which means the best possible results obtainable from the material.

Our Presses.

The "Century" Pony for high grade book and half tone work (finest machine manufactured). Improved Gordons for commercial work, and a large Babcock for poster printing; presided over by a pressman late in charge of the finest presses in one of the largest printing houses in the world.

In a Nut Shell

High Wages, Fine Equipment, Artistic Workmen.

Tells the Story.

HE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

VIEWED COUNTY FUNDS

Judge Moore and W. H. Spence
Examined the Treasury.

PLENTY OF MONEY ON HAND

An Echo of the Time When John R. Martin Was in Office Appears in the Report.
How the Cash Is Divided—Other Happenings at the County Seat.

LISBON, March 14.—[Special]—The county treasury was examined last Saturday afternoon by Judge Moore and W. H. Spence at the request of Judge Boone. Everything was found in splendid condition, the amount of money in the treasury being $29,289.75. It is divided in the following funds:

Poor, $6,872.21; bridge, $4,273.04; building, $15,012.12; soldiers' relief, $397.91; sheep, $4,582.90; institute, $208.35; state, $30.16; corporation, $108.16; school, $5,178.47; interest and bond indebtedness, $3,275.11; special restor bridge, $486.58; liquor collections since Jan. 1, $797.15; other sources since Feb. 28, $67; total, $42,289.75.

Overdrafts on county, childrens' home, tax refunded and ditch funds, $9,877.29; the disputed claim of John R. Martin of $2,114.40, and receipts presented and charged to Martin, $1,008.31, leaving a balance of $29,289.75.

About the Court House.

LISBON, March 14.—[Special]—Marriage licenses have been issued to James Hutchinson and Mary Briery, and J. W. Wright and Jennie Jones.

George A. Vogleson, administrator of the estate of Annie E. Vogleson, has been ordered to sell for cash 58 shares of Central Pacific and 60 shares of Northern Pacific railroad stock.

Duncan Stafford has sold to Frank R. Martin, land in Wellsville for $750.

MILLIONS OF BUSHELS.

A Great Many Tons of Coal Went Down the River Today.

The river is rising slowly and the marks at the wharf at noon today registered 9.6 feet and still rising.

The Keystone State, Kanawha and Ben Hur went up yesterday on time and all had good cargos and large passenger lists. The Keystone State and Ben Hur are due down tonight.

The Princess went up light yesterday evening and the Clifton passed down.

Twenty-six boats taking with them 187 barges and 32 flats loaded with coal, and nine barges loaded with iron, left Pittsburgh after 9 a. m., yesterday. It was the first opportunity the coal men had been given for a long time, though the river promised to have comfortable barge water. It is estimated that over 2,000,000 bushels of coal went south.

The boats are as follows: Robert Jenkins, Sam Clark, John Moren, Enterprise, William G. Horner, Hornet No. 2, Pacific, Hunter No. 2, Belle McGowan, Cyclone, Ed Roberts, Jim Moren, Tornado, Valiant, Wilmot, Coal City, Volunteer, Rescue, Voyager, Mariner, Cruiser, George Shiras, Joseph Walton, Jim Brown, Acorn, Advance, Tom Dodsworth.

VALUABLE DOG KILLED.

It Was Run Down by a Street Car Yesterday.

A valuable English setter, the property of Capt. W. M. Hill, escaped from its kennel yesterday morning, and wandering to the street car tracks was run down by a car, at the foot of College street. The animal's front legs were cut off, and it was shot.

Captain Hill will enter suit against the street railway company for damages, as it is held that the death of the dog was due to the carelessness of the motorman.

Going! Where! To see the National Flower at opera house March 15.

Secure Your Dates Now.

The grand pleasure park at Rock Point, with its new hotel, dining hall, dancing pavilion, merry-go-round, and attractive features as the finest picnic ground in this section, will be open the coming season. Sabbath schools, lodges and other organizations, pleasure parties and persons wishing to participate in a delightful outing may now shape preliminaries by having the park reserved for their exclusive use on certain dates. For details apply to J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent Pennsylvania Lines, 360 Fifth avenue, corner Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The celebrated Vandersall family at Grand Opera House March 15.

The News Review for news.

MENTALLY AN INFANT.

The Strange Case of a Strongly Built Man at Cleveland.

In a bed in the Cleveland General hospital is a strong man reduced to the mental condition of an infant 6 months old. He is William Murray of Erie, Pa., who says he was "hurt on the head" and is unable to give any other account of himself.

Murray's body trembles constantly, and when he attempts to speak his chin quivers as if he were about to cry. He frequently leaps out of bed and sits playing on the floor, exactly like a child when it is not yet strong enough to walk. He has a fancy for toys and plays with them for hours at a time.

When a watch was handed to Murray, he laughed and crowed in an ecstasy of baby joy and shook the watch like a rattle box. The next minute he placed the watch in his mouth. A rattle box is one of his prime favorites. One of the pastimes in which Murray indulges oftenest is to sit on the floor and play with his toes. He eats and drinks like a baby and tries to put everything he gets hold of in his mouth. Every phase of infant life is depicted in his acts.

Murray is a fine looking man and evidently has been a person of refinement. He is strongly built, weighs about 200 pounds and has dark hair and a dark brown mustache. He evidently has been a shorthand writer. The attendants at various times have given him pencil and paper with which to amuse himself, and he invariably makes shorthand characters instead of the meaningless marks of a child.

Some of the physicians who have seen Murray have a theory that he was confined in a hospital as the result of an injury to his head, and that he escaped while slightly convalescent. The motion of the train, they think, agitated the brain and brought on Murray's strange condition. His return to infancy is an unprecedented mental phenomenon.—St. Louis Republic.

LIFE AT SEATTLE.

Paddy Smith, the Pugilist, Says It Is the Wildest Place He Ever Saw.

Paddy Smith, the lightweight pugilist and brother of Denver Ed Smith, is in Seattle on his way to the Klondike, which has attracted a large number of other western sporting men. Writing from Seattle, Smith says: "Just a few lines descriptive of this tour. I have been here for three months, and it is the wildest place I ever saw. Gambling is wide open, and everything goes. Every game on earth, except the pool-room, is in full blast. There are more dog trainers here than I ever saw before in my life. Every man that has a dog has to keep a rope on him, for the first time a dog goes out alone he is 'pinched.' Not even curs are barred. I brought a dog up from Spokane, but a Klondiker stole him out of the back yard. By this time he is on the Yukon, and when I go in I will have no dog. My pack goes on my back. I tell you this is a speedy place. Klondikers are coming and going, and everything is on the rush order from morning till night.

"Not a man but talks of the Klondike, the Yukon and Stuart rivers. Every day ships arrive and sail. The streets are as crowded at night as they are in the daytime. I hope to leave about May 17. It is going to be a tough trip, but I will take one chance. The fastest on record for the return trip from the Klondike to Dyea is 21 days. It took the best dog team in Alaska to do it. It takes about 43 days to go to Dawson City, as it is all up hill going and must be done by fair heel and toe walking. You can go to Dawson by the Yukon in a boat, but it costs $500. Some go by the river route, but most of them over the Chilkoot pass."—New York Sun.

RARE COINS FOUND.

Two Kentucky Prospectors Report a Valuable Find Near Laketon.

B. W. McClure of Bardwell, Ky., tells of a marvelous discovery of old coins about a mile and a half from Laketon, Ky., recently. One of the Miller brothers and another man, whose name he could not remember, were prospecting in the hills with a metal rod, which he said could detect metal 22 feet beneath the surface. The rod pointed down over a spot, and digging down nearly 20 feet they discovered almost a bushel of curiously shaped coins. Some were square, others octagonal, and still others round.

The coins bore strange inscriptions, which they could not decipher, and were of copper, silver and gold. They appeared to be very old. The finders refuse to tell just where they found the coins, believing there are others hidden there. Much treasure is believed to be hidden in that neighborhood, and the people have been digging in the hills there for years. McClure is a log buyer for a factory and says Miller is a man who may be believed.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The March of Civilization.

Interpreter—Chief Wangbo wants no more beads and brass wire. He says you cannot cross his country unless you agree to pay his price.

African Explorer—What does he want?

Interpreter—Two-thirds of the royalties on your next book.—London Titbits.

RECEIVER FOR CUBA.

NEW SCHEME OF SETTLEMENT OF THE CUBAN QUESTION.

Plan Proposed to President McKinley to Place the Island Under the Control of the Mexican Ruler—Some of the Many Precedents in History.

A new and novel suggestion for the settlement of the Cuban troubles was offered to the president recently by Representative Beach of Ohio. He proposes that the government of the United States intervene on the ground of humanity, the interruption of commerce and the destruction of property. He argues that such action would be justified because it has been clearly demonstrated that Spain cannot put down the insurrection and that the Spanish authorities could not preserve peace and prevent similar outbreaks even if it were possible to secure the surrender of the insurgents now in the field. At the same time it is admitted that the business interests of Cuba and the property holders distrust the leaders of the insurrection quite as much as the Spaniards and that it is the judgment of those most competent to express an opinion that anarchy would follow independence and that the commercial and industrial interests would suffer quite as much as if not more than they are suffering now.

These circumstances and conditions, Mr. Beach submits, justify the intervention of the United States, which, next to Spain, is a party with the largest interest, and that the easiest solution of the situation would be to have a receiver appointed, just as would be done if the directors of a firm or corporation were engaged in a quarrel which was causing the destruction of the property and the interests of the stockholders. It is believed that Brazil, Venezuela, Colombia, the Central American republics and other governments of America would unite with the United States in such a proceeding and join in a recommendation for the appointment of President Diaz as the receiver of the property. He has the absolute confidence of all concerned, he has been absolutely neutral throughout the struggle, he is of Spanish descent, he has shown an administrative ability that is without precedent in the Spanish-American countries, he understands the Spanish character thoroughly and is more competent to govern Cuba than any Anglo-Saxon that could be named.

While this proposition is made without consulting Mexico and even without the knowledge of Mr. Romero, the minister of that republic at Washington, it is believed by those who understand the attitude of the Mexican government that President Diaz would readily accept the responsibility provided such an arrangement would be agreeable to both the Spanish government and the leaders of the insurgents. He would not, however, be a party to any movement that would place Cuba under his jurisdiction by force. It is known that the Mexican government offered some suggestions to the Spanish ministry regarding the treatment of Cuba a year or two ago, but they were not acted upon, and it is not known whether they were ever seriously considered.

Spain is so jealous of the United States and so suspicious of our designs concerning Cuba that such a solution might relieve her from embarrassment and offer an honorable escape from her present dilemma. It is demonstrated that she cannot conquer Cuba. It is equally certain that she cannot maintain the struggle much longer because of financial exhaustion, and the prejudice of the Spanish people against the United States is so intense that no ministry would dare turn the colony over to our jurisdiction on any terms. But there is no such prejudice against Mexico, and the same objections would not apply. There are a number of precedents for such a settlement. During the fight for the independence of Greece the powers of Europe interfered in the name of humanity and selected Prince George of Denmark as the ruler of that country. A similar proceeding took place in Crete. The Turkish provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina were by the treaty of Berlin in 1878 handed over to the government of Austria for administration and military occupation. These provinces were at that time in rebellion against the sultan, and in his attempts to subdue them the countries were being rapidly destroyed. It being clear that Turkey could not conquer them without their utter destruction and the extermination of the population, the European powers interfered, and the two provinces have since been successfully governed by an Austrian archduke and pay tribute to Turkey. They have prospered amazingly. They have increased in population and wealth, and the present government is satisfactory to all concerned. Egypt is another illustration. Great Britain interfered to protect her commercial interests there and the Suez canal and has practically governed the country in the name of the khedive for many years. The conditions in Cuba at present are very much like those that existed in Bosnia in 1878. A similar arrangement can be justified on the same grounds.

The active sympathies of nearly all the American republics have been with the insurgents in Cuba since the revolution began. The only exceptions are Mexico, which has preserved a dignified and conservative neutrality; Chile, which has shown partisanship for Spain, and the Argentine Republic and Uruguay, which have been suspected of similar tendencies, but have not made them so plainly manifest. The government of Colombia looks upon the attitude of the United States with suspicion. She is apprehensive of the result of Cuban annexation, for fear a spirit of conquest might be aroused in this country which would extend across the Caribbean sea.—William E. Curtis in Chicago Record.

THE QUICK HORSE.

An Outgrowth of Improved American Methods of Fire Fighting.

In St. Nicholas there is an article on "The Quick Horse," by F. S. Dellenbaugh, devoted to the horses of the modern fire department. Mr. Dellenbaugh says: It is only within recent years that quick horses have been developed and appreciated and admired, and the poet has not yet attempted to sing the praises of this more prosaic but noble animal. Yet, after all, to one who carefully examines the matter the quick horse appears to have quite as good, if not a better, claim upon our admiration and sympathy and encouragement. The swift horse wins the race, and in these days he may cause considerable money to change hands, in which there is certainly nothing that is commendable. But the quick horse I write about saves life, saves property and under modern conditions of life is essential to our safety and general well being. He is the result indirectly of poor building—an outgrowth of our skillful American fire departments, which could not now exist without him.

Not so very many years ago when a fire broke out everybody far and near began to run and especially began to yell, and the volunteer firemen of that time, being in the service for the excitement of it, joined in the yell and started out the old hand engine from its solemn repose, while the foreman running ahead shouted innumerable orders hoarsely through his trumpet, to the great delight of hundreds of small boys panting to keep up in the glorious race.

The fire—that was altogether a secondary matter, and when they all finally got there they went to work with more or less efficiency. There was a great deal of fun in the business, but fires were not extinguished. Our cities in the early days were not built to prevent fires, but seemed, if anything, rather built to encourage them.

In France we may well be amused as we watch the pompiers trundle their bathtub on wheels to the scene of the conflagration and deliberately fill its apartments with water dipped up from the gutter, whence it is thrown by a little pump upon the flames, because we know much of the architecture there is solid, and if the fire is not extinguished it will soon burn itself out. But in our country a mere spark may in a few seconds become a devouring furnace and destroy house after house and block after block. Many buildings are tinder boxes, and our dry climate adds to their inflammability, while the ever present careless or lazy workman by improper construction gives the fire its first opportunity.

A Quaker Romance.

Valentine Hollingsworth accompanied William Penn in the good ship Welcome and settled in Delaware upon the banks of the Brandywine. Katherine, his daughter, "a delectable Quaker maiden," the pride of the little settlement, was wooed and won by big George Robinson. But George was of the church of England, and Katherine "must be married in meeting."

"George," writes the author of "Heir-looks In Miniature," "was willing to join the society, be a Friend and be married in meeting or anywhere else that Katherine said. Accordingly he and Katherine made their first declaration 5th day, 1st month, 1688."

The elders, however, had "scruples," seeing that George's conversion was very sudden, and they asked him this searching question:

"Friend Robinson, dost thou join the Society of Friends from conviction or for the love of Katherine Hollingsworth?"

George hesitated. He prized the truth and he did wish to marry Katherine. So he answered:

"I wish to join the society for the love of Katherine Hollingsworth."

The Friends counseled "delay and that Friend Robinson should be persuasively and instructively dealt with." Shrewd men as they were, they allowed Katherine to deal with him, and within a year George joined the society as a true convert.

An old manuscript reads, "He and Katherine were permitted to begin a long and happy married life together, being for many years an example of piety and goodness to those around them and retaining their love of truth and loyalty to the society to the last."

A Grateful Patient.

"Doctor," said the substantial citizen, as he rushed up to the young physician, "I owe you my life."

"Eh?"

"Yes. I was taken suddenly ill two days ago, and my wife sent for you—and you were not in."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

HE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Finest Print Shop

IN EASTERN OHIO

We Print Everything

From an Election Sticker

to a

3-Sheet Poster.

HIGH GRADE
COLOR PRINTING, ART CATALOGUES, EMBOSSING, HALF TONE WORK
IM. LITHOGRAPHY
IM. TYPE WRITER,
&c. &c. &c.

WE AIM TO DO CARE-FUL, CORRECT PRINT-ING; TO MAKE SOMETHING ATTRACTIVE.

OUR WORK EMBRACES CARDS, LETTER HEADS, INVOICE SHEETS, INVITATIONS, FOLDERS, CIRCULARS,
BILLS, &c.

Book Work.

No matter what the size or class of job, with our facilities we can compete with the world in quality of work and price.

Our Type.

Customers may have the benefit of a large assortment of borders, ornaments, initials, etc. Every new face of type patented always finds room in our job department. None but first-class printers are employed, which means the best possible results obtainable from the material.

Our Presses.

The "Century" Pony for high grade book and half tone work (finest machine manufactured). Improved Gordons for commercial work, and a large Babcock for poster printing; presided over by a pressman late in charge of the finest presses in one of the largest printing houses in the world.

In a Nut Shell

High Wages, Fine Equipment,
Artistic Workmen.

Tells the Story.

HE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

MADE A LOT OF NOISE

But Officer Grim Took Foutts to Jail.

COLLECTED A BIG CROWD

And the Report Was Current That the Officer Had Beaten His Prisoner Brutally, but There Was No Truth In It—Another Arrest.

During Saturday evening, yesterday and last night only two arrests were made and as a result not much business was to be done by the mayor this morning.

The first offender was Mike Garvey. He is an old gentleman, about 60 years, and was charged with being drunk and committing a nuisance. Mike made a noble plea for his release, and the mayor held the case under advisement.

John Foutts was put in during Saturday night for being drunk, but early yesterday morning his friends put up a forfeit for his appearance and he was released.

Foutts was found in West Market street by Officer Grim, and caused a great commotion when it dawned upon him that he was about to be placed under arrest. He shouted that he wanted no "nippers on his bare skin," but the officer held him until Trustee Lloyd called the patrol. A report was widely circulated through the city that Officer Grim had given the prisoner an awful thrashing, but it contained no truth.

No arrests were made during last night, and no police calls were answered from the fire station.

There are no hearings set for this week and indications point to a week of quiet in city hall.

Mr. Brown has been given the position of city janitor.

A DOUBLE HEADER.

This Candidate Worked Union and Non-Union Racket.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—Men sometimes mistake cunning for genuine intelligence and smartness, and they sometimes get left in the operation, and I earnestly hope this fellow will, as the union element in our community have him marked. In getting his cards printed, he had a number printed with the union label, and the work done at a union office. Then he patronized a non-union office and of course no label was on this portion. Then, when he approached a known unionist, he worked the union label racket, and when he went after a man whom he knew was down on unionism, for reasons best known to himself, the non-union cards were produced. We have the fellow marked, and we will endeavor to make him weary.

UNIONIST.

You've heard the "darkey" minstrels, Now hark'e to the Spinstrels. Grand Opera House March 21 and 22.

STILL AT WORK.

Many Railroad Men at Work in the West End.

Yesterday was the scene of much activity on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh road in the vicinity of the glass works.

One hundred men were at work on the improvements, and many people from this city and Wellsville walked to the place and inspected the work. The width of the fill when completed will be in the neighborhood of 40 feet, and before this is done 100 cars of filling are yet needed. The section gangs between Yellow Creek and Smith's Ferry were working with the regular construction force.

It is the intention of the company to complete the work as soon as possible.

To the Public.

Our spring stock of piece goods which was selected for the exclusive use for nobby dressers, and bears the stamp of tailors to trade is ready for your inspection. Try us for your tailor made suits. We guarantee satisfaction. Prices range from $12 to $25.

ERLANGER'S.

Big Day at the Depot.

Saturday was the busiest day for many weeks at the freight depot, and during the regular working time nearly 20 cars of ware were sent from the outbound platform.

More ware is being shipped this year than during the same period of 1897. All the cars sent out Saturday were well loaded, and the tonnage was very large. Receipts are showing a steady increase.

Come see the National Flower at opera house March 15.

McKINLEY'S AND BRYAN'S HOMES.

They Will Be Reproduced at the Exposition at Omaha.

OMAHA, March 14.—Senator John M. Thurston, chairman of the senate committee on expositions, recently suggested that the McKinley home at Canton be reproduced at the Ohio state building on the grounds of the Trans-mississippi exposition at Omaha. The board of managers approved the idea. The building when constructed will be used as a place of reception for Ohioans, and it is proposed to exhibit therein many mementoes of the late campaign, avoiding as far as possible anything savoring of partisanship.

Citizens of Lincoln, Neb., Mr. Bryan's home, addressed a communication to the exposition authorities asking permission to place on the exposition grounds a duplicate of Mr. Bryan's homestead and to exhibit therein campaign and other relics, of which Mr. Bryan is said to have no less than a carload. The board of managers unanimously voted authority for it.

A KING THANKS WELLMAN.

Accepts His Offer to Keep a Lookout For Prof. Andree.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The state department has received from the government of Sweden and Norway King Oscar's conditional acceptance of the offer made through the United States government by Walter Wellman to carry free of charge upon his north polar expedition steamer Laura, which is to sail from Tromsø, Norway, June 20, a party of Swedes to search for their countrymen, Prof. Andree, in Franz Josef land.

"The government of the king does not expect to send out a search expedition," says the minister of foreign affairs at Stockholm. "But if no news of Andree is received by July gratitude would be felt if Mr. Wellman were to permit several persons familiar with the Arctic regions to accompany his expedition for that purpose. The government of the king has learned with deep gratitude of the courteous and generous offer made by Mr. Wellman."

An Excursion Steamer Burned.

ST. LOUIS, March 14.—From a fire, the origin of which is unknown, the river excursion steamer Grand Republic burned to the water's edge near South St. Louis. Nothing was saved and Captain W. H. Thorwgen, his wife and two children and the watchman had narrow escapes. Loss $50,000.

Alleged Swindler Released.

CHICAGO, March 14.—B. R. Bennett, alias Charles P. Mead, formerly of Indianapolis, who was arrested on a charge of swindling the First National bank by means of raised drafts, has been released. The case, it is understood, being settled out of court.

Young Blair Under Arrest.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Frederick J. Blair, said by the police to be son of President A. G. Blair of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad, of Toledo, and who was arrested charged with passing worthless checks, has been held in the Jefferson Market court.

Defense of Portsmouth.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., March 14.—Plans for the placing of submarine mines for Portsmouth harbor have been mapped out and a large force of men have been actively at work near the fortifications.

The Parb Broke a Shaft.

SOUTHAMPTON, March 14.—The American steamer Paris, Captain Watkins, which sailed from New York on March 2 for this port and was due here on the morning of March 9, has arrived here. She reports that her delay was due to the breaking of the starboard shaft, rendering her starboard propeller useless.

Broker's Awful Crime.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Andrew Schuller, a financial broker, shot his wife and killed himself in his office here. She will probably die. Schuller's death was instantaneous.

Crazed by Cigarettes.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 14.—Crazed by cigarette smoking, Frank Giering, son of former Councilman L. F. Giering, set his parents' house on fire twice and held the police at bay for an hour. He is in custody.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

Some of the Happenings of the Whole World Given Briefly.

BELFAST, Wash.—The Co-operative Commonwealth, founded by Eugene V. Debs, has located a colony of its followers four miles west of Belfast, in Skagitts county, Wash. Eighty members have arrived, over half of whom are men whose families still remain in the east.

LEBANON, Ky.—The steam laundry, A. W. England's blacksmith shop, J. & W. Edmond's grocery store, the grocery store of R. Davis & Co. and the undertaking establishment of Croal, Stallard & Robey were destroyed by fire. The loss will not fall short of $50,000.

BOSTON.—Abraham Tebbitt, the self-confessed defaulter, accompanied by his wife, arrived here from Regina, N. W. T. Tebbitt, who is seriously ill with consumption, was conveyed to the City hospital, where he will remain under the charge of the police inspector until able to appear in court.

SAN FRANCISCO.—During the investigation of the Chinese boycott injunction case Owen Williams, who testified against the labor unions said, because of a warning he had received from some representatives of the unions, he expected to be killed. "If I am murdered," he said, "Judge Knowles is to blame."

See!! See!! See!!! What?

F. W. B.

F. W. BAUMER CO. New Piano Rooms, 1412 Block, East Liverpool, Ohio.

IN CRUEL CHICAGO.

WALTER A. WYCKOFF WITH THE ARMY OF THE UNEMPLOYED.

A New Phase of the "Experiment in Reality"—The Workers in the West. Homeless, Hungry and Almost Hopeless in the Great City.

[From Scribner's Magazine for March. Copyright, 1898. All rights reserved.]

A new phase of my experiment is begun. Hitherto I have been in the open country and have found work with surprising readiness. Now I am in the heart of a congested labor market, and I am learning by experience what it is to look for work and fail to find it, to renew the search under the spur of hunger and cold and of the animal instinct of self preservation until any employment, no matter how low in the scale of work, that would yield food and shelter appears to you the very kingdom of heaven, and if it could suffer violence it would seem as though the strength of your desire must take that kingdom by force. But it remains impregnable to your attack, and baffled and weakened you are thrust back upon yourself and held down remorselessly to the cold, naked fact that you, who in all the universe are of supremest importance to yourself, are yet of no importance to the universe. You are a superfluous human being. For you there is no part in the play of the world's activity. There remains for you simply this alternative—have you the physical and moral qualities which fit you to survive and which will place you at last within the working of the large scheme of things, or, lacking these qualities, does there await you inevitable wreck under the onward rush of the world's great moving life?

That at all events is pretty much as it appears tonight to Tom Clark and me. Clark is my "partner," and we are not in good luck nor in high spirits. We each had a 10 cent breakfast this morning, but neither has tasted food since, and tonight, after an exhausting search for work, we must sleep in the station house. ***

We are tired and very hungry and not a little discouraged. We should be almost desperate but for one redeeming fact. The silver lining of our cloud has appeared tonight in the form of falling snow. From the murky clouds which all day have hung threateningly over the city a quiet, steady snowfall has begun, and we shall be singularly unfortunate in the morning if we can find no pavements to clean.

In the growing threat of snow we have encouraged each other with the brightening prospect of a little work, and for quite half an hour after night-fall we stood alternately before the windows of two cheap restaurants in Madison street, studying the square placards in the windows on which the bills of fare are printed and telling each other, with nice discriminations between bulk and strengthening power of food, what we shall choose tomorrow.

ENRAGED BY BLOOD.

A Bull Rushed After a Farmer and Chased His Sons Into Trees.

J. Hart Larowe, a farmer living three miles south of Lambertville, N. J., killed a number of hogs the other afternoon in a field adjacent to the barn. A bull broke out of the stable yard, and, smelling the fresh blood, rushed for Larowe and his two hired men and drove them into the house. Larowe's sons, John and James, returning from Lambertville, encountered the maddened bull, which chased them into a peach orchard, where they each climbed a tree and yelled for help.

The bull attacked one of the trees, and it was with the utmost difficulty that the young man retained his hold. Farmer Larowe and George Lewis appeared armed with a shotgun and pitchfork. Larowe fired two charges at the vicious beast, causing it to break into a run. Lewis followed, jabbing with the pitchfork, and succeeded in driving the animal into the barnyard. The two frightened men then descended from the trees and ran home.—New York World.

Daily Output News Print Paper.

The daily output of news print paper in the United States is about 1,200 to 1,500 tons. The production of news print is larger than any other grade. That of book paper is probably as much as 1,000 tons and of writing 450 tons each daily.

Natural Suspicion.

"What makes you think this man an impostor when he says he is from Boston?"

"The fact that he doesn't claim to know the Back Bay district."—Chicago News.

WANTED.

WANTED—AGENTS BY PRUDENTIAL Insurance company. Inquire at 1 o'clock each day, room 10 Foutts building. M. M. Dunlop, assistant superintendent.

WANTED—AGENTS TO SELL MURAT Halstead's Great Cuba book; all about Cuba, Spain and war; great excitement; everyone buys it; one agent sold 87 in one day; another made $13 in one hour, 600 pages; magnificent illustrations; photographs, etc., low price; we guarantee the most liberal terms; freight paid; 20 days credit; outfit free; send 6 two-cent stamps to pay postage The Bible House, 324 Dearborn street, Chicago.

WANTED—AGENT FOR PRUDENTIAL Insurance company. Good route now open. Apply to B. F. Specht, Assistant Superintendent, room 9, Foutts building, or postoffice box 162.

WANTED—THREE OR FOUR ROOMS for light housekeeping. Must be centrally located. Inquire at this office at once.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—SIX ROOM HOUSE, NEARLY new, with lot 30x130, near Fourth and Jefferson. Price $2,400. Also adjoining lot $1,100. Inquire this office.

FOR SALE—BUGGY, ALMOST NEW AND in first class condition. Will sell at a big bargain. For full particulars inquire of J. S. McIntosh, Ray's livery stable, City Library.

For Sale.

Two desirable houses in West End. A new 7 roomed house, fronting on Lisbon road. A 4 roomed house, fronting in Fairview street; in good repair. For full particulars, terms, price, etc., apply at 291 Lincoln avenue.

FOR SALE—A 4-ROOMED HOUSE, WITH lot 40x100, on Lincoln avenue. Price, $2,350. Apply to J. P. Hanlon, 315 Lincoln avenue.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—NICE SIX ROOMED HOUSE, with all modern conveniences. Nicely located. For full particulars, inquire at this office.

THE Union Building Loan and Trust Co.,

OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

Incorporated under the laws of Ohio under state inspection.

Authorized Capital, $300,000.

SHARES $100 EACH.

For Borrowers and Investors—

LOANS MADE FROM $100 UP.

J. M. Kelly, president; Geo. W. Burford, vice president; S. T. Herbert, secretary; N. G. Macrum, treasurer; G. Y. Travis, attorney.

Board of Directors—J. M. Kelly, vice president First National Bank; Geo. W. Burford, Secretary the Burford Bros. Pottery Co.; H. A. Ketter, secretary the Potters' Co-operative Co.; S. T. Herbert, city treasurer; G. Y. Travis, attorney at law; Cornelius Cronin, secretary and treasurer the Standard Pottery Co.; J. T. Smith, president the J. T. Smith Lumber Co.; T. V. Milligan, Jr., secretary and treasurer the Eagle Hardware Co.; N. G. Macrum, cashier First National Bank.

Depository: First National Bank.

For full information apply to any of the above named gentlemen or agent of the Company.

Temporary Office: Grand Opera House Block, Office of Herbert & Travis.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

The Republican voters of Liverpool township and East Liverpool city are hereby notified that a primary election, to choose candidates for election April 4, 1898, will be held Saturday, March 19, 1898.

between the hours of 1 and 7 p. m., city time.

The following candidates are to be chosen:

One Mayor.
One Solicitor.
One Marshal.
One Treasurer.
One City Commissioner.
One Water Works Trustee.
One Cemetery Trustee.
One member of Council from each ward.
One Assessor from each ward and township.

Names of candidates are to be handed the clerk of the Central Committee on or before 8 p. m. of March 10.

The polls will be at the usual places as near as possible.

By order of Committee.

JAS. N. HANLEY, Chairman.

JAS. N. HANLEY, Secretary.

Money to Loan

IN ANY SUM FROM

$100 TO $10,000,

on easy payment and low rate of interest. Full particulars at the

POTTERS' BUILDING & SAVINGS COMPANY Corner Fifth and Washington Streets.

The Press OF THE NEWS REVIEW

HUMS CONSTANTLY put in your order for it if you want up-to-date work delivered promptly.

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Time

Westward.		3:35	3:37	3:39	3:41	3:59
		AM	PM	PM	PM	AM
Pittsburgh	iv	15	45	11	30	14
Rochester	"	6	40	2	15	11
Beaver	"	6	50	2	25	11
Vanport	"	7	00	3	00	11
Industry	"	7	03	3	05	11
Cooks Ferry	"	7	00	3	00	11
Smiths Ferry	"	7	11	2	49	12
East Liverpool	"	7	20	2	49	12
Wellsville	ar	7	33	3	00	12
Wellsville	iv	7	42	3	05	12
Wellsville Shop	"	7	46			12
Yellow Creek	"	7	52			12
Hammondsville	"	8	04	3	22	11
Irontdale	"	8	19	3	38	12
Salineville	"	8	24	3	43	12
Bayard	"	8	29	3	48	12
Alliance	ar	8	30	3	43	12
Ravenna	iv	10	05	4	38	12
Hudson	"	10	45	5	06	12
Cleveland	ar	12	10	6	25	12
Wellsville	iv	7	47	3	10	12
Wellsville Shop	"	7	52	3	13	12
Yellow Creek	"	7	57	3	18	12
Port Homer	"	8	03	3	23	12
Empire	"	8	10	3	29	12
Elliottsville	"	8	17	3	33	12
Toronto	"	8	21	3	37	12
Costonia	"	8	28	3	44	12
Steubenville	iv	8	34	4	00	12
Mingo Je	"	8	51	4	10	12
Brilliant	"	8	58	4	20	12
Rush Run	"	9	07	4	32	12
Portland	"	9	14	4	39	12
Yorkville	"	9	19	4	46	12
Smiths Ferry	"	9	32	5	00	12
Port Homer	"	9	40	5	08	12
Bellaire	ar	9	50	5	20	12
		AM	PM	PM	AM	PM
Eastward.		3:40	3:39	3:38	3:00	4
		AM	AM	AM	AM	PM
Bellaire	iv	14	45	11	00	12
Bridgeport	"	15	01	11	05	12
Smiths Ferry	"	5	01	9	15	11
Yorkville	"	5	10	9	22	11
Portland	"	5	15	9	28	11
Rush Run	"	5	20	9	33	11
Brilliant	"	5	28	9	41	11
Mingo Je	"	5	35	9	48	11
Steubenville	iv	5	44	9	56	11
Costonia	"	6	00	10	02	11
Toronto	"	6	07	10	09	11
Elliottsville	"	6	11	10	13	11
Empire	"	6	13	10	15	11
Port Homer	"	6	16	20	18	11
Yellow Creek	"	6	26	10	40	11
Wellsville Shop	"	6	31	10	45	11
Wellsville	ar	6	35	10	50	11
Wellsville	iv	7	42	11	05	12
Wellsville Shop	"	7	46			12
Yellow Creek	"	7	52			12
Hammondsville	"	8	00			12
Irontdale	"	8	09			12
Salineville	"	8	19			12
Bayard	"	8	27			12
Alliance	ar	8	30			12
Ravenna	iv	10	40			12
Hudson	"	11	02			12
Cleveland	ar	12	10			12
Wellsville	iv	6	45	11	00	12
East Liverpool	"	6	57	11	10	12
Smiths Ferry	"	7	07	11	20	12
Cooks Ferry	"	7	20	11	25	12
Industry	"	7	25	11	30	12
Vanport	"	7	34	11	40	12
Beaver	"	7	40	11	45	12
Port Homer	"	7	50	11	55	12
Pittsburgh	ar	8	50	12	00	12
		AM	PM	PM	AM	PM

MADE A LOT OF NOISE

But Officer Grim Took Foutts to Jail.

COLLECTED A BIG CROWD

And the Report Was Current That the Officer Had Beaten His Prisoner Brutally, but There Was No Truth In It—Another Arrest.

During Saturday evening, yesterday and last night only two arrests were made and as a result not much business was to be done by the mayor this morning.

The first offender was Mike Garvey. He is an old gentleman, about 60 years, and was charged with being drunk and committing a nuisance. Mike made a noble plea for his release, and the mayor held the case under advisement.

John Foutts was put in during Saturday night for being drunk, but early yesterday morning his friends put up a forfeit for his appearance and he was released.

Foutts was found in West Market street by Officer Grim, and caused a great commotion when it dawned upon him that he was about to be placed under arrest. He shouted that he wanted no "nippers on his bare skin," but the officer held him until Trustee Lloyd called the patrol. A report was widely circulated through the city that Officer Grim had given the prisoner an awful thrashing, but it contained no truth.

No arrests were made during last night, and no police calls were answered from the fire station.

There are no hearings set for this week and indications point to a week of quiet in city hall.

Mr. Brown has been given the position of city janitor.

A DOUBLE HEADER.

This Candidate Worked Union and Non-Union Racket.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—Men sometimes mistake cunning for genuine intelligence and smartness, and they sometimes get left in the operation, and I earnestly hope this fellow will, as the union element in our community have him marked. In getting his cards printed, he had a number printed with the union label, and the work done at a union office. Then he patronized a non-union office and of course no label was on this portion. Then, when he approached a known unionist, he worked the union label racket, and when he went after a man whom he knew was down on unionism, for reasons best known to himself, the non-union cards were produced. We have the fellow marked, and we will endeavor to make him weary.

UNIONIST.

You've heard the "darkey" minstrels, Now hark'e to the Spinstrels. Grand Opera House March 21 and 22.

STILL AT WORK.

Many Railroad Men at Work in the West End.

Yesterday was the scene of much activity on the Cleveland and Pittsburg road in the vicinity of the glass works.

One hundred men were at work on the improvements, and many people from this city and Wellsville walked to the place and inspected the work. The width of the fill when completed will be in the neighborhood of 40 feet, and before this is done 100 cars of filling are yet needed. The section gangs between Yellow Creek and Smith's Ferry were working with the regular construction force.

It is the intention of the company to complete the work as soon as possible.

To the Public.

Our spring stock of piece goods which was selected for the exclusive use for bobby dressers, and bears the stamp of tailors to trade is ready for your inspection. Try us for your tailor made suits. We guarantee satisfaction. Prices range from $12 to $25.

ERLANGER'S.

Big Day at the Depot.

Saturday was the busiest day for many weeks at the freight depot, and during the regular working time nearly 20 cars of ware were sent from the outbound platform.

More ware is being shipped this year than during the same period of 1897. All the cars sent out Saturday were well loaded, and the tonnage was very large. Receipts are showing a steady increase.

Come see the National Flower at opera house March 15.

M'KINLEY'S AND BRYAN'S HOMES.

They Will Be Reproduced at the Exposition at Omaha.

OMAHA, March 14.—Senator John M. Thurston, chairman of the senate committee on expositions, recently suggested that the McKinley home at Canton be reproduced as the Ohio state building on the grounds of the Trans-mississippi exposition at Omaha. The board of managers approved the idea. The building when constructed will be used as a place of reception for Ohioans, and it is proposed to exhibit therein many mementoes of the late campaign, avoiding as far as possible anything savoring of partisanship.

Citizens of Lincoln, Neb., Mr. Bryan's home, addressed a communication to the exposition authorities asking permission to place on the exposition grounds a duplicate of Mr. Bryan's homestead and to exhibit therein campaign and other relics, of which Mr. Bryan is said to have no less than a carload. The board of managers unanimously voted authority for it.

A KING THANKS WELLMAN.

Accepts His Offer to Keep a Lookout For Prof. Andree.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The state department has received from the government of Sweden and Norway King Oscar's conditional acceptance of the offer made through the United States government by Walter Wellman to carry free of charge upon his north polar expedition steamer Laura, which is to sail from Tromsø, Norway, June 20, a party of Swedes to search for their countrymen, Prof. Andree, in Franz Josef land.

"The government of the king does not expect to send out a search expedition," says the minister of foreign affairs at Stockholm. "But if no news of Andree is received by July gratitude would be felt if Mr. Wellman were to permit several persons familiar with the Arctic regions to accompany his expedition for that purpose. The government of the king has learned with deep gratitude of the courteous and generous offer made by Mr. Wellman."

An Excursion Steamer Burned.

ST. LOUIS, March 14.—From a fire, the origin of which is unknown, the river excursion steamer Grand Republic burned to the water's edge near South St. Louis. Nothing was saved and Captain W. H. Thorweger, his wife and two children and the watchman had narrow escapes. Loss $50,000.

Alleged Swindler Released.

CHICAGO, March 14.—B. R. Bennett, alias Charles P. Mead, formerly of Indianapolis, who was arrested on a charge of swindling the First National bank by means of raised drafts, has been released, the case, it is understood, being settled out of court.

Young Blair Under Arrest.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Frederick J. Blair, said by the police to be son of President A. G. Blair of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad, of Toledo, and who was arrested charged with passing worthless checks, has been held in the Jefferson Market court.

Defense of Portsmouth.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., March 14.—Plans for the placing of submarine mines for Portsmouth harbor have been mapped out and a large force of men have been actively at work near the fortifications.

The Parb Broke a Shaft.

SOUTHAMPTON, March 14.—The American steamer Paris, Captain Watkins, which sailed from New York on March 2 for this port and was due here on the morning of March 9, has arrived here. She reports that her delay was due to the breaking of the starboard shaft, rendering her starboard propeller useless.

Broker's Awful Crime.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Andrew Schuller, a financial broker, shot his wife and killed himself in his office here. She will probably die. Schuller's death was instantaneous.

Crazed by Cigarettes.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 14.—Crazed by cigarette smoking, Frank Giering, son of former Councilman L. F. Giering, set his parents' house on fire twice and held the police at bay for an hour. He is in custody.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

Some of the Happenings of the Whole World Given Briefly.

BELFAST, Wash.—The Co-operative Commonwealth, founded by Eugene V. Debs, has located a colony of its followers four miles west of Belfast, in Skagit county, Wash. Eighty members have arrived, over half of whom are men whose families still remain in the east.

LEBANON, Ky.—The steam laundry, A. W. England's blacksmith shop, J. & W. Edmond's grocery store, the grocery store of R. Davis & Co. and the undertaking establishment of Croal, Stallard & Robey were destroyed by fire. The loss will not fall short of $50,000.

BOSTON.—Abraham Tebbitt, the self-confessed defaulter, accompanied by his wife, arrived here from Regina, N. W. T. Tebbitt, who is seriously ill with consumption, was conveyed to the City hospital, where he will remain under the charge of the police inspector until able to appear in court.

SAN FRANCISCO.—During the investigation of the Chinese boycott injunction case Owen Williams, who testified against the labor unions said, because of a warning he had received from some of the representatives of the unions, he expected to be killed. "If I am murdered," he said, "Judge Knowles is to blame."

See!! See!! See!!! What?

F. W. B. F. W. BAUMER CO. New Piano Rooms, 1111 Block, East Liverpool, Ohio.

IN CRUEL CHICAGO.

WALTER A. WYCKOFF WITH THE ARMY OF THE UNEMPLOYED.

A New Phase of the "Experiment in Reality"—The Workers in the West. Homeless, Hungry and Almost Hopeless in the Great City.

(From Scribner's Magazine for March. Copyright, 1898. All rights reserved.)

A new phase of my experiment is begun. Hitherto I have been in the open country and have found work with surprising readiness. Now I am in the heart of a congested labor market, and I am learning by experience what it is to look for work and fail to find it, to renew the search under the spur of hunger and cold and of the animal instinct of self preservation until any employment, no matter how low in the scale of work, that would yield food and shelter appears to you the very kingdom of heaven, and if it could suffer violence it would seem as though the strength of your desire must take that kingdom by force. But it remains impregnable to your attack, and baffled and weakened you are thrust back upon yourself and held down remorselessly to the cold, naked fact that you, who in all the universe are of supreme importance to yourself, are yet of no importance to the universe. You are a superfluous human being. For you there is no part in the play of the world's activity. There remains for you simply this alternative—have you the physical and moral qualities which fit you to survive and which will place you at last within the working of the large scheme of things, or, lacking these qualities, does there await you inevitable wreck under the onward rush of the world's great moving life?

That at all events is pretty much as it appears tonight to Tom Clark and me. Clark is my "partner," and we are not in good luck nor in high spirits. We each had a 10 cent breakfast this morning, but neither has tasted food since, and tonight, after an exhausting search for work, we must sleep in the station house. ***

We are tired and very hungry and not a little discouraged. We should be almost desperate but for one redeeming fact. The silver lining of our cloud has appeared tonight in the form of falling snow. From the murky clouds which all day have hung threateningly over the city a quiet, steady snowfall has begun, and we shall be singularly unfortunate in the morning if we can find no pavements to clean.

In the growing threat of snow we have encouraged each other with the brightening prospect of a little work, and for quite half an hour after night-fall we stood alternately before the windows of two cheap restaurants in Madison street, studying the square placards in the windows on which the bills of fare are printed and telling each other, with nice discriminations between bulk and strengthening power of food, what we shall choose tomorrow.

ENRAGED BY BLOOD.

A Bull Rushed After a Farmer and Chased His Sons Into Trees.

J. Hart Larowe, a farmer living three miles south of Lambertville, N. J., killed a number of hogs the other afternoon in a field adjacent to the barn. A bull broke out of the stable yard, and, smelling the fresh blood, rushed for Larowe and his two hired men and drove them into the house. Larowe's sons, John and James, returning from Lambertville, encountered the maddened bull, which chased them into a peach orchard, where they each climbed a tree and yelled for help.

The bull attacked one of the trees, and it was with the utmost difficulty that the young man retained his hold. Farmer Larowe and George Lewis appeared armed with a shotgun and pitchfork. Larowe fired two charges at the vicious beast, causing it to break into a run. Lewis followed, jabbing with the pitchfork, and succeeded in driving the animal into the barnyard. The two frightened men then descended from the trees and ran home.—New York World.

Daily Output News Print Paper.

The daily output of news print paper in the United States is about 1,200 to 1,500 tons. The production of news print is larger than any other grade. That of book paper is probably as much as 1,000 tons and of writing 450 tons each daily.

Natural Suspicion.

"What makes you think this man an impostor when he says he is from Boston?"

"The fact that he doesn't claim to know the Back Bay district."—Chicago News.

WANTED.

WANTED—AGENTS BY PRUDENTIAL Insurance company. Inquire at 1 o'clock each day, room 10 Foutts building. M. M. Dunlop, assistant superintendent.

WANTED—AGENTS TO SELL MURAT Halstead's Great Cuba book; all about Cuba, Spain and war; great excitement; everyone buys it; one agent sold 87 in one day; another made $13 in one hour, 600 pages; magnificent illustrations; photographs, etc., low price; we guarantee the most liberal terms; freight paid; 20 days credit; outfit free; send 6 two-cent stamps to pay postage. The Bible House, 324 Dearborn street, Chicago.

WANTED—AGENT FOR PRUDENTIAL Insurance company. Good route now open. Apply to B. F. Specht, Assistant Superintendent, room 9, Foutts building, or postoffice box 162.

WANTED—THREE OR FOUR ROOMS for light housekeeping. Must be centrally located. Inquire at this office at once.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—SIX ROOM HOUSE, NEARLY new, with lot 30x130, near Fourth and Jefferson. Price $2,400. Also adjoining lot $1,100. Inquire this office.

FOR SALE—BUGGY, ALMOST NEW AND in first class condition. Will sell at a big bargain. For full particulars inquire of J. S. McIntosh, Ray's livery stable, City Livery.

For Sale.

Two desirable houses in West End. A new 7 roomed house, fronting on Lisbon road. A 4 roomed house, fronting in Fairview street; in good repair. For full particulars, terms, price, etc., apply at 291 Lincoln avenue.

FOR SALE—A 4-ROOMED HOUSE, WITH lot 40x100, on Lincoln avenue. Price, $2,350. Apply to J. P. Haulon, 315 Lincoln avenue.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—NICE SIX ROOMED HOUSE, with all modern conveniences. Nicely located. For full particulars, inquire at this office.

THE Union Building Loan and Trust Co.,

OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

Incorporated under the laws of Ohio under state inspection.

Authorized Capital, $300,000.

SHARES $100 EACH.

For Borrowers and Investors

LOANS MADE FROM $100 UP.

J. M. Kelly, president; Geo. W. Burford, vice president; S. T. Herbert, secretary; N. G. Macrum, treasurer; G. Y. Travis, attorney.

Board of Directors—J. M. Kelly, vice president First National Bank; Geo. W. Burford, Secretary the Burford Bros. Pottery Co.; H. A. Ketter, secretary the Potters' Co-operative Co.; S. T. Herbert, city treasurer; G. Y. Travis, attorney at law; Cornelius Cronin, secretary and treasurer the Standard Pottery Co.; J. T. Smith, president the J. T. Smith Lumber Co.; T. V. Milligan, Jr., secretary and treasurer the Eagle Hardware Co.; N. G. Macrum, cashier First National Bank.

Depository: First National Bank.

For full information apply to any of the above named gentlemen or agent of the Company.

Temporary Office: Grand Opera House Block. Office of Herbert & Travis.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

The Republican voters of Liverpool township and East Liverpool city are hereby notified that a primary election, to choose candidates for election April 4, 1898, will be held Saturday, March 19, 1898, between the hours of 1 and 7 p. m., city time. The following candidates are to be chosen:

One Mayor.
One Solicitor.
One Marshal.
One Treasurer.
One City Commissioner.
One Water Works Trustee.
One Cemetery Trustee.
One member of Council from each ward.
One Assessor from each ward and township.
One Justice of the Peace.
One Township Trustee.
One Township Clerk.
One Constable.
One member of School Board from each ward.

Names of candidates are to be handed the clerk of the Central Committee on or before 8 p. m., of March 10.

The polls will be at the usual places as near as possible.

By order of Committee.

D. F. NELLIS, Chairman.

JAS. N. HANLEY, Secretary.

Money to Loan

IN ANY SUM FROM

$100 TO $10,000,

on easy payment and low rate of interest. Full particulars at the

POTTERS' BUILDING & SAVINGS' COMPANY

Corner Fifth and Washington Streets.

The Press

OF THE NEWS REVIEW

HUMS CONSTANTLY

Put in your order early if you want up-to-date work delivered promptly.

F. W. B.

Cleveland & Pittsburg Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Time

Westward.		335	337	339	341	359
		AM	PM	PM	PM	AM
Pittsburgh	lv	15 45	11 30	14 30	11 00	17 30
Reechester		6 45	2 20	5 25	11 55	8 17
Vanport		6 50	2 25	5 30	12 00	8 22
Industry		7 00	2 35	5 40	12 10	8 31
Cooks Ferry		7 03	2 38	5 43	12 13	8 34
Smiths Ferry		7 11	2 40	5 48	12 16	8 39
East Liverpool		7 20	2 49	5 56	12 23	8 45
Wellsville	ar	7 33	3 00	6 28	12 40	9 15
Wellsville		7 42	3 05		12 45
Wellsville Shop		7 46			12 50
Yellow Creek		7 52			12 55
Hammondsville		8 00			1 03
Irondale		8 04	3 22		1 06
Salineville		8 19	3 38		1 27
Bayard		8 57	4 10		2 30
Alliance	{ ar.	9 30	4 33	7 43	2 30
Hudson	{ lv.	10 05	4 58	8 08	2 35
Ravenna		10 40	5 06	8 28	2 40
Cleveland		12 10	6 25		4 30
Wellsville	lv	7 47	3 10	6 55	15 55	11 02
Wellsville Shop		7 52	3 15	7 04	5 59	11 05
Yellow Creek		7 57	3 18	7 08	5 59	11 10
Port Homer		8 03	3 23	7 09	6 17
Empire		8 10	3 28	7 14	6 17	11 21
Elliottsville		8 17	3 33	7 18	6 21	11 25
Toronto		8 21	3 35	7 23	6 30	11 28
Costonia		8 28	3 43	7 28	6 37
Steubenville		8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Mingo Je	{ lv.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Brilliant		8 51	4 10	7 53	7 05	11 53
Rush Run		8 58	4 20	8 07	7 14	12 01
Portland		9 07	4 32	8 09	7 24	12 10
Yorkville		9 14	4 39	8 15	7 30	12 16
Martins Ferry		9 19	4 46	8 20	7 37	12 21
Irondale		9 22	4 50	8 23	7 38	12 28
Wellsville		9 30	5 00	8 28	7 48	12 35
Bellaire	ar.	9 50	5 20	8 45	8 10	12 45
		AM	PM	PM	AM	PM
Eastward.		340	342	348	350	4 00
		AM	AM	PM	PM	PM
Bellaire	lv	14 45	9 00	14 45	11 00	17 30
Bridgeport		5 53	9 09	5 58	11 16	8 20
Martins Ferry		5 01	9 15	5 02	11 16	8 20
Yorkville		5 10	9 20	5 12	11 20	8 25
Portland		5 15	9 28	5 15	11 28	8 30
Rush Run		5 20	9 33	5 20	11 33	8 35
Brilliant		5 28	9 41	5 28	11 41	8 42
Mingo Je		5 35	9 48	5 35	11 48	8 49
Steubenville	{ ar.	5 44	9 55	5 44	11 55	8 58
Costonia		5 50	10 02	5 50	12 02	9 05
Toronto		6 07	10 10	6 11	12 10	9 12
Elliottsville		6 11	10 19	6 11	12 19	9 16
Empire		6 13	10 30	6 21	12 27	9 18
Port Homer		6 20	10 33	6 20	12 33	9 25
Yellow Creek		6 26	10 40	6 26	12 40	9 30
Wellsville Shop		6 31	10 45	6 31	12 45	9 35
Wellsville		6 35	10 50	6 35	12 50	9 40
Wellsville	lv	7 42			3 05
Wellsville Shop		7 46
Yellow Creek		7 52
Hammondsville		8 00
Irondale		8 04
Salineville		8 19
Bayard		8 57
Alliance	{ ar.	9 30
Hudson	{ lv.	10 05
Ravenna		11 03
Cleveland	ar	12 10
Wellsville		6 45	11 00	6 51	11 30	9 35
East Liverpool		6 57	11 10	7 03	11 40	9 40
Smiths Ferry		7 07	11 20	7 08	11 50	9 45
Cooks Ferry		7 20	11 26	7 22	12 00	9 48
Industry		7 25	11 31	7 25	12 05	9 53
Vanport		7 34	11 40	7 34	12 14	9 58
Reaver		7 40	11 45	7 40	12 19	10 03
Rochester		7 45	11 50	7 45	12 24	10 08
Pittsburgh	ar	8 50	12 40	8 30	5 10
		AM	PM	PM	PM	AM
		Daily Except Sunday.				Daily
		Connect. in Union station, Pitts., with three trains East.				Meals
		No. 338 and 342				342
		Left West 12 midnight, 12 noon, 12 mid- night.				340
		Dark Faced Type denotes 12 noon to 12 mid- night.				348

TO THE ADVERTISERS.

The Evening News Review has the largest bona fide PAID daily circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, and the largest circulation in Wellsville of any daily paper published in East Liverpool. Keen witted and wide awake business men and advertisers will make note of these facts.

HARRY PALMER,
Owner and Manager.

TO BUSINESS MEN.

The combination prices of the NEWS REVIEW, advertisement in paper and bills from said advertisement, are cheaper than any other daily paper in the city, while the workmanship, material and inks made use of are incomparably superior to those of would-be competitors. Test the matter. We will prove the truth of our assertion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Elmer Bettridge is ill at his home in Grant street.

A local restaurant man has named his place "the Cafe Maine."

Paul Shaw has recovered from a severe attack of the measles.

Oscar Allison, of Second street, who has been ill with fever, is improving.

Mrs. H. L. Simms, of Second street, is confined to her room by an attack of asthma.

Yesterday at the wharf over 14,000 hoop poles were taken from the three packets.

George Brunt, of Fifth street, is confined to his home, threatened with typhoid fever.

Prof. O. S. Reed went to Toronto this morning where he will conduct a series of meetings.

Superintendent Phillip Morley is confined to his home threatened with typhoid fever.

The Elks will attend the morning service at the First Presbyterian church the first Sunday in April.

O. D. Nice mourns the loss of a valuable black and tan dog which has evidently been penned up by some person.

William Douglass, of Calcutta road, who has been confined to his home for some time with fever, is able to be out.

A Western Union observatory clock will be placed in the office of the power house this week. The requisition arrived this morning.

President Hall, of the Citizens' National bank, said this morning that he expected the plans for the new building in the city tomorrow.

Charles Ritchel, who has been in the city for some time, will leave for Montreal, Can., the first of the month. He will locate in that city.

Thomas H. Arbuckle left Saturday evening for Philadelphia, where he will attend a meeting of the auditing committee of the Mystic Circle.

The funeral of Michael Demmerling took place this afternoon from his late residence in Jethro street. Interment was made at Spring Grove.

Mrs. Sophia Wucherer is very ill at her home in Walnut street. Yesterday her condition was such that her recovery was thought to be doubtful.

The class meetings at the First M. E. church yesterday were well attended, and resulted in the sanctification of four persons and the conversion of one.

The funeral of Mrs. Levina Rowley took place yesterday afternoon, from her late residence in Seventh street. Interment was made in Riverview.

David Allison has entered suit in the court of Squire Rose against Wallace & Chetwynd for $44.88, claimed due for goods sold and delivered. The case will be heard Saturday.

Among the most pleasant social events of the season was that at which Mrs. Lou Steinfeld entertained her friends Saturday afternoon. Her home in Walnut street was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The work of the painters at the freight depot was finished Saturday afternoon, and the painters' car was taken to Wellsville by the pony Saturday evening. The men are now working at Vanport. They will be there several days on some needed work.

This morning the township trustees were notified that a girl in West End was ill with typhoid fever and was not getting the proper care. Some charitable ladies provided her with bedding and the trustees purchased some blankets and sent them to the house.

The work of measuring the new Ohio Valley gas lines that has been going on for several days, will, it is thought be completed this evening. Everything of any importance is being noted by the men in charge of the work, and a complete report will be made to the company.

Flowers in History.

Flowers have always played a great part in the world's history. They have done so ever since the days of the Planagenets, when a king took a sprig of yellow broom "to live and to die with my name." The rose of England, the lilies of France--what wild passions and fierce conflicts have not these innocent blossoms raised! And then the violet! Surely it was the irony of fate that wove this emblem of humility into the proud destinies of the French empire--a forecast perhaps of the tragedies to come. The Empress Eugenie wore them on her bridal day; they fell thick and fast on the prince imperial's pall. They were laid on the last resting place of England's beloved "Princess Mary," sent with these words, "Souvenir d'une tendre amitie," from the Empress Eugenie herself.

A Latin poem of the sixteenth century has a pretty legend of a violet that, in mythological days, was a maiden called Ianthia, one of Diana's nymphs. She attracted the attention of Apollo, whose admiration she did not return, and, flying from his pursuit, she implored Diana to destroy the beauty which occasioned her so much trouble. Diana granted her request and turned her face to a dull purple. Ianthia, however, soon regretted the loss of her beauty and was pining away with grief, when the goddess had pity on her and changed her into a flower, which still shrinks from Apollo (the sun) and hides her modest head in the shade; hence perhaps the French "posie," which often accompanies the violet (used as a seal or ring ornamentation), "Il faut me chercher."—Gentlewomen.

Not Fickle.

The saying, "Fickle as a weathercock," once received a striking refutation in the experience of Dr. W. E. Channing. The famous Boston divine, being of a feeble constitution, was led to go to extremes in protecting himself against the cold, penetrating air of the winter in Boston. At such times nothing would induce him to go out of the house, even in a carriage, if the wind was from the east.

A friend, not having heard from Dr. Channing for three weeks, notwithstanding that the weather had been unusually mild and agreeable, feared that he might be ill and called at his house to inquire. He found Channing in his library, the sun streaming through the closed windows, and a blazing fire in the grate. The room was almost suffocating. The doctor himself seemed in his usual health and spirits. Naturally the visitor asked why he was not enjoying the soft air and sunshine. Channing shook his head and said: "Impossible, my friend. I dare not, and you know I never do, venture out of doors in an east wind."

"But the wind has been south for the last three weeks," urged his friend.

"You are greatly mistaken," rejoined the doctor. "Look at the weather vane," and he pointed triumphantly to the weathercock of a neighboring church. "But that vane has not moved for the last three weeks. It wants oiling," was the response.

The good doctor had been kept a prisoner for three weeks by a rusty weathercock.—Youth's Companion.

"Do you know a good tonic for nervous persons, Simpkins?"
"No. What I want to find is a tonic for people who have to live with them."
—Boston Traveler.

JOSEPH W. BAILEY DEAD.

Benjamin Wilkinson and Mrs. Thomas Davis Also Passed Away.

Joseph W. Bailey died Saturday night at his home, Thompson hill, aged 49 years.

Deceased was born in this city and was well and favorably known. He was been foreman of the clay shops at Brunt's pottery for several years, and was a member of the Sons of St. George. A wife and five children are left to mourn his loss. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 2 o'clock. Rev. Huston officiating. Interment at Riverview. Rev. H. W. Bailey, of Batavia, a brother of the deceased, arrived this morning.

Benjamin Wilkinson died Saturday at his home in Fifth street from malaria fever, aged 43 years. A wife and five children survive him. The funeral will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock, Reverend Lee officiating. Interment at Riverview.

Mrs. Thomas Davis died this morning at her home in Minerva street from a stroke of paralysis. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Spring Grove.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Fred Wooster spent yesterday in Toronto the guest of D. C. Thomas.

—Will Leech, rate clerk at the freight office, spent yesterday with his sister in Alliance.

—J. A. Smith, of the freight depot, spent yesterday with his family in Summitville.

—Reverend Salmon, of East End, left this morning for a short stay with relatives in Harlem Springs.

ELECTRICAL SPANKING.

Novel Device to Be Employed in a Girls' Industrial School.

Warden C. P. Hoyt of Denver has designed a spanking chair for use in the Industrial School For Girls. It consists of a seatless chair on which the girls are placed. It is high enough from the ground to allow four paddles to be operated by electric wires. Straps hold the victim's wrists to the arms of the chair. At the Girls' Industrial school of Kansas, situated at Beloit, they have what is called a spanking chair. Bad girls are strapped in a chair, and an attendant presses the button and the chair does the rest. The Kansas authorities will be asked to explain the system, and if it is satisfactory to the local authorities a spanking chair will be purchased for the Colorado institution.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Will Want Pensions Next.

The next thing, says the Atchison Globe, will be demands for pensions from those who got hoarse in demanding war with Spain.

Experience Their Teacher.

People who have lived through one war are not anxious to precipitate another except as a measure of last resort.—Omaha Bee.

Only Naval Battle.

The nearest naval battle in sight is the intercollegiate rowing match.—New York Mail and Express.

"A CALL TO ARMS"

The Old Maid's Rally

Grand Opera House, MARCH 21, 22
Under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A.

Ho; men; women;
Come and see,
How young and sweet
Old maids can be.

A catchy program has been planned, Will be made playable "on demand."

This world is badly out of joint,
Men are so slow to see the point.

We prink and wink, talk, walk and sprint,
Out cannot make them take the hint.

So their acuteness to enhance,
We give them now one more last chance.

Come, hear the Spinsters' drowning cry,
Help; man the life boats ere we dye.

BARGAINS IN PROPERTY.

House and lot near West End school house. A double frame house, slate roof, three rooms on each side and water at the door. A rare chance to buy a cheap home.

Two acres of land near West End school house, fronting about 300 feet on Fairview and Lisbon streets; a great bargain for anyone wishing to buy out town lots and build tenement houses. Price, $1000. Terms easy.

A. E. McCLEAN,

208 Sixth Street

Watch this space each week.

CARPET WEAVING.

I weave carpets to order on short notice, and good work done. Come and see me, or drop me a postal and I will call.
C. W. Aveman,
341 Walnut St., near Calcutta road.

Dr. Geo. D. Arnum,

Surgeon Dentist,

Specialties: Crown and Bridge Work, and Preservation of the Natural Teeth. Syndicate Bldg., Sixth St.

Dr. J. N. VODREY

DENTIST,

Room 4, Porter Building, DIAMOND.

DYSPEPSIA,

Heartburn, Gastritis, and all Stomach Disorders positively cured. Grover Graham's Dyspepsia Remedy is a specific. One dose removes all distress, and a permanent cure of the most chronic and severe cases is guaranteed. Do not suffer! A 50 cent bottle will convince the most skeptical.

RAIRD & SON, Druggists East End.

LOST--A BLACK AND TAN DOG. Return to O. D. Nice.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR TOWNSHIP CLERK,

J. N. HANLEY.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries.

FOR MAYOR,

E. A. STEVENSON.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR MAYOR,

JOHN W. WYMAN.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR TOWNSHIP CLERK,

JOHN R. REARK.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE,

J. N. ROSE.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR MAYOR

A. V. GILBERT,

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries.

FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE,

DANIEL L. McLANE,

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR CITY SOLICITOR.

(Second term.)

FRANK E. GROSSHANS.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19.

FOR CONSTABLE

JACOB G. SCHENKLE.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR CITY TREASURER.

S. T. HERBERT.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR STREET COMMISSIONER,

Wm. M. McCURE,

(Better known as "Mitch")

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR CITY SOLICITOR,

M. J. M'GARRY,

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR STREET COMMISSIONER,

ALEX BRYAN.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR ASSESSOR, FIRST WARD,

L. W. CARMAN,

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries March 19, 1898.

FOR MARSHAL.

A. J. JOHNSON.

(SECOND TERM.)

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR ASSESSOR—First ward.

WILLIAM NIBLOCK.

(SECOND TERM.)

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR COUNCIL—Fourth ward.

G. W. ASHBAUGH,

(SECOND TERM.)

Subject to decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR COUNCIL—Fourth Ward,

J. T. BENNETT.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, Saturday, March 19. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR STREET COMMISSIONER.

JOHN MINTO.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, Saturday, March 19, 1898. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR STREET COMMISSIONER,

J. E. BOWERS.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898. Your vote and influence solicited.

SEE OUR LINE

..OF..

GIRDLES.

Gilt Girdles,
Enameled Girdles,
Jeweled Girdles,
Oxidized Girdles,
Silver Girdles.

WADE, The Jeweler.

305 Market Street.

The First National Bank

Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.
Vice President—J. M. KELLY.
Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.
Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE, J. M. KELLY, N. G. MACRUM, B. C. SIMMS, W. L. THOMPSON, O. C. VODREY, JNO. C. THOMPSON.

Capital, - - - $100,000
Surplus, - - - 50,000

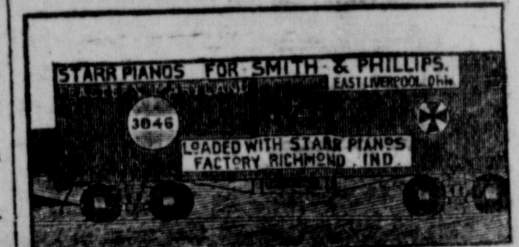

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Accounts

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent.

193 Washington Street.

SMITH &

PHILLIPS

CITIZENS' NATIONAL BANK,
of East Liverpool, Ohio.

Office Fourth Street,
Near Smith & Phillips Music House.

Capital Stock, $100,000

Discount Days, Monday, Wednesday & Friday.

BUSINESS AND PERSONAL ACCOUNTS
Respectfully Solicited.

Bank open: Daily from 9 to 12 a. m. and 1 to 4 p. m. Saturdays open from 8 to 10 p. m.

ROBERT HALL, President.
JOSEPH G. LEE, Vice President.
HEBER H. BLYTH, Cashier.

Board of Directors:—Robert Hall, Joseph G. Lee, Wm. Erlanger, Dr. W. N. Bailey, Robert Burford, Dr. W. A. Hobbs, John W. Vodrey, A. J. Wittzman, John M. Steel.

EAST LIVERPOOL MONUMENT WORKS

154-156
Third Street.
First-Class Work. First-Class Materials; Prices
Very Reasonable. Now is your time to secure work in this line.

C. N. Everson

ALL THE NEWS

In the NEWS
REVIEW

TO THE ADVERTISERS.

The Evening News Review has the largest bona-fide PAID daily circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, and the largest circulation in Wellsville of any daily paper published in East Liverpool. Keen witted and wide awake business men and advertisers will make note of these facts.

HARRY PALMER,
Owner and Manager.

TO BUSINESS MEN.

The combination prices of the NEWS REVIEW, advertisement in paper and bills from said advertisement, are cheaper than any other daily paper in the city, while the workmanship, material and inks made use of are incomparably superior to those of would-be competitors. Test the matter. We will prove the truth of our assertion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Elmer Bettridge is ill at his home in Grant street.

A local restaurant man has named his place "the Cafe Maine."

Paul Shaw has recovered from a severe attack of the measles.

Oscar Allison, of Second street, who has been ill with fever, is improving.

Mrs. H. L. Simms, of Second street, is confined to her room by an attack of asthma.

Yesterday at the wharf over 14,000 hoop poles were taken from the three packets.

George Brunt, of Fifth street, is confined to his home, threatened with typhoid fever.

Prof. O. S. Reed went to Toronto this morning where he will conduct a series of meetings.

Superintendent Phillip Morley is confined to his home threatened with typhoid fever.

The Elks will attend the morning service at the First Presbyterian church the first Sunday in April.

O. D. Nice mourns the loss of a valuable black and tan dog which has evidently been penned up by some person.

William Douglass, of Calcutta road, who has been confined to his home for some time with fever, is able to be out.

A Western Union observatory clock will be placed in the office of the power house this week. The requisition arrived this morning.

President Hall, of the Citizens' National bank, said this morning that he expected the plans for the new building in the city tomorrow.

Charles Ritchel, who has been in the city for some time, will leave for Montreal, Can., the first of the month. He will locate in that city.

Thomas H. Arbuckle left Saturday evening for Philadelphia, where he will attend a meeting of the auditing committee of the Mystic Circle.

The funeral of Michael Demmerling took place this afternoon from his late residence in Jethro street. Interment was made at Spring Grove.

Mrs. Sophia Wucherer is very ill at her home in Walnut street. Yesterday her condition was such that her recovery was thought to be doubtful.

The class meetings at the First M. E. church yesterday were well attended, and resulted in the sanctification of four persons and the conversion of one.

The funeral of Mrs. Levina Rowley took place yesterday afternoon, from her late residence in Seventh street. Interment was made in Riverview.

David Allison has entered suit in the court of Squire Rose against Wallace & Chetwynd for $44.88, claimed due for goods sold and delivered. The case will be heard Saturday.

Among the most pleasant social events of the season was that at which Mrs. Lou Steinfeld entertained her friends Saturday afternoon. Her home in Walnut street was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The work of the painters at the freight depot was finished Saturday afternoon, and the painters' car was taken to Wellsville by the pony Saturday evening. The men are now working at Vanport. They will be there several days on some needed work.

This morning the township trustees were notified that a girl in West End was ill with typhoid fever and was not getting the proper care. Some charitable ladies provided her with bedding and the trustees purchased some blankets and sent them to the house.

The work of measuring the new Ohio Valley gas lines that has been going on for several days, will, it is thought be completed this evening. Everything of any importance is being noted by the men in charge of the work, and a complete report will be made to the company.

Flowers In History.

Flowers have always played a great part in the world's history. They have done so ever since the days of the Plantagenets, when a king took a sprig of yellow broom "to live and to die with my name." The rose of England, the lilies of France—what wild passions and fierce conflicts have not these innocent blossoms raised! And then the violet! Surely it was the irony of fate that wove this emblem of humility into the proud destinies of the French empire—a forecast perhaps of the tragedies to come. The Empress Eugenie wore them on her bridal day; they fell thick and fast on the prince imperial's pall. They were laid on the last resting place of England's beloved "Princess Mary," sent with these words, "Souvenir d'une tendre amitie," from the Empress Eugenie herself.

A Latin poem of the sixteenth century has a pretty legend of a violet that, in mythological days, was a maiden called Ianthia, one of Diana's nymphs. She attracted the attention of Apollo, whose admiration she did not return, and, flying from his pursuit, she implored Diana to destroy the beauty which occasioned her so much trouble. Diana granted her request and turned her face to a dull purple. Ianthia, however, soon regretted the loss of her beauty and was pining away with grief, when the goddess had pity on her and changed her into a flower, which still shrinks from Apollo (the sun) and hides her modest head in the shade; hence perhaps the French "posie," which often accompanies the violet (used as a seal or ring ornamentation), "Il faut me chercher."—Gentlewomen.

Not Fickle.

The saying, "Fickle as a weathercock," once received a striking refutation in the experience of Dr. W. E. Channing. The famous Boston divine, being of a feeble constitution, was led to go to extremes in protecting himself against the cold, penetrating air of the winter in Boston. At such times nothing would induce him to go out of the house, even in a carriage, if the wind was from the east.

A friend, not having heard from Dr. Channing for three weeks, notwithstanding that the weather had been unusually mild and agreeable, feared that he might be ill and called at his house to inquire. He found Channing in his library, the sun streaming through the closed windows, and a blazing fire in the grate. The room was almost suffocating. The doctor himself seemed in his usual health and spirits. Naturally the visitor asked why he was not enjoying the soft air and sunshine. Channing shook his head and said: "Impossible, my friend. I dare not, and you know I never do, venture out of doors in an east wind."

"But the wind has been south for the last three weeks," urged his friend.

"You are greatly mistaken," rejoined the doctor. "Look at the weather vane," and he pointed triumphantly to the weathercock of a neighboring church.

"But that vane has not moved for the last three weeks. It wants oiling," was the response.

The good doctor had been kept a prisoner for three weeks by a rusty weathercock.—Youth's Companion.

"Do you know a good tonic for nervous persons, Simpkins?"
"No. What I want to find is a tonic for people who have to live with them."
—Boston Traveler.

JOSEPH W. BAILEY DEAD.

Benjamin Wilkinson and Mrs. Thomas Davis Also Passed Away.

Joseph W. Bailey died Saturday night at his home, Thompson hill, aged 49 years.

Deceased was born in this city and was well and favorably known. He was been foreman of the clay shops at Brunt's pottery for several years, and was a member of the Sons of St. George. A wife and five children are left to mourn his loss. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 2 o'clock, Rev. Huston officiating. Interment at Riverview. Rev. H. W. Bailey, of Batavia, a brother of the deceased, arrived this morning.

Benjamin Wilkinson died Saturday at his home in Fifth street from malaria fever, aged 43 years. A wife and five children survive him. The funeral will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock, Reverend Lee officiating. Interment at Riverview.

Mrs. Thomas Davis died this morning at her home in Minerva street from a stroke of paralysis. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Spring Grove.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Fred Wooster spent yesterday in Toronto the guest of D. C. Thomas.

—Will Leech, rate clerk at the freight office, spent yesterday with his sister in Alliance.

—J. A. Smith, of the freight depot, spent yesterday with his family in Summitville.

—Reverend Salmon, of East End, left this morning for a short stay with relatives in Harlem Springs.

ELECTRICAL SPANKING.

Novel Device to Be Employed in a Girls' Industrial School.

Warden C. P. Hoyt of Denver has designed a spanking chair for use in the Industrial School For Girls. It consists of a seatless chair on which the girls are placed. It is high enough from the ground to allow four paddles to be operated by electric wires. Straps hold the victim's wrists to the arms of the chair.

At the Girls' Industrial school of Kansas, situated at Beloit, they have what is called a spanking chair. Bad girls are strapped in a chair, and an attendant presses the button and the chair does the rest. The Kansas authorities will be asked to explain the system, and if it is satisfactory to the local authorities a spanking chair will be purchased for the Colorado institution.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Will Want Pensions Next.

The next thing, says the Atchison Globe, will be demands for pensions from those who got hoarse in demanding war with Spain.

Experience Their Teacher.

People who have lived through one war are not anxious to precipitate another except as a measure of last resort.—Omaha Bee.

Only Naval Battle.

The nearest naval battle in sight is the intercollegiate rowing match.—New York Mail and Express.

"A CALL TO ARMS"

The Old Maid's Rally

Grand Opera House, MARCH 21, 22
Under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A.

Ho; men; women;
Come and see,
How young and sweet
Old maids can be.

A catchy program has been planned. Will be made playable "on demand."

This world is badly out of joint,
Men are so slow to see the point.

We prink and wink, talk, walk and sprint,
Out cannot make them take the hint.

So their acuteness to enhance,
We give them now one more last chance.

Come, hear the Spinsters' drowning cry,
Help; man the life boats ere we die.

BARGAINS IN PROPERTY.

House and lot near West End school house. A double frame house, slate roof, three rooms on each side and water at the door. A rare chance to buy a cheap home.

Two acres of land near West End school house, fronting about 300 feet on Fairview and Lisbon streets; a great bargain for anyone wishing to buy out town lots and build tenement houses. Price, $1000. Terms easy.

A. E. McCLEAN,

208 Sixth Street

Watch this space each week.

CARPET WEAVING.

I weave carpets to order on short notice, and good work done. Come and see me, or drop me a postal and I will call. C. W. Aveman, 341 Walnut St., near Calcutta road.

Dr. Geo. D. Arnum,

Surgeon Dentist,
Specialties: Syndicate Bldg., Crown and Bridge Work, Sixth St. and Preservation of the Natural Teeth.

Dr. J. N. VODREY

DENTIST,
Room 4, Porter Building,
DIAMOND.

DYSPEPSIA,

Heartburn, Gastritis, and all Stomach Disorders, positively cured. Grover Graham's Dyspepsia Remedy is a specific. One dose removes all distress, and a permanent cure of the most chronic and severe cases is guaranteed. Do not suffer! A 50 cent bottle will convince the most skeptical.

RAIRD & SON, Druggists
East End.

LOST—A BLACK AND TAN DOG. Return to O. D. Nice.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR TOWNSHIP CLERK.

J. N. HANLEY.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries.

FOR MAYOR.

E. A. STEVENSON.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR MAYOR.

JOHN W. WYMAN.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR TOWNSHIP CLERK.

JOHN R. REARK.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

J. N. ROSE.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR MAYOR

A. V. GILBERT.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries.

FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

DANIEL L. McLANE,

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR CITY SOLICITOR.

(Second term.)

FRANK E. GROSSHANS.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, March 19.

FOR CONSTABLE

JACOB G. SCHENKLE.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR CITY TREASURER.

S. T. HERBERT.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR STREET COMMISSIONER.

Wm. M. McCURE,
(Better known as "Mitch")

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR CITY SOLICITOR.

M. J. M'GARRY,

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR STREET COMMISSIONER.

ALEX BRYAN.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR ASSESSOR, FIRST WARD.

L. W. CARMAN,

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries March 19, 1898.

FOR MARSHAL.

A. J. JOHNSON.
(SECOND TERM.)

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR ASSESSOR—First ward.

WILLIAM NIBLOCK.
(SECOND TERM.)

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR COUNCIL—Fourth ward.

G. W. ASHBAUGH,
(SECOND TERM.)

Subject to decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898.

FOR COUNCIL—Fourth Ward.

J. T. BENNETT.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, Saturday, March 19. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR STREET COMMISSIONER.

JOHN MINTO.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, Saturday, March 19, 1898. Your vote and influence solicited.

FOR STREET COMMISSIONER.

J. E. BOWERS.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries, March 19, 1898. Your vote and influence solicited.

SEE OUR LINE

..OF..

GIRDLES.

Gilt Girdles,

Enameled Girdles,

Jeweled Girdles,

Oxidized Girdles,

Silver Girdles.

WADE, The Jeweler.

205 Market Street.

The First National Bank

Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.

Vice President—J. M. KELLY.

Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.

Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE, J. M. KELLY, B. C. SIMMS.

W. L. THOMPSON, O. O. VODREY, JNO. C. THOMPSON.

Capital, - - - $100,000

Surplus, - - - 50,000

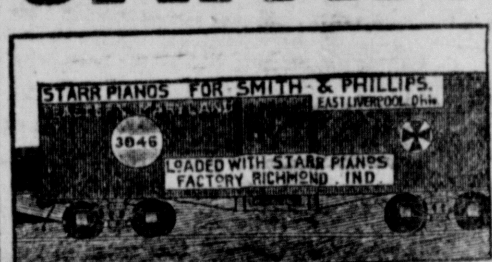

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Accounts

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent.

193 Washington Street.

SMITH &

PHILLIPS

CITIZENS' NATIONAL BANK,

of East Liverpool, Ohio.

Office Fourth Street,
Near Smith & Phillips Music House.

Capital Stock, $100,000

Discount Days, Monday, Wednesday & Friday.

BUSINESS AND PERSONAL ACCOUNTS

Respectfully Solicited.

Bank open: Daily from 9 to 12 a. m. and 1 to 4 p. m. Saturdays open from 8 to 10 p. m.

ROBERT HALL, President.

JOSEPH G. LEE, Vice President.

HEBER H. BLYTH, Cashier.

Board of Directors:—Robert Hall, Joseph G. Lee, Wm. Erlanger, Dr. W. N. Bailey, Robert Burford, Dr. W. A. Hobbs, John W. Vodrey, A. J. Witzeman, John M. Steel.

EAST LIVERPOOL

MONUMENT

WORKS

ALL THE NEWS

In the

NEWS

REVIEW